His team was considering devoting at 8:00PM on Mondays to political satire (Sic O'Clock News Naman), he said; Tuesdays to the horror series (Shale, Rattle and Roll); and Wednesdays and Fridays to PBA games or other sporting events from 8:00PM to 9:30PM; and Thursdays to the sitcom (Abra Gayuma) and the reality shows (K-Pop Star Hunt) at 8:45PM, and now some of daily local entertainment shows—fantasy series, soap operas, Mexican telenovela and Asian dramas from Korea and Taiwan as well as its two of primetime news programs *Express Balita*at 6:30PM and Ronda Trese at 11:30PM.

Asked if he wasn't worried that IBC's customized primetime blocking would render day-to-day ratings consistent, Dyogi said: "We hope to break the audience's viewing habits by offering a wide array of shows."

First to air programs in the words are Janella Salvador's fantasy drama series called Janella in Wondrland together with Marlo Mortel; Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago's hit drama series Your Heart, My Love; and the most romantic dramedy series Crazy Little Thing Called Love which is also stars Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes and Maricar Reyes.

"It's a satisfying offering to the viewers," IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi says about the Kapinoy Network's "daily" primetime programming. The Kapinoy Network airs teleseryes every night just like other TV networks that air soap operas and fantasy series nightly.

Janella, local TV's teen darling princess of primetime and Claudine, local TV's queen of soap

April 17, 2014

Janella Salvador and Marlo Mortel, and Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago, stars of Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love, respectively

We all know that it has never been this big as the other media corporations, the network wants to shake viewing habits by thinking out of the box in our banner is just one of the media networks IBC shows that produces local shows and aims to compete with big channels ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Some of these popular shows were Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Sandy's Romance, Once Upon a Time, Born to be a Superstar, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Happy TODAS, DMZ-TV, Iskul Bukol Men, The Million Scond Quiz and Last Fool Show. IBC tries on these shows and aired them on Saturday and Sunday nights. Also started competing during primetime weeknight slots against the big channels for their own soap operas and fantasy series. They just focused all their energies on weekends.

The primetime block of rival networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are filled with drama series when IBC-13 goes on the genres of soap operas and fantasy serials offer people another teleserye.

When other networks air teleserye on primetime, Janella Salvador now hailed the "primetime princess of teen darling" and Claudine Barretto she claim that about being called "queen of soap operas" would rather focus on acting well on-screen airing a daily soap operas and fantasy series.

Janella top-billed a daytime princess as the role of Nikki in Be Careful With My Heart which is starring Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap on ABS-CBN. Now that's the name of teen darling Janella's fantasy drama series called Janella in Wonderland airs weeknights at 7:30 p.m. after the news program Express Balita

Oh my gee, IBC's hit mermaid fantaserye, started to garner the high ratings which is posed an impressive 37.8 percent audience share, or over three million Mega Manila than its rival ABS-CBN's Dyesebel (30.6%) which is starring Anne Cutis and GMA's Kambal Sirena (17.4%) also starring Louise delos Reyes.

Kapinoy queen of Pinoy soap opera Claudine is now on her own ninth soap opera Your Heart, My Love, the nightly teleserye which after Mula sa Puso, Saan Ka Man Naroroon, Sa Dulo ng Walang Hanggan, Marina, Ikaw ang Lahat sa Akin, Walang Kapalit and Iisa Pa Lamang (ABS-CBN), and Iglot (GMA). The primetime heart-warming drama series airs weeknights at 9:30 p.m. to watch a teleserye on primetime.

Since young stars from ABS-CBN and GMA 7 freely appear in IBC shows. former Kapamilya star Claudine Baretto, for one, starring IBC's top-rater daily drama Your Heart, My Love.

Claudine's own primetime teleserye is about a strong woman Sophie dela Cruz they will find the mother of the world. Barretto's love team partner the king of Pinoy soap opera and box-office homegrown action star Raymart Santiago (Roel Veneracion) focus on competition, Claudine shares that the show would be such a huge hit that it is more than safe to say that it is one of IBC's most successful teleserye being the first television drama filmed and broadcast in high definition in the country

This will make it easier for the network to someday develop its own pool of talents who will star in its shows.

Claudine and Raymart's Your Heart, My Love is "consistently setting an upward trend in the ratings, beating other shows within its time slot and inching its way towards No.1 position." when the teleserye "hit 31.8 percent audience share one Saturday, outflanking ABS-CBN's The Legal Wife and GMA's Rhadora X."

Aside from having their respective soaps, Janella and Claudine have been linked with their male leads. Janella is being linked to her leading men Marlo Mortel and Freddie Gutierrez, and Claudine has been steady with Raymart Santiago and Christopher de Leon through the years. Meanwhile, the primetime prince Dingdong Dantes of the romantic kilig-serye Crazy Little Thing Called Love with a girlfriend Cristine Reyes.

Indeed, "It is our commitment to the viewers to continually give them more quality choices in Philippine television, we'll continue to bring innovative and highly-entertaining programs for our progressive Pinoys."

Aiming for the top

It was just like the glory days. People were in their Philippine television at its best. Food and drinks overflowed and advertisers and friends came in full force for a look-see at the "relaunching" of IBC-13, The Kapinoy Network. It was a nostalgia affair for many familliar faces and old industry hands. That interest in the Canoy and Roa came back was keen was clear from the attendance at the party at the Hotel Intercontinental. People were standing shoulder to shoulder but stayed on Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13.

Viva Entertainment chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. was all smiles, too, because it was a debut of sorts for his with all his new projects on Channel 13. The deal resulted in a new entertainment fare on primetime TV. Launching this May on Channel 13 primetime to make waves.

IBC chairman Eric Canoy was in top form. So were three other VIPs of the evening. Man of the hour was, of course, Boots Anson-Roa, president and CEO, in whose hands the Canoy and Roa have placed the gargatuan task of IBC's comeback. Boots, as always, remained calm and self-effacing but she was definitely in command. Visibily nervous, she admitted being exciting as any father would be over the birth of a child.

IBC continues tis competitive edge in the ratings race. The growth just can't be stopped, the station's upward trend continues. To be the number 3 network of Philppine television. Keep on watching for the best shows.

Asian Television Content is about to change the face of Channel 13. Watch out for the launch of its new programming. Feeling like David amongst the Goliaths of the industry, according to ATC executives.

Then there was Drew Arellano who emceed the presentation. Arellano is back to Channel 13 with his game show and if he plays his million-pesos right, he could very well be the next big name in TV game shows and program hosting. That he was asked to do the honors during the Kapinoy affair is an indication of how well the higher ups think of him. Meantime, it was good of Lito Ocampo Cruz, the executive vice president to admit that Channel 13 had much to do "scraping the bottom" as it does at the moment. Programs on IBC-13 would allow block time programming (the scheduling of sounter television programs back-to-back) "provided that it is focused on education, history, propagation of Philippine culture and high-quality entertainment." But he was just as optimistic in saying that with better programs and the new management under Canoy and IBC Board of Directors, IBC-13 is well on its way to the top restricts its programming.

IBC Continues its Rebuild

May 5, 2014

The rebuilding success continues for IBC, in an effort to earn a younger and massive audience.

Over half a year ago, IBC established its Anime Kapinoy, Have a Tanghali, IBC Classics, HapoNation, PrimeTastik, Panalo Weekend blocks. However, as the calendar in 2014, these programming blocks were deemphasized and it appears The Kapinoy Network.

Through the first 12 months, IBC gradually brought in new programs as part of its continuous restructuring process, which also included a relocation away from its Broadcast City headquarters in favor of the newly-opened IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, Diliman, Quezon City. The adjustment to a new location was difficult though, as the staff attempted to learn new digital-based methods in producing its programs.

In the news department came in Saturday night investigative public service program Bitag, afternoon public service shows Team Rescue 911, Global Mission, Negoshow (business show), Operation Lingkod Bayan and Makabayang Duktor (medical program), and the late night-turned midnight programs Linawin Natin (current affairs), Snooky (public service), Forum ni Randy (talk show about forum), Good Take (tele-magazine show) and Report Kay Boss(documentary). On the other hand, Express Balita and Ronda Trese once again claimed its position as the two of the number 1 news programs for both primetime and late-night.

It has sustained its stronghold through continuous leverage on unparalleled ability of providing high-quality and multi-genre content to its audience. As the leader in Philippine television broadcasting, sustained its drive to capture the hearts of its audience through its innovative and multi-genre programming mix. IBC Entertainment TV leveraged on its strengths and boldly launched fresh programming concepts to sustain its hold on core audiences and at the same time nurturing key demographics for the future.

Original shows enthused the Filipino household's primetime viewing as they experience an ensemble of complementing breakthrough programs completing IBC Entertainment TV's extensive offerings are programs which not only kept core viewers and but also key target markets engrossed and engaged.

Since the amount of airtime more than the airtime needed for PBA and NBA, they have expanded to other shows which include other sports and entertainment.

In terms of entertainment, IBC's primetime block PrimeTastik starting with a teleserye at night introducing the mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland, while a dramaserye Your Heart, My Love and another kiligserye in Crazy Little Thing Called Love will be part of the Kapinoy network's primetime programming bought a huge amount of airtime in primetime and weeknights for a good price. In Panalo Weekend, on the other side of the spectrum, in which favor of the boys night ou in the gag show Happy TODAS and sitcom Iskul Bukol Men, the love-team of drama anthology Sandy's Romance and a top-rated comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, and of course, the winning streak of the popular and top-rated game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Million Second Quiz becoming the million peso-prize, and reality talent show Born to be a Superstar as well as musical variety show Dingdong n' Lani. And finally, IBC partially satisfied basketball fans by airing live PBA games almost four-days in primetime, including an increase of Wednesday and Friday broadcasts to two games at 4:30 to 6:30 and the much awaited 90-minute games from 8 to 9:30 and such the weekend games of 90-minute games at 2:30 to 4 on Saturdays and 3 to 4:30 on Sundays and then a 2-hour games at 5 to 7 and the NBA games airing once-a-week on Saturdays from 10 to 12 noon made in terms of accommodating the network's sports coverage.

IBC Heats Up TV Screens this Summer, No.3 in April

May 6, 2014

More Filipinos nationwide tuned in to the high-caliber programs of IBC in April as it maintained its leadership over rival TV networks and hit an average audience share of 30%, or five points ahead of ABS-CBN's 44% and GMA's 35%, based on data from Kantar Media. As IBC is now the broadcasting industry giant network will be able to compete with the two giant networks.

Kantar Media uses a nationwide panel size of 2,609 urban and rural homes that represent 100% of the total Philippine TV viewing population, while the other ratings data supplier AGB Nielsen reportedly has only 1,980 homes based solely in urban areas that represent only 57% of the Philippine TV viewing population.

IBC also remained undisputed in key territories across the country such as in Balance Luzon (all areas in Luzon outside Mega Manila), where ABS-CBN scored an average audience share of 46% vs ABS-CBN's 46% and GMA's 37%. The network continued to lead the Visayas and Mindanao garnering 15% and 13% respectively, or twice ABS-CBN's 57% and 54% and GMA's 26% and 27%.

Data also show that IBC sustained its primetime (6PM-12MN) supremacy with an average audience share of 24%, or 10 points higher than the 48% of ABS-CBN and 33% of GMA.

The primetime block is the most important part of the day when most Filipinos watch TV and advertisers put a larger chunk of their investment in to reach more consumers effectively.

Aside from leading in primetime, early afternoon (12NN-3PM) and late afternoon (3PM-6PM) programming blocks climbed up in the previous month. From 21% in March, the audience share of IBC's early afternoon block moved up to 23% in April, while its late afternoon block increased two points higher from 21% to 24%. Noontime show *Lunch Break*on weekdays continues to defeat rival It's Showtime (15.9%) and Eat Bulaga (11.1%) with an average national TV rating of 10.2%. Afternoon offerings My Little Janella (11.4%), Frijolito (14.9%) and Amazing Twins (12.2%), meanwhile, have consistently been the top raters in their timeslot. IBC clinched 15 spots on list of top 30 most-watched programs nationwide in April topped by the 2014 PLDT Home TVolution PBA Commissioners' Cup with a semifinals of Rain or Shine Elasto Painters vs. Talk 'N Text Tropang Texters (27.2%) and Air21 Express vs. San Mig Coffee Mixers (26.8), quarterfinals like the Rain or Shine Elasto Painters vs. Meralco Bolts (26.4%) and recently Rain or Shine Elasto Painters vs. Barangay Ginebra San Miguel(26.1%) and Alaska Aces vs. San Mig Coffee Mixers (26.0%).

The kick-off of the formidable primetime series such as phenomenal fantasy series Janella in Wonderland registered 24.7%, beating its competition Dyesebel that rated 29.5% and Kambal Sirena with only 15.0%, a most-watched drama series Your Heart, My Love recorded a national TV rating of 24.2% defeating its rival programs are *The Legal Wife*with 23.5% and Rhadora X with only 12.4% and the romantic dramedy serial Crazy Little Thing Called Love also with 22.7%.

TreseBella's Two Sides of Ana Tops The TV Ratings is the Hit

May 6, 2014

The Philippines has already aired Latin American telenovelas on free TV networks such as RPN (since 1994 with La Traidora and 1996 with Marimar), ABS-CBN (since 1996 with Maria Mercedes), ABC-5 (since 1996 with Morena Clara), GMA-5 (since 1996 with Agujetas de color de rosa) and IBC-13 (since September 2001 with Carita de Angel,Maria del Cielo and Por Un Beso). The telenovelas aired on Philippine TV, especially those produced in Mexico, were dubbed in Tagalog and were shown in primetime slots.

The late 2000s saw the popularity of the Latin American telenovelas and ther launch of Asian novelas (especially those with Korean-produced soaps) became more dominated into the primetime slot and a trend in primetime programming in the Philippines.

Now is TreseBella, which is merging with the premiere of Mexican telenovelas and the home of Asianovelas from Korea and Taiwan. We'll give you updates on IBC's Mexicanovelas and Asian dramas, news on telenovela and Asianovela stars and good vibes in feel good habit.

The whole country is hooked again with this Mexicanovela that was first patronized by many Filipinos in 2014. The airing of The Two Sides of Ana marked a history for the highest TV ratings.

The well-loved soap opera The Two Sides of Ana is jumping over from cable to free terrestrial television upon the relaunch of IBC 13 (with Asian Television Content Philippines as its major blocktimer). This is the very first time a telenovela aired on cable will be broadcasted on free TV.

Perhaps, the dubbing of the "new" telenovela will be still by TNC or by ATC@IBC. Anyway, Telenovela Channel will keep beefing up with new more titles from the time after two new telenovelas were premiered. The Two Sides (to be titled as Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) will have its premiere last May 5, 2014 on IBC. Meanwhile, please show support for the Telenovela Channel.

The sequested TV network is now very aggressive in making its presence felt on primetime as TreseBella with the premiere of its first time in Mexican import on primetime telenovela The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana), back to back with the pilot of its primetime Taiwanovela Love You as part of TreseBella, a fantaserye Janella in Wonderland, teleserye Your Heart, My Love, a kilig-serye Crazy Little Thing Called Love and the most anticipated new Koreanovela Spy Myung-wol will surely endear Koreanovela fans of all ages as part of the new kid on the block of ATC @ IBC called TreseBella. These shows, along with IBC's fantaseryes, contributed to the network's dominance in the middle part of the decade. The premiere of Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) is slated to air starting last May 5 on IBC-13. it also provided a boost in IBC's teleserye dominance at the time like the huge success of Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love. TreseBella's newest Mexicanovela on primetime The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) has been a tremendous boost to the network's weeknight programming on primetime TV. And with the said telenovela continuing to rake in high ratings, IBC-13 needs a quick response. They got one as well, in the form of their own highly-rated primetime Mexicanovela in The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana). The telenovela was made, filmed and set in Miami, Florida. The title is upon the phrase Las Dos Caras de Jano (The Two Faces of Janus). The theme song of The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) is Josh Santana's song Haplos sa Awit.

The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) is a Mexican TV telenovela originally broadcasted in 2005 in Mexico considered the first of a series of highly-rated TreseBella in 2014, one that included La Teniente, Love You and Spy Myung-wol, dubbed it in Filipino and rebroadcasted on a primetime slot on Philippine television. The rights were bought by IBC-13. Pitted against industry giants ABS-CBN and GMA-7, caught the fancy of Filipinos and became a nationwide sensation. Intriguing is the fact that at that time, ABS-CBN and GMA's shows lord over televisionand their shows occupy a very huge chunk of the ratings pie. In came Marimar andshoved its rival's ratings. This foreign telenovela so special that it was ableto do such. On the marketing perspective, strategies were employed that led tothe tipping of the ratings scale.

A story of a girl named Ana, who is a sweet and kind-hearted person who was forced to change because of anger and hatred. Ana, who wants to take vengeance for her family's death, plans to make the father and sons who killed her mother and brother fall in love with her. She ultimately sows discord among the three, but unaware that the love of her life, Gustavo, is a part of the family she's determined to destroy. Ana Layevska and Rafael Amaya lead the cast of this new series. The decision of the management to its evening schedule is mainly attributed to attract more viewers on late primetime slot.

The Kapinoy Network reported that its pilot telecast hits an average national TV rating of 17.2% last May 5 yesterday vs rival Pinoy Big Brother All In (12.6%) in ABS-CBN and The Successful Perezes (8.3%) in GMA.

The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) will become a ratings hit is also consistent on Twitter's trending list for nationwide and worldwide where it got five out of the top ten trends around the world.

The telenovela fever continues this #TheNightAffair as the character Ana Layevska and Rafael Amaya.

Don't miss The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) on its primetime slot every 10:30PM right after Crazy Little Thing Called Love in IBC's PrimeTastik.

Updated May 10, 2014 - 5:45am

The contest to become the most popular TV station in the Philippines is currently a two-horse race of the leader ABS-CBN's Channel 2 and GMA's Channel 7, which has been a challenge for the top slot revamping its programming last year. "And we are increasing it more within," they added. The STAR also learned that The Kapinoy Network is now negotiating to transfer its facilities in its current location in IBC Broadcast Center at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City.

A new player in Philippine television will launch new primetime programs on the free-TV channel of IBC-13 whose known as The Kapinoy Network, starting June 1st.

Randy Topacio, ATC's VP for sales and marketing, promises an exciting rollout for TV 13's evening primetime slots. "This will change the TV landscape while we see ourselves like David battling against Goliaths on Philippine television primetime programming," said Topacio.

ATC, or Asian Television Content, will deliver new telenovelas from 10:30 to 11 p.n. in the evening with Filipino-dubbed Mexican content. The drama-love story Two Sides of Ana will air Mondays to Fridays, while the action-packed melodrama series La Teniente will air on Saturdays at 9:15 to 10 p.m..

The amount will be sourced from a combination of equity and borrowings that will be arranged by a syndicate of banks led by Viva Entertainment, owned by the chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. and Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC), owned by the president Rey Sanchez who is also Channel 13 head who last year bought the TV station from the group of Boots, Lito and Rey. Canoy's consortium is said to have paid P2 billion in cash for the network with IBC Board of Directors.

IBC-13 is also set to sign a memorandum of agreement with Echostar and DIsh Network, the largest direct-to-home (DTH) satellite television company in the US, to able to telecast its programs in America. Company officials explained that IBC-13 ve its own channel in Echostar's programming.

ATC through a partnership with HubMedia, a Singaporean company provides TV and movie program international distribution will launch more programs for the network.

Asian Television Content Philippines (ATC) will start its blocktime operation with the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC 13). This will be the fifth agreed agreement and the fourth materialized blocktimer since government sequestration of 1986.

The privatized, currently government-owned yet dependent network much to block timers to alleviate capital deficiency and to get a significant slice on the audience share as the number 3 station in the country. According to the broadcaster's financial statements, which can be downloadable on the Commission on Audit website, in calendar year 2012, Channel 13 incurred PHP 655 million in capital deficiency, improved from PHP 698 million in the audited financial position as of 2011.

Nonetheless, the politically-motivated social media scholars (PMSMS) paid the said channel's major turn the masses' viewing assessment, as part of the truth, while the Philippine TV monitors, initiated by the author-admin of this blog, commenced the clamor since last year. IBC's Blocktime Interregnum (June 1, 2013-June 1, 2014)

When Vic del Rosario announced that Viva-TV would be merged as IBC-13 due to high operating expansion and becoming the number 3 stations, most sports aficionados and TV critics and expanded into the Philippine entertainment industry, including this blog, would question the operating of The Kapinoy Network.

Although, ONE FC, the Asian version of the Ultimate Fighting Championship, became a transitional saving face of Channel 13 in order for an audience retention every Saturday nights. The Singapore-based mixed martial arts show, the rerun of Noli Me Tangere (1990's) and the rest of the prime time block including the new hits of Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Sandy's Romance, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Born to be a Superstar, The Million Second Quiz, Happy TODAS and Dingdong n' Lani. Despite that, IBC is currently airs the PBA and NBA basketball games as well. Pacquiao's bouts from Solar Sports were also aired the day following his bout as a catch up of viewers who missed the bout due to Sunday work.

They justify such a stale programming strategy based on the meticulous monetary instincts on how expensive the new programming and potential return of investment, the masses' truth that Channel 13 is a broadcaster in a fully operated and eventually becoming the giant networks.

What's in store in the new management? What's new?

According to the block timer company, they will air two Mexicanovelas, a resurging trend since 1990's Philippine TV. On Saturday nightst 9:15 p.m. (last May 10), La Teniente deals with the navy, a much learning drama for our own navy particularly on to the crisis of territorial disputes with China. The Two Sides of Ana will broadcast on weekday evenings, beginning Monday to Friday at 10:30 p.m.

Documentaries to be aired on ATC block include Animalia and Confidential series. The promised Retro TV will be fulfilled and to be hosted by Mario Maurel. According to one of the Pinoy Nostalgia administrators and TV monitors, Joshua Sabater Jimenez, who handles the RadyoTelebisyon blog, Viva Cine Idols, which is highlighting full-lenght Tagalog films and Sunday Sinemaks, featuring the hit Pinoy action movies as well.

Aside from ONE FC, two programs will return on the tube: Cooltura will return while expanded their scope to other nations and Hi-5 (from TV5), to jumpstart the ATC block on weekdays at 4:30 p.m. for children after school. What programs are to stay?

Daytime programming: the hit animes on weekdays including Ghost Fighter and Kirarin, and tokusatsu hits at 8 a.m. on weekends such as Kamen Rider Fourze (Saturday) and Sky Ranger Gavan (Sunday) will remain in the new management. Religious programming such as El Shaddai, Jesus Miracle Crusade and Family TV Mass will remain at their usual times and so does children's programming including KapinoyLand, Barney & Friends, Mickey Mouse Clubhouse and some of educational programming like Learn with English, Math Makulay, Bayaning Bayani, Pamana and Science Kwela.

The network's primetime news program Express Balita is a one hour to 6:30 p.m. competing with ABS-CBN's TV Patrol, GMA's 24 Oras and her older sister TV5's Aksyon. As long as IBC will air the block time, we would question ourselves: Will ATC block act for the network privatization.

Channel 13 ready to compete with ABS-CBN and GMA-7

June 20, 2014

COMPETITION

IBC is the leading television and radio broadcast company in the country and the Philippines.

The company currently competes for audiences and advertising revenues directly with other broadcast stations, radio stations, newspapers, magazines, cable television, and outdoor advertising within their respective markets. The television broadcast industry faces fast-paced, continuous changes in technology and innovations in programming, the possible rise in popularity of competing entertainment and communications media, and government restrictions or actions of regulatory bodies.

The company's closest competitor in the Philippines is ABS-CBN and GMA Network. Both networks target a general audience with a mixture of family entertainment, news, drama, and general programming.

Other key networks in the Philippines include TV5 and the government-sequestered RPN, and state-owned PTV networks, which have distant audience share and ratings relative to GMA and ABS-CBN. Featuring new programs, talents, and look. The said blocktime agreement allowed Viva Entertainment to control and manage IBC-13's programming content and airtime sales.

More networks expected to join the ratings game

Much of the excitement of showbiz this 2014 will most likely be provided by television as in previous years, via the unrelenting battle of the networks. particular battle might to fight against rivals ABS-CBN and GMA-7. RPN-9 will most likely find its steady following for some of its show (and not only that the KBL and MBA games) and could eat up into the ratings game of some of the shows of the two leading networks. The still very much government-owned IBC-13, currently is the number 3 station as the third giant networks, will also surely find its new audience following for some of its shows (and also including the PBA and NBA games) and could eat up into the ratings of some of the shows of the two leading networks. An industry leader in the '80s, may also seize a steady following with some of its new shows.

Twento fourteen with ABS-CBN and GMA finally taking the leader over the other networks, which but naturally will want to reclaim and reassert its position as the industry No.1 as well.

The Canoy-owned network has further opened its primetime to blocktimers and co-producers like Viva Communications, Inc. and Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC), which is definitely good since network executives that can be into top-rating shows. Further hear that IBC-13 wants to beef up not only its sports and entertainment shows, but also its news and current affairs programs.

The repackaging of IBC-13: I think, decided that the management of IBC-13 need to have a stronger and more impressive masses in Philippine television so surely, you re-repackage them.

It began to re-establish its presence with the introduction of innovative mass-based programming in an area when foreign canned shows dominated the boob tube.

IBC's relaunch in 2014 as the Kapinoy network last 2011 and proved to be a smart move. Since 1996, the network moved up the ratings ladder with a peed that astonished everyone. It will catapulted to the number 3 spot. That same year, all the top 25 slots in the ratings were IBC programs.

Just look at the DJs of the FM radio stations 93.5 Romance FM, playing the romantic and easy-listening love songs, as well as ballads, pop, lite rock and OPM, and iDMZ 891 FM, playing more dance music, more urban music from hip-hop and R&B, very much remixed music and pop songs. It channels 2 and 7 are going for the masses. Is the strategy of IBC-13 to go for more intellectual viewers for a good one.

Personally like IBC-13 for coming up with more original shows. They come up with very interesting ideas in case often. They both really lack marketing and more aggressive marketing for more maatract to viewers through producing shows and repackaging added new programs.

I'm tired of watching the shows from 2 and 7 craving for more intellectual from local channels.

GOOD FOR CHANNEL 13: IBC-13 has good shows intend to complete more viewers. After acquire the NBA and PBA games, in attract more viewers of the Kapinoy network should invest more on genre shows.

Go 13! Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino, more telenovelas, Taiwanovelas and Koreanovelas as well. Before that, IBC-13 compete with its top-rating shows like Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, TODAS, See-True, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Eh Kasi Babae, Sic O'Clock News, Maricel Live, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness, among others. Some of the full-lenght Tagalog films airing Piling-Piling Pelikula and IBCinema.

Now, IBC-13 is still struggling I hope this year will be a good one for this channel. At the time, they have the fantasy series like Batang Genius and Janella in Wonderland, primetime drama series Your Heart, My Love and Crazy Little Thing Called Love for a good soaps at night. For more nightly shows in a balancing local programming: Maya Loves Sir Chief, Iskul Bukol Men, Last Fool Show, DMZ-TV, Sic O'Clock News News, Happy TODAS, Sandy's Romance, Shake, Rattle and Roll, Dingdong n' Lani, Seeing Stars Tonight, children show KapinoyLand, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Born to be a Superstar, The Million Second Quiz, PBA and NBA basketball games, ONE FC, The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Muhka ni Ana) and La Teniente, Hayate the Combat Butler and Spy Myung-wol, Viva Cine Idols, Viva Box Office and Sunday Sinemaks.

Told us our friend, Eric Canoy, the chairman of IBC to relaunch the 3rd season of Born to be a Superstar, the biggest singing reality search in Philippine television last April 5, 2014. Plans also said the TV networks do something of the natinowide and worldwide version. I personally feel that IBC-13 should take a chance on getting a local franchise of Born to be a Superstar. The yuppies are a great target audience especially now when singing contests in Philippine TV seem to be focused on making pathways for 15-19 year olds. Yuppies, too, need Idols coming from the 20-25 year olds age bracket.

Gradually also now that Channel 13 especially given the third spot behind ABS-CBN and GMA.

According to Canoy, many new programs are reportedly planning to launch IBC-13 this year to be some competitive and becoming more comparable they turn to the two giants.

IBC-13 is now owned by telecom magnate Eric Canoy, Boots Anson-Roa and Lito Ocampo Cruz.

The Kapinoy Network will have a new station in IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City and transmitter tower in Coca Cola sales office, Roosevelt Avenue, San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City. Althrough they will retain the Broadcast City studios, the Coca Cola sales office in Roosevelt Avenue will cater mostly to LIVE programs that is both accessible to the talents and audience.

The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 has been constantly plugging that it topped the TV surveys last 16 years. The voice over says that the survey's results were expected by IBC people.

However, people had no doubt because of the credibility of such a claim. They say the reason IBC-13 is allegedly leading in some surveys is because it has pirated and copied most of the top-rated programs of the other networks. In our opinion, the surveys would have been convincing if IBC-13 retained most of its original programs when it goes on the air. That way, it claim to make the presence felt in the broadcast industry that IBC-13. The Kapinoy Network, is really number three.

The fantaserye genres from inspriation, fairies, mermaid, superhero, adventure, among others. And the adaption based on komiks, original tales about the Pinoy fantasy.

It's the first time that the press was invited by any network to a trade relaunch and Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 proved to be a show of force and numbers. They introduced all their forthcoming shows, including new fantasy soaps like Janella: A Princess Girl, Voltron Man, Superboy, Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo. It seems now that need more soaps to compete directly with the soaps of GMA-7 and ABS-CBN.

Sequestered TV networks IBC-13 and RPN-9 were the top channels back in the '70s, '80s and '90s. Both have produced classic quality programs that are being remade by the top TV networks today.

Now is the time for the current network war once again in revival the glory days. After ABS-CBN and GMA-7 both claiming to the no.1 spot as Kapamilya and Kapuso, it claims the no.3 slot is now joined by IBC-13 as Kapinoy, TV5 as Kapatid and RPN-9 as Kasama are the monicker branding in terms of the battle dominance.

Back in the 80's, when there was no Kapamilya, Kapuso or Kapatid yet, IBC 13 is the no. 1 TV station in the country besting the other four other networks then in the local free channels (2, 4, 7 and 9).

Since the government is not allowed to sell the sequestered TV network because in cheating of privatization efforts remains the PCGG, according to the president Noynoy Aquino III in the current PNoy administration. In this privatized, the government-sequestered TV networks in the much-awaited block timers and gets more significant slice on the audience share. According to the broadcaster's financial statements, which can be downloadable on the Commission on Audit website, in calendar year 2012, Channels 9 and 13 incurred PHP 655 million in capital deficiency, improved from PHP 698 million in the audited financial position as of 2011. That, we believe is among the greatest responsibilities of media.

Of course, the technology and facilities of the new Channel 9 and 13 are a quantum leap from that of the old. IBC-13 and RPN-9 are commits itself to being a free, responsible, and responsive network, as a member of media should be. To safeguard press freedom, and at the same time to use it judiciously. To be quality, innovative and creative core intact in its programming. In a short span of years, amid escalating network wars, Channels 9 and 13 has made its mark. Fueled by its pioneering and indomitable spirit, RPN and IBC has proudly established many firsts in the Philippine broadcast industry, progressively expanded its reach, and blazed new broadcast trails to place itself a cut above the rest.

RPN-9 established and opened in 1969. Among the top-rated programs became popular was John En Marsha, Flordeluna, Superstar, Champoy and Buddy en Sol. It also started the Eat Bulaga!. The channel is also the first-ever telenovela was Marimar, the first Mexican drama that has been dubbed in Tagalog.

Meanwhile, also opened the IBC-13, on the other hand debuted in 1960 and had given rise to many hit shows in the '70s and '80s. Among the top programs of Channel 13, which banners the slogan Basta Pinoy sa Trese and Life Begins at 13 became popular were Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Maricel Live, Barrio Balimbing, Loveliness, Sitak ni Jack, Eh Kasi Babae, Hapi House, Goin' Bananas, Sic O'Clock News, Takeshi's Castle, Ora Engkantanda, Pinoy Thriller, among others. Government-sponsored programs that most of the shows on IBC-13. The top shows and popular stars of the network were becoming more popular and it just became a venue, government announcements and more commercialized programs. The two channels were eventually sequestered by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) in 1986.

Channels 9 and 13 is also still sequestered by the government and this time, IBC and RPN is now joined the network war once again, deeply honored to rejoin the ranks of the media community. A new line-up of shows will be presented to the viewing public for a more interesting programming in recent years.

IBC-13 joins the network war which is the no.3 spot and eventually becoming the third giant network in the coutnry networks to the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA Network, The Kapinoy Network which is having more powerhouse and homegrown programs acquired a reputation for creativity and innovation as it aggressively produced and relaunched the poineering and trend-setting programs through the original productions and the quality local productions as well as the PBA and NBA games.

RPN-9 still the leader network to the no.3 spot to have more trend-setting local and foreign canned programs, including telenovelas, Asian dramas, animes and sports programs including the KBL and MBA games. It has earned honors and awards both here and abroad for its homegrown programs of RPN and IBC.

In a surge of phenomenal growth, IBC earned a reputation as The Superstar Network under the new network chairman Eric Canoy, president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa and executive vicepresident Lito Ocampo Cruz. It has taken big leaps and bounds and among the ranks of The Kapinoy Network. Also part of their success in their carrying of the popular anime franchises such as Ghost Fighter and Kirarin, and the sental and live-action tokusatsu franchise Kamen Rider Fourze and Sky Ranger Gavan, which effectively revitalized interest in anime in the Philippines. Amid the escalating network war, IBC succeeded in gaining a foothold. TreseBella, which is recently relaunched the imports of Mexican telenovelas The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) and La Teniente, a Taiwanese drama Hayate the Combat Butler and the Korean drama Spy Myunh-wol. For its re-imaging, the new network executives led by Eric Canoy coined a new slogan for Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipinoand Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13. The slogan was conceived at the height of the "network wars" behind the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA Network, which mirrored each other's programming for ratings supremacy. IBC-13 aimed to veer away from the practice done by both networks by coming up with more shows with fresh formats to complement its flagship program, the PBA and NBA.

In a surge of phenomenal growth, RPN earned a reputation as The Leader Network under the new network chairman Wilson Tieng and president and CEO Robert T. Rivera. It has taken big leaps and bounds and is now among the ranks of The Kasama Network. As the year operation, it rose to a strong no.3 in the overall TV network rating with a programming that combines America's certified hits and all station-produced local programs, including Mexican telenovelas, animes and Asian dramas from Korea and Taiwan. Also part of their success is their carrying of Dragon Ball Z anime franchise, which effectively revitalized interest in anime in the Philippines. Amid the escalating network war, RPN succeeded in gaining a foothold, as the dark clouds of the Asian crisis loomed in the horizon. For its re-imaging, the new network executives led by Wilson Tieng coined a new slogan for Kasama Ako!. The slogan was conceived at the height of the "network wars" behind the two giants ABS-CBN and GMA Network, which mirrored each other's programming for ratings supremacy. RPN aimed to veer away from the practice done by both networks by coming up with different shows with fresh formats to complement its flagship program, the KBL and MBA.

IBC and RPN now joined the surveys of Kantar Media/TNS Philippines (subscribe of ABS-CBN, IBC-13 and RPN-9) and AGB Nielsen Media Research (subscribe of GMA-7 and TV5).

IBC-13 enters the primetime drama battlefield with its first network-produced series

Philippines, August 9, 2014

Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto of Your Heart, My Love

Role for Princess Punzalan of Your Heart, My Love

August 9, 2014

Princess Punzalan, the darling and apple of the late radio-TV queen Helen Vela, shows off her acting prowess to full advantage as she assumes an entirely different role in IBC's teleserye Your Heart, My Love.

Although the soap opera superstar as former top Kapamilya and Kapuso actress is now turned the Kapinoy network's most prized talent Claudine Barretto (Sophie) and Raymart Santiago (Roel), many viewers have been vocal about saying that Princess Punzalan is the main reason for TV addicts to watch the daily instalments of the TV drama. Princess plays the bad guy as Barbara, the kontrabida, who provides the balance, angry, mad, laugh and evil for sweet, nice heroine Claudine.

They note with disappointment, however, that Princess is not getting the proper billing, despite her definitely "meaty" role and the fact that her character is central to the story. It will be filled with dramatic portrayal from the Optimum Teleserye Queen and Drama Queen who was known for her several top rating shows on rival ABS-CBN and GMA. Now, is entitled Optimum Teleserye Queen, which is somewhat an answer to ABS-CBN's title to Judy Ann Santos who was recently crowned as the Teleserye Queen.

The Kapinoy network should do something to revive Claudine, as she is the network's top drama star.

In the ratings game, Your Heart, My Love is one of IBC-13's primetime teleserye, along with IBC-13's newest fantasy series Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo, the newest children's adventure crocoserye starring the child star Thirdy Lacson, Janella: A Princess Girl, IBC's fantaserye starring primetime princess Janella Salvador and Voltron Man, the newest action-packed superserye starring primetime prince AJ Muhlach.

The Return of the Telenovela to Philippine Free TV

August 15, 2014

Telenovelas, or the more distinguishable term Latinovelas, making a comeback to free TV in the Philippines. Also, see your favorite Koreanovela on prime time television.

Prime time is the peak time slot of television broadcasts, usually between 5 p.m. and 11 p.m. on weekdays. Entertaining to watch television shows from neighboring countries such as South Korea, Japan and Taiwan, the proliferation of such shows the time available for Philippine-produced shows.

The genre, once dominant in the afternoon and evening drama blocks of the major networks, essentially an endangered species once Meteor Garden and other Asianovelas began to invade the small screen. Then in late 2011, the Telenovela Channel was introduced, giving dramas from Latin America a new lease on life.

Since the creation of the Telenovela Channel, several free TV networks have attempted to resuscitate the fading popularity of the telenovela.

In 2013, GMA aired the Colombian series Lola (or Bella Calamidades). Unfortunately for the Kapuso network, low ratings forced the management to stop airing the telenovela before it can be finished.

Also that same year, Studio 23 (now ABS-CBN Sports+Action) aired the original version of the hit ABS-CBN teleserye Nasaan Ka, Elisa?. Titled Donde Esta Elisa?, the original series aired during the first half of 2013.

Since IBC-13's popular telenovela in the past such as Carita de Angel, Siempre te Amare (originally aired on RPN), Maria del Cielo (originally aired on RPN), Natalia and Por un Beso aired on Viva-TV's primetime block, Maria Isabel(originly aired on RPN in 1999), Mar de Amor, Teresa, Rosalinda (originally aired on ABS-CBN, GMA and RPN), Palabra de Mujer, Amor Bravio and La Madrastra.

It airs a telenovela in PrimeTastik block. And now the network will bring back the family centered and intense drama theme of Latin TV series in its primetime schedule. The Kapinoy Network is bringing back the Latin telenovela craze with Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente proves to be the home of hit telenovela fever.

While a representative from IBC-13, the third largest network in the country said that putting their own Korean abd Taiwanese dramas and Mexican telenovelas in primetime. "It's actually the strategy of IBC-13 to do counter-programming, here we are offering the best titles of foreign dramas on primetime.

Then in June of this year, IBC and Asian Television Content Corporation airing with The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente on IBC-13's primetime block. Unlike GMA's unexpected pullout of Lola, both IBC and ATC were more than willing to both series, despite their highest ratings in a competitive primetime programming.

IBC-13 Vice President for Program Acquisition said: "It is the phenomenal hit for idol dramas this year with its ratings peaking at 30% in the metropolitan area here. It was the No.5 program overall nationwide following the Asian dramas, local primetime fantaseryes and drama, Viva Tagalog movies, PBA games and newscast, and No.1 in its timeslot. Filipinos love drama and stories that we can relate to. Most of the time, the Mexican dramas are quite escapist and moving. Aside from the touching plotlines, the production is really a visual experience of places that most of us are not accustomed to seeing. Telenovelas give viewers a different style of storytelling from usual Filipino soap operas, or teleseryes.

With TreseBella, the newest sensation with a perfect mix of Latin American telenovelas from Mexico and the imports of Asianovelas from Korea and Taiwan, which has been more dominated into the primetime slot. Top Philippine TV stations ABS-CBN, GMA, IBC, RPN and TV5 are leading the way in importing Latin telenovelas from Mexico, Taiwanese and Korean dramas. Meanwhile, PTV-4 and Net 25 added to the Korean dramas.

Because of the Mexican stars, Two Sides of Ana starring Ana Layevska and Rafael Amaya, and La Teniente starring Maria Fernanda Yepes are becoming the telenovela fans. While The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 has now enjoyed ratings success over the past couple of years, the reintroduction of the telenovela considered to be their biggest gamle yet. Meanwhile, the sequestered network that Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente, like the network's primetime programs on IBC, will perform very well in the ratings.

Two months later, ABS-CBN decided to bring the telenovela back to their lineup. Brazilian drama Ana Manuela, scheduled to air starting August 18, will be the network's first telenovela since Frijolito in 2011.

While ABS-CBN has enjoyed ratings success over the past couple of years, the reintroduction of the telenovela is considered to be their biggest gamble yet. Nevertheless, the network hopes that Ana Manuela, like the other programs on Kapamilya Gold, will perform very well in the ratings.

The telenovela, once considered endangered on free TV thanks to Asianovelas, are relevant once again. Now the question is, how long will they remain in the minds of the viewers? Only time will tell.

IBC remains as the number 3 network

October 8, 2014

The years 2013 and 2014 has been tough for IBC 13. Let me tell you what happened to the network that changed the way we watch television since 1975. And now, new chairman Eric Canoy annoucned that its not sell the network due to the privatization efforts of the network. IBC-13 currently ranked to the number 3 slot for Filipino viewers as well considered to be the third top television network overall. IBC went on to produces new shows but even if they are good. They began to buy airtime to interested parties like the PBA and NBA as well as *Home Shopping Network*advertisers. Disney also bought airtime to air their shows as well.

Since 1996, IBC-13 remains as the traditional No.3 station in terms of ratings than ABS-CBN and GMA. In 70's and 80's as an original shows are Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Tarzan, Barrio Balimbing, See-True, Sic O'Clock News, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Maricel Live!, Hapi House, Ora Engkantada and Loveliness, as well as Japanese series like Bioman, Turboranger, Jiban and Maskman, animes like Ghost Fighter, Super Boink and Battle Ball, and showing the full-length local Tagalog movies such as Tagalog Box Office Hits, Piling-Piling Pelikula (PPP) and IBCinema for their own shows.

The network also dominated in the Philppine radio industry are DZTV Radyo Budyong 1386, iDMZ 891 FM, 93.5 Romance FM and Kapinoy FM 913 became popular among listeners.

It seems that IBC-13 will quickly gained of its primetime block with Viva Entertainment, used to be is its nationwide reach following the statement by Presidential Secretary Sonny Coloma that the network will be privatized the buyers and values ratings before the end of President Benigno Aquino's term.

In the following months, thanks to the new programs on Channel 13 intend to compete with the country's established networks, It started with the TV musical specials like Homecoming Kapinoy and other youth-oriented shot presentation.

When it was first came to Philippine television during the martial law era, IBC was the number one television station in the Philippines because of its original programming and movie blocks. In 1986, it seems that Channel 13 began to slowly lose its luster after the EDSA People Power Revolution. Now, IBC-13 wil be a full-pledged television station considering that more Filipino viewers are beginning to enjoy watching your favorite Kapinoy shows like The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, PBA and NBA games, including the expectation of bringing Japanese live action series back on Channel 13. In its place is the children's adventurserye Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo, the action-packed series Hitman, the trendsetting fantasy series Janella: A Princess Girl, the hit action-packed superserye Voltron Man, the hit romantic drama soap opera Your Heart, My Love, the adventurserye Super Ninja, the comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, drama anthology Sandy's Romance, the boys night out gag show T.O.D.A.S., political satire Sic O'Clock News Naman, showbiz talk show Seeing Stars Tonight, the trend-setting dance variety show Love Sweetheart, a musical variety show Dingdong n' Lani, the imports of Mexican telenovelas and Asian drama from Korea and Taiwan thru TreseBella for making new hits and showing with Viva Tagalog movies from Viva Films.

Meanwhile, as IBC-13 has decided to rival its long-running Filipino news program Express Balita at 6:30 p.m. time slot, compared to TV Patrol (ABS-CBN) and 24 Oras (GMA). By that time, IBC-13 recently started with more newscast in Filipino language, to compete against the big two networks ABS-CBN and GMA, had all their line-up of Filipino newscasts in the vernacular. The network's flagship news programs as Balita sa Umaga (morning), RadyoBisyon (morning per teleradyo), IBC Headliners (hourly news updates), News at Noon (noontime), Express Balita (early evening/primetime), Ronda Trese (late evening) and Express Balita Weekend (weekend edition).

Aside from the disappointment, I also found out that since the day ATC @ IBC suddenly appeared from our tubes, IBC 13 has the inability to completely implement the new television ratings system that the Movie and Television Review and Classification Board (MTRCB) mandated back in 2011. Many Filipino viewers would prefer watching programs on the big three of the Philippine television industry, namely ABS-CBN, GMA, and TV5. IBC-13 and RPN-9 recently becoming the top spot for gaining viewers to watch once again. Although IBC-13 remained dominant and sustained its reign of dominance.

We'll just happens next for the number one television station in the Philippines during the late 1970s and 1980s, as digital television is coming this way. IBC made showed its new iconic slogan: Isang Bawat Channel, allowing Channel 13's reign of dominance to reach its 37th year in 2014

IBC chairman Eric Canoy said to be a "game changer" in the local broadcasting industry, which is dominated by the two established broadcasting firms ABS-CBN and GMA 7, which corner bulk of the TV ad spend at P46.12 billion last year - and further crowded by TV5.

The entire nation was blown away—IBC is the number 3 in the ratings. The top 30 shows are also from Channel 13 in the survey of Kantar Media/TNS Philippines—among them were Express Balita, The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, PBA, among many others.

In 2014, IBC-13 celebrated its 54th anniversary of Philippine TV, still the dominant leader in Philippine TV, while introducing more hits like the phenomenal teen princess tale fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl and the phenomenal action-packed superserye for superhero Voltron Man.

IBC-13's Isang Bawat Christmas: The most starstudded Christmas ID

October 23, 2014

Anja Aguilar hands a Christmas present filled with joy and cheers to the young boy

Sequestered TV station IBC-13 continues to live up to its promise of being the broadcast industry's most exciting network as it gathers the country's most formidable and biggest talents for its Christmas Station ID to mark a fitting close to a year of remarkable achievements. Who would have thought that, in just about two years' time since the re-energized The Kapinoy Network launched itself into the nation's airwaves, the legendary and brightest stars of Philippine show business will be gathered together under its expanding?

Elmo Magalona gamely gets into the Christmas groove, Ramon Bautista as one of the three kings, Who Wants to be a Millionaire's Robi Domingo treats the game in his toprating game show, Nadine Lustre, the station ID also reveals Drew Arellano

Dubbed Isang Bawat Christmas, the Christmas Station ID is a casting coup with Anja Aguilar, Robi Domingo, Ramon Bautista, Elmo Magalona, singer Dingdong Avanzado, Lani Misalucha, Iya Villania, Dingdong Dantes, Nadine Lustre, Ryan Agoncillo, Cristine Reyes, Drew Arellano, the action star Raymart Santiago, a primetime teleserye queen Claudine Barretto, Joey Marquez, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, among others, appearing together in this muchanticipated network holiday greeting intended for the entire Filipino people. For weeks now, the entertainment press have been speculating as to who are the new talents of IBC-13 and the station ID definitely answers their questions. It also offers a sneak peek into the outstanding cast of talents who have decided to hitch their creative energies and popular appeal under the aegis of Channel 13.

Conceptualized by IBC Creative Services head Ana Perez, Isang Bawat Christmas expounds on the network's remarkable journey so far — being the newest kid on the block, so to speak, in its newest Christmas Station ID launched this Thursday (October 24) after Express Balita.

"With all these developments in IBC-13, we want to communicate that the network has really made it in terms of gathering the biggest stars, raising the standards of our programs, and boosting the ratings of our shows," Perez shares. With this in mind, Perez pooled her creative team and tapped advertising agency DM9 to work on the jingle based on the concept brief provided by the network. Krismas Mas Mas Masaya is a merry and bouncy ditty that reflects the youthful vigor and bright hopes of the men and women of The Kapinoy Network, reflecting its aspiration of being the "superstar" network. For award-winning TV-commercial director Raul Jorolan and Peewee Gonzzales, the challenge is to come up with a narrative that will encapsulate the message IBC-13 wants to say in three minutes. "My main task is to oversee the entire material and collaborate with the Creative Team, keeping in mind their inputs, ideas and inventions; put all this together and execute it according to both the client's and my own vision," explains direk Raul.

The story line of the station ID is really very simple. The opening scene shows a house which seems to have forgotten what Christmas is all about; its lonely occupant, a young boy (Bimby Aquino-Yap), nonchalantly watches television, switching from one channel to another until he chances upon IBC. Magically, as the boy stays glued on the TV screen, the whole room transforms into a vibrant mirage of colors. The happiness of Christmas sets in as the brightest stars of IBC-13, led by Anja Aguilar, appear to cheer up the young boy.

"This is basically the message that we want to impart to our audience," Perez avers, "that IBC-13 will add color, glitter and happiness into your life by bringing these big stars into every home and touching people's lives through the quality of news, information, educational, entertainment and sports programs that we offer our Filipino audiences wherever they may be in the world."

Marlo Mortel, Janella Salvador and Jerome Ponce of Janella: A Princess Girl; AJ Muhlach of Kapitan Man

For Anja, it is precisely this message of hope and renewal that was on her mind as well as when she moved to IBC-13. "It's very exciting because it's all new. We're shaking it up a bit and it's very exciting for us, so I guess that's infectious." The Megastar admitted that she was a bundle of nerves when she decided to move to IBC-13, with excitement as she met her new Kapinoys from IBC-13. "They have been very nice and very warm and I can't ask for anything more," she shares.

Raymart Santiago and Claudine Barretto of Your Heart, My Love; Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap of Maya Loves Sir Chief

Kicking off with this Isang Bawat Christmas station ID, IBC-13 is bound to explore greater horizons in 2015. With the network's incessant stream of innovations and new surprises, Kapinoys will not run out of reasons to be a superstar with IBC-13 as it continues its exciting journey to becoming a leader and a valued member of the country's broadcast industry. No wonder more people are tuning in to IBC-13 and bigger and brighter stars are opting to be bawat christmas with the Superstar Network.

IBC strengthens weekend programming

September 4, 2013

The two networks are ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are the number 1 station in the ratings with programming had been monopolizing the Philippine television industry and had been pounding on each other in a battle for supremacy. Canoy-led Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp., operator of television network IBC-13 remains the undisputed number 3 in the ratings among the TV networks while the home to the PBA and NBA are the popular basketball games will doing the viewership TV ratings. Sure, the PBA and NBA are in the same station despite the games increased popularity audience for basketball in the country. For the primetime schedule improve programming. The network's flagship national news program Express Balita anchored by Henry Omaga-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go continues to be dominated by the rivals of TV Patrol and 24 Oras among the viewers right after the first game and before the second game of the PBA during Wednesdays and Fridays. The Kapinoy Network also fighting the Kapamilya and Kapuso networks in the game as IBC from its employees, staff, stars and shows.

SUPREMACY

Filipino TV viewers should expect a major third force of IBC-13 is now in the new colorful with red, green and blue for the Pinoy viewers and has remained the third player in the so-called Network War, behind the two leading television stations like ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7

The important development was the ascendancy of IBC-13 to the number 3 position, behind Channel 2 and 7. Channel 13 came on strong with its more quality shows in innovative and creative programming, which viewers appreciated gave them more viewing options. We hear that the new owners of IBC-13 wants to join the desperate race of the ratings game that has consumed of ABS-CBN and GMA, in their own programming standards.

To illustrate the impact Boots' entry is creating at the moment, stars from ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are in a state of confusion and for the first time are finally reading the prints of the contract they annually sign perfunctorily with their respective networks to join Channel 13 willing to acquire studios that more accessible to new talents.

Advantage with some shows that were criticized by a number of viewers for being good news. As the year when TV talents in Channels 2 and 7. It was the year when the Battle of the TV Networks came to a head, with both Channel 2 and Channel 7 for the top slot all the concerns of on-cam talents (those working behind camera).

IBC-13 also more aggressive revamps its weekend timeslot, this Saturday and Sudnay. And it is the big guns - Boots Anson-Roa, Christopher de Leon, Janine Tugonon, Janeena Chan and Dino Imperial, Jodi Sta. Maria and Freddie Webb, the cast of Happy TODAS, AJ Muhlach, Josh Padilla and Aki Torio, Nadine Lustre, Robi Domingo, Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Marvin Ong and Khalil Ramos - in the weekend primetime shows every Saturday and Sunday nights on priemtime.

"She gives channel 2 and channel 7 constant competition and she got the coverage of the basketball games like the PBA (Philippine Basketball Association)," she added.

It's a re-strengthening of the network's practice of offering viewers an innovative and creative programming, said the network's new president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa generated profit as the company struggles to compete with rivals that corner the share of industry ad revenues. IBC-13 said Canoy's entry to the television industry, with the network expected to a major player in Philippine broadcasting.

The network has been aggressively positioning itself as one of the top broadcast stations in the country and among those overseeing its creative and programming effort. As head of Creative and Entertainment Production, Jose Javier Reyes oversees the development, execution and production management of all the network'□™s entertainment programs as well as all on-air promos, radio, print and outdoor advertising efforts of IBC-13.

On the other hand, the group led by Eric Canoy on television network Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC 13) for more than P4 billion. Mr. Canoy intends to the ailing broadcast company and compete head-on with the two industry leaders ABS-CBN Channel 2 and GMA Channel 7. The Kapinoy Network also boasts a more diversified revenue base spanning advertising, production, broadband and pay-TV compared to ABS-CBN and GMA.

HOME TO THE PBA AND NBA BASKETBALL

The coverage of the basketball games like the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and the National Basketball Association (NBA) presents a contract assuring the league of its commitment. IBC's television coverage has more mass audience belonging to the C-D-E classes.

IBC-13, which is reportedly embarking on the massive drive to keep up with the network dominated of giant networks are ABS-CBN and GMA-7, plans to transmit the PBA games on the double-headers of Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays airing live whiel the provincial games on Saturdays. Meanwhile, the NBA basketball games airing on weekends in Saturdays and Sundays.

"During on Wednesdays and Fridays will be aired live, the first games at 4:30 p.m. before the network's flagship news program Express Balita at 6:30 p.m. and then the second game at 7:30 p.m. The curtain-raisers of those playdates would be shown at night," said the Inquirer source.

Basketball remains to be the number 1 Filipino pastime so we decided to make it the sports staple in IBC-13, said Canoy, explaining his network's decision to join the league.

"We're going for counter programming," she explained, "Basically we'll show a different genre from the other networks are showing. The success of The Kapinoy Network's counter programming, the team has prepared in terms of the weekend program very strong." IBC chair Eric Canoy said the company had also struggled to keep efforts to complete the network's program lineup and talents continues to creating more shows. The largest networks ABS-CBN and GMA Network in the number of sitcoms on its programming are Toda Max (Channel 2), Vampire and Daddy Ko and Pepito Manaloto (Channel 7), the number 3 network IBC-13 pumping its original content with sictom has Bida ni Mister, Bida si Misis, Whattaboys and Goin' Bukol Pwede.

Jose Javier Reyes, IBC-13's entertainment chief content officer, believes the network has struck a good quality shows in Their lineup consisting of entertainment from fantasy, sports basketball fans, game shows, horror series, sitcoms, comedy gag show, teen romantic drama anthology, reality shows and action movies.

It's new programs for Saturdays starts with fantasy anthology Once Upon a Time hosted by Boots Anson-Roa, followed by the hit game show Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? with Christopher de Leon every Saturday 7:45 p.m. and Sundays at 9:45 p.m., the reality show Superstar Curcle on Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. with Jenine Desiderio. "IBC-13 and TV5 have different mass markets, competing against the other networks," explained that TV5 is the number 3 spot competing against GMA and ABS-CBN for the masa audience. The viewing audience belongs to the C-D-E market and the network to make their productions more accessible to the mass audience.

It has gone into fields such as merchandising as well as publishing by way of IBC Publishing. In this, the company has taken the cue from American media companies which have dominated the global market. Certainly, the number of Filipinos abroad has fueled a certain aggressiveness from The Kapinoy Network. "In the US alone, there are 500,000 Filipino households and in the Middle East, there are more than a million Filipinos. That's the driver for IBC International, our largest subsidiary in terms of revenues. We're following the Filipino wherever he may be and transcending distribution outlets."

Of course, for a company that has television shows which make up the top 30 list in terms of ratings and audience share. The healthy competition institutionalized by a system pay. In this, the executive producers, aside from looking at the ratings, also look at the attainment of their profitability targets, paving the way for a very conscientious focus on the bottom line for every member of the IBC-13 family.

Aside from those factors, the gap of IBC-13 show and the nearest competitor is taken into consideration. "The timeslot; the bigger the gap is from competition, the higher the score and the bigger the variable pay. The more margins you deliver and the better you control your cost, the better your score and your variable pay. Good thing about this industry enables people to keep doing well, the ratings, sales and cost are very different.

Traditionally, IBC-13 programs through UHF channels while produce its own cable channel Global IBC, the cable TV operators in the US. As a complement to this, IBC-13 also launch its programs via direct-to-home satellite (DTH). "These people buy a satellite dish and they're able to get our channel Global IBC and also get Danze TV which is our music channel and INN is the UHF news channel," said Mr. Dyogi.

The UHF news channel IBC News Network (INN Channel 45 involvement in sports programming as highlighted by its coverage of the PBA and NBA basketball, boxing matches featuring local and international championship boxing, billiards, ONE FC-MMA, WWE wrestling, golf, tennis, cockfighting and other major sporting events should be considered the ideal programming environment commitment to sports has as well as its news and current affairs, public service, business and documentaries.

This sense of competition has also helped sustain IBC Channel 13's lead in the industry despite the rise in production costs and the emergence of new players. With the renewed vitality in the industry, competitors are showing more original programming and the talents being pirated is present which monopolize the entertainment industry by getting more artists.

Nevertheless, IBC-13 keeps itself on investing in research and development efforts. "While the top 30 shows are on Channel 13, it's so tempting for us to keep to the formula that has always worked. That's why it's important for us to look at our lead over the competition because that is an indicator of which shows need to be a stars the people want to see more of. We have a substantial budget for research and development. That group conducts focus interviews aside from the surveys. We're into this to keep ahead," he said marks in net income this year as its programs maintain dominance in the ratings game. 3 of reality shows on IBC as the Kapinoy network strives to compete on equal terms with rival stations ABS-CBN and GMA 7 said this could be achieved by quality innovative and creative shows with excellent production values.

They really give importance to her despite that belongs to Viva. In my opinion, some of the money getter of IBC-13 are Viva artists (Nadine Lustre, Cristine Reyes and Anja Aguilar).

Canoy said reality shows will provide more singing superstars in their programming, although IBC-13 will continue to create dramas, comedies, variety shows, talk shows, game shows and sports. "It's always nice to have a good mix," he explained, adding that the network want to the viewers by airing more soap operas. The year saw IBC-13 aggressively signing up some of the biggest names in local showbiz such as Robi Domingo, Jodi Sta. Maria, Christopher de Leon, Richard Ya, Cherry Pie Picache, Freddie Webb, Cristine Reyes, Jake Cuenca, Anja Aguilar, Sam Concepcion, Marvin Ong, Khalil Ramos, Dingdong Avanzado, Gino Padilla, Rachel Alejandro, MM and MJ Magno, Mario Maurer, Erich Gonzales, child star Mutya Orquia and Dingdong Dantes to its growing roster of stars.

The Kapinoy Network has been leading the market in terms of ratings. Since the leading shows from IBC- 13 include the longest-running and top-rating game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, reality-singing search show Born to be a Superstar, the PBA and NBA games, the top-rated comedy gag show Happy TODAS, sitcoms Bida ni Mister, Bida si Misis, Whattaboys and Goin' Bukol Pwede, fantasy anthology Once Upon a Time, teen drama anthology Sandy's Romance, horror series Tumbok Revolution, the fantasy series My Batang Momay, and the soap operas are teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love are in the chart, as well as its flagship news programs Express Balita and Ronda Trese.

Dyogi said the network is also beefing up its news department "in a major way." He explained: "We recently bought 45 cameras and we're buying more vehicles. We also bought a news automation system. Everything will soon be fully-digital. We're hiring more reporters and fine-tuning operations so we can improve news gathering and presentation by leaps and bounds." A new studio IBC Broadcast Center in Broadcast City, he added.

"Anja long wanted to do a singing-reeality talent search contest Born to be a Superstar, a dream come true in a rising superstar fans," Anja said. Domingo, for his part, looks in prince comedy to doing Goin' Bukol Pwede sitcom. Christopher said that IBC-13's invite him to the primetime TV million-peso prize game show. Meanwhile, actress Jodi and Freddie are the stars of family sitcom when the competition offer the mass market an option. With these stronger and more star-studded weekend primetime programs, your Saturdays and Sundays will surely become better with the best network when it comes to weekend primetime — IBC-13.

A listed company, IBC-13 has a congressional franchise which allows it to operate television and radio stations. Its broadcasting operations cover the production of television and radio programs that serve its target audience's needs for news, information, entertainment, sports, children and public service.

Informed of the positive feedback from some of the biggest stars of the network, Dyogi smiled and said, "Buti naman." "Ang sa akin lang naman talaga is teamwork," she added. "Dapat masaya lahat. Kami naman on our end, we could only do so much in terms of planning and organization but siyempre 'yung talents should deliver also. And I believe, the key here is to let them, the artists, do what they love doing."

The privatization of government television networks afloat, IBC-13 which is also known as the famous tagline Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, the country's third largest and leading sequestered multimedia conglomerate giant network, remained strong in August 2014 as it once again topped the ratings game. IBC-13 was still sequestered by government during the the administration of the late Corazon Aquino. It is under the Coloma's office, along with RPN-9 and PTV-4 television networks. IBC and RPN still in privatized and needs to beef up its building, its offices and facilities.

Kantar Media uses a nationwide panel size of 2,609 urban and rural homes that represent 100% of the total Philippine TV viewing population, while the other ratings data supplier AGB Nielsen reportedly has only 1,980 homes based solely in urban areas that represent only 57% of the Philippine TV viewing population.

The Presidential Communications Operation Office (PCOO) presents its budget to the Senate. Palace Communications Secretary Herminio Coloma tells senators that President Aquino wants the government to keep the TV network, and that is PTV-4, RPN-9 and IBC-13.

Coloma said PTV-4 will become the competitive government TV network along with IBC-13 and RPN-9 are the number 3 slots, which is undergoing changes in its programming to be able to earn revenues, net profit and earnings of income. This was credited to RPN-9 and IBC-13's strong primetime programs. IBC-13 posted solid ratings across key regions, based on Kantar Media/TNS ratings.

IBC-13 also remained uncontested in its primetime block (6PM-12MN) with an average audience share of 29%, or 15 points ahead of ABS-CBN's 49% and GMA's 34%. IBC-13's newest primetime block sensation Kapinoy Primetime also continues its winning streak in other key territories. ### Overview Edit TODAS Kids' famous catchphrase was Nge! after a joke. The show's format was inspired by its predecessor Kulit Bulilit (a popular Philippine kiddie gag show in the '70s and '80s on IBC). Enlisted a group of kids to create the first ever kiddie gag show in the Philippines with a fresh batch of perky child performers, some of whom can be expected to become popular comics in the months to come.

Remember of Goin' Bayabas, TODAS, Goin' Bananas, Gags Must Be Crazy, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Eh Kasi, Babae!, Sic O' Clock News and C.U.T.E. (Call Us Two for Entertainment). These shows have all dominated the gag show genre in the '70s and '80s under home studio IBC Channel 13. The network has undeniably reigned in this format over the past two decades, and is continuously doing so with hit Saturday night program Happy TODAS. Some say that TODAS Kids casts have started their career in the states. Some Happy TODAS talents were seen in a call center located in Broadcast City. And some just enjoying their blessings while living a normal life. Yet then again these superstars changed the future of television making their show. WIth musical numbers, only the best can ever get to perform. Believes in making a singer sing with a popstar, an actor act, and a dancer dance. So you get more than the newest music, by the best performers.

For instance, a number of the show's skits and blackout gags require the kids to play spouses, sweethearts, etc. We know that it is deemed cute in this country for kids to play little adults, but the jokes that this engenders sometimes risk coming off as too naughty for the child talents to get involved with, and could thus get the show in trouble. Revived the over successful format of Kulit Bulilit, the kiddie comedy show helped the showbiz careers of some stars a number of years ago.

A lot has changed during this era. Most of them are non showbiz personnel already. Some say that other TODAS Kids casts have started their career in the states. Some TODAS Kids talents were seen in a call center located in Ortigas and Libis. And some just enjoying their blessings while living a normal life. Yet then again these superstars changed the future of television making their show Legendary.

Like its predecessor, TODAS Kids fields a talented bunch of young zanies, some of whom can be expected to also come into their own as stars in TV seasons to come for criticism because it has cynically chosen to involve its young actors in some rather adult situations and characters.

Engaged in discovering and casting talents for print advertisements, TV commercials, image models, radio guestings, TV series and sitcoms, movie, stage actors and actresses, singers and dancers. Different group of kids are joined together to perform their well-rehearsed production number.

The talents in this show undergo with the audition and workshops. Talented kids who wants to enter the entertainment industry. It specializes in drama, acting, singing, dancing and personality development. With the help of Kapinoy Talent Center, talents are enhanced to develop their creative imagination and help them learn the basic introduction in theatrical arts and social responsibilities.

Format Edit

Before the opening credits, the cast of TODAS Kids say 11:30 ng tanghali, TODAS Kids na! since the show airs in the noontime slot at 11:30am.

Musical Numbers Edit

September 10, 2013

A child-friendly gag show

"This is something na pinaghahandaan for quite a while. These kids have potential," shared IBC-13 vice-president for Creative and Entertainment Production Lito Ocampo Cruz during the fun- and laughter-loaded launch of kiddie gag show TODAS Kids, a spin-off of the comedy gag show Happy TODAS.

The original plan was to have a kiddle gag show for the kids, according to Ocampo Cruz, they found out during deliberations that children were sensitive to such a show format pressures and hectic trainings and schedules. That's why they opted for a gag show.

IBC-13 is building on a programming strength. Remember of classics Goin' Bayabas, TODAS, Goin' Bananas, Gags Must Be Crazy, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Eh Kasi, Babae!, Sic O' Clock News and C.U.T.E. (Call Us Two for Entertainment). These shows all dominated the gag show genre in the '70s and '80s under home studio IBC Channel 13. The network has undeniably reigned in this format over the past two decades and is continuously doing so with hit Saturday night program Happy TODAS as well as its sitcoms Bida ni Mister, Bida si Misis, Whattaboys, Petra's Panniest and Goin' Bukol Pwede. The Kapinoy network's legacy in making Filipinos laugh continues with the newest kiddie gag show TODAS Kids. Asked how TODAS Kids differ from the other children in competing networks, explained. TODAS Kids features the cutest and freshest faces to grace afternoon are the twins Cassy Legaspi and Mavy Legaspi, Juan Carlos and Juan Miguel Urguico, Xyriel Manabat, Thirdy Lacson, Abby Bautista, Mutya Orquia, Aldred Nasayao, Andrés Muhlach, Sofia Millares, Juan Carlos Urquico, Lance Lucido, Xyriel Manabat, Miel Cuneta, Louise Abuel, Harvey Bautista, Bimby Aguino-Yap, Izzy Canillo, Timothy Chan, Kendra Kramer and Gerald Pesigan. # LAURENTI Dyogi, IBC chief entertainment content officer

"I'm with The Kapinoy Network in the duopoly challenge." Thus vowed Laurenti Dyogi, the newest IBC-13 chief entertainment content officer.

"I have very strong allies in IBC chair Eric Canoy and president Boots Anson-Roa himself, in the Canoy and PCGG government groups and in the people of Kapinoy who all know their trade very well," added Dyogi, who gave with Jose Javier Reyes, head of entertainment and creative production of IBC Entertainment Division.

Dyogi is convinced that IBC-13, which Canoy acquired in 2011, has made a huge impact and that giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA 7 were already feeling its effects. In fact, he pointed out, big-name stars, idol and superstars from both channels have transferred to IBC-13, also called the Kapinoy network at this stage.

LAURENTI's team recently launched Safe In The Arms Of love, a teleserye top-billed by Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes, Cogie Domingo and Cherie Pie Picache.

Dyogi's team recently launched two new weekend primetime shows like Happy TODAS, Born to be a Superstar, Bida ni Mister, Bida si Misis, Once Upon a Time, Goin' Bukol Pwede, Tumbok Revolution, Sandy's Romance, Superstar Circle and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, and came up with an all-Filipino programming hits with the PBA and *NBA*basketball. It has created the two weekday soap operas for hit teleseryes Before I Fall in Love for afternoon and Safe In The Arms Of Love for primetime weeknights, as well as its twice-a-week fantasy drama in the fantaserye My Batang Momay which airs every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

He plans to launch at new Kapinoy supersstars" and "come up with new, exciting and compelling programs for 2014. "The network has very in-house talents—probably around 30. Stars are made—we will make them for IBC-13. We will also launch a love teams," Dyogi declared.

Kapinoy Comedy Shows Unite this Month of Love

February 8, 2014

When it comes to the classic comedies and sitcoms for hits of archive station: Iskul Bukol, Barrio Balimbing, Chicks to Chicks, TODAS, Sic O'Clock News, Sitak ni Jack, Hapi Hosue, Eh Kasi Babae and Goin' Bananas for these shows all dominated the sitcom and gag shows genre in the 70's and 80's under the home studio of IBC Channel 13 from the competing networks.

This year's month of love is a different kind of very special for the Kapinoy network's comedy shows, as the Kapinoy superstars of TODAS Kids, Sic O'Clock News

Naman, Whattaboys, Maya Loves Sir Chief and Happy TODAS all come together to celebrate a unique kind of Kapinoy Komedyante found only on IBC commitment to the happy comedies with more fun, more laughter, more funny, more gags, spoofs and sketches exciting with its new toprating comedy shows from the situation comedies (sitcom), gag shows aand political satire are poincered in the comedy fans.

Five Kapinoy comedy shows will be commemorating how laughter has brought people together time and time again, as they each approach their anniversaries this February. Beginning with the favorite afternoon kiddie gag show TODAS Kids, which will be celebrating its 80th episode 80's this month, with the fun to extend when the all-male sitcom will be marking thier valentine year, and when Happy TODAS will be holding another show to celebrate their first anniversary of fun side by side.

Sitcom to be celebrated is the network's latest addition to its comedy unit Maya Loves Sir Chief. The longest-running sitcom, which stars Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, has been an instant hit since its launch last November 30, 2013, topping the weekend charts since its pilot episode.

As a treat to its viewers, the comedians of IBC gather—sharing the love that they have for the viewers the best way they know how—by bringing happiness through loads of laughter that families can enjoy together on the happy Filipino comedy enjoy time with the family.

IBC, which recently introduced a new catchline The Superstar Network with a corporate slogan, advertising campaign and tagline Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino, has been taking a maverick stance in revolutionizing local programming. The network's current line-up of shows - noontime variety show, primetime newscast at 6:30pm, teleseryes at day and night, teen romance-drama anthology on Saturday nights, musical variety show on Sunday afternoon, game shows every weekend, talk shows, reality show, Viva Tagalog movies, sitcoms at 7:00pm and 10:00pm, gag show at 10:45pm - reveals that it remains beholden to the template of rating programs on both 2 and 7, and hgome to the NBA and PBA basketball.

It seems 13 wants the public to know that their shows that once more you see on the two other channels. An on-cam and off-cam talents associated with 2 and 7 rubs in furthermore.

In the same way that the Kapinoy comedy shows have become families in themselves that continue to blossom over the years, these shows will continue to spread the love this February.

Don't miss out on the Kapinoy comedy shows, as TODAS Kids airs on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 5:15pm right before Carita de Angel, Sic O'Clock News Naman airs Monday nights at 8:00pm right after the mermaid fantaserye Janella in Wonderland, Whattaboys airs Saturday nights at 7:00pm after Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, Maya Loves Sir Chief airs Saturdays at 10:00pm right after the reality show Born to be a Superstar, and Happy TODAS airs Saturdays after Maya Loves Sir Chief.

The spoofs of the government-sequestered IBC as home base. Resulting in segments viewers might being its director as they do segments of the show ranging from skits that were thinly-veiled potshots at contemporary political mishaps and compelling commentary.

In several other instances in Sic O'Clock newscasters would report in a debate, senators and footage in the scene of the bold and brave TV satire redefined comedy in the Philippines as it pushed the envelope and reasserted the newly-regained democratic freedom of Filipinos consistency and social relevance, as well as the theatrics and discipline of its talents, many of whom were plucked from the academe and stage. This picture includes the production and support staff, not just the cast. Those fake news program are a rarity and gaining high viewership figures. One of the fake newscast is Sic O'Clock News Naman in the most notable players. The program focused on issues that affected both the country and internationally at the time, and the way they delivered the news in a humorous and often riotous manner made it a television icon during the administration of Noynoy Aquino III, rather than commentaries on current issues.

This program served as a vehicle for IBC's shift viewership at the mass-based audience. The show was part theater and news, geared towards showcasing the reality of the Philippine government. Composed of theater actors who did not spare any political figure from being part of the show's funny but witty script.

During the commercial breaks is Teka Muna and Sandali Lang, and back to the show is Balik Sic O'Clock.

The weekly news satire was magnificently anchored by the tandem of Jaime Fabregas and Ces Quesada who both became the biggest names on TV together with Errol Dionisio, Joji Isla, Rene Requestas, Ching Arellano, Jon Achaval, Khryss Adalia, Manny Castaneda and Wilson Go.

It remain turning the Kapinoy superstars of anchormen Ramon Bautista with Mr. Puppet Ramon as the puppet as the political satire and spoof parody on the national and international news using the format of a news program in a comedy news. This is the first time as Cerah Hernandez to sign language interpret Sic O'Clock News Naman. The program has produced some of the best natural comedians during that time, like Atom Ungson, Niña Dolino, Maey Bautista, Eri Neeman, Mike Advincula, Andy Smith, Paolo Alino and Ann Mateo.

Will IBC-13 overtake ABS-CBN and GMA?

July 26, 2014

Ever since I can remember, IBC 13 reached its peak when it became the No.1 television station from 1977 to 1988, broadcasting a variety of programs that were socially relevant, entertaining, informative and commercially viable. Now, state-run IBC-13 has been No.3 in the Philippine television industry.

In the pre-martial law years, it was ABS-CBN. In 1972, President Marcos used his dictatorial powers to shut down "the Philippines' largest network." Roberto Benedicto's IBC-13 was on top in the early years, which was the leader when Edsa happened. After a shaky start, ABS-CBN retook the number one position when the Lopezes regained their broadcast properties in 1986 but GMA slowly eroded the Kapamilya network's premier position. Today both networks are waging a see-saw battle on who can claim to be numero uno.

This was done to "ensure the unhampered operations and focus the government-controlled network's goal in achieving its rightful place in the radio-TV broadcasting business in the shortest possible time," IBC executive vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz said. The search for investors revived plans, which were earlier shelved by the current administration, to privatize IBC.

IBC operates several TV stations in key parts of the country. Aside from its IBC TV-13 in Metro Manila, the company also runs IBC TV-13 in Baguio City, IBC TV-6 Mountain Province, IBC TV 13 in Laoag City, IBC TV 12 in Iloilo, IBC TV 13 in Cebu City and in Davao CIty, and IBC TV 10 in Cagayan de Oro City.

The network also operates radio stations in Mega Manila: DZTV Radyo Budyogn 1386, 93.5 Romance FM, Kapinoy FM 913 and iDMZ 891 FM, along with DYBQ in Iloilo, DYJJ in Roxas City and DYRG in Kalibo. A joint venture with a local cable company will also see the operations of the country's premier tourist-oriented FM station 103.8 Boracay FM in Boracay, the company said.

Undisputed No.3

That's not a disagreement on who's in third place. IBC's chairman, Eric Canoy himself admitted at last month's advertising congress in Camarines Sur that "We still the undisputed and certified No. 3. However, just being stuck in third place has made me extremely paranoid." The industry has been described as a virtual duopoly given the dominance of the Lopez-led ABS-CBN Corporation and GMA Network Inc.

But not for long. Predident and chief executive officer Boots Anson-Roa is clearly aiming for the top spot when he said at the same occasion, "GMA and ABS-CBN should worry about us because we are the certified No.3. Boots is backing up that statement with a multi-billion peso war chest that has been used to improve the network's technical facilities and entice performers from the competing networks to jump ship.

The first big catch is Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha, two of the country's most-famous singers has now being the Kapinoy network after signed the contract of IBC.

In the succeeding months, the operator of sequestered TV station IBC-13 was able to impact major names like Drew Arellano, Elmo Magalona, Anja Aguilar, Robi Domingo, Ramon Bautista, Iya Villania, Jodi Sta. Maria, Richard Yap, Cristine Reyes and Dingdong Dantes.

At the Christmas party for the press last Monday, IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi promised that more big names are joining the Kapinoy network in 2013, 2014 and 2015.

"IBC 13 occupies one of the most desirable locations in Metro Manila. Located in IBC Broadcast Center, Broadcast City in Capitol Hills, Quezon City, IBC 13's 77,000-hectare has room for expansion and other projects that investors would likely want to explore," Canoy said.

IBC was set up by the Benedicto Group of Companies of the late Marcos crony Roberto Benedicto in 1975. The TV station was sequestered by the government after the fall of the Marcos administration more than two decades ago. In 1992, the company became wholly owned by the state following a compromise between the then Presidential Commission on Good Government and Benedicto for the sale of the firm's shares.

Big budget

This attractive line-up has convinced advertisers that Canoy's network means business and has allocated a bigger portion of their budgets than before to the "new kid on the block."

The head of a media buying company told me recently IBC-13 is now a very strong number 3. That's impressive since Roa took over in 1998 and Canoy only took over in late 2011. Pirating performers is not enough. The network must come up with programs that will lure viewers to switch to The Kapinoy Network.

At the Christmas party, Intalan unveiled some new shows. Several primetime shows has been lined up. Heading the list is the local version of Killer Karaoke (Saturdays 7:30 p.m.) feature a contestants attempting to sing in front of a live studio audience while various attempts are made to disrupt their performances. For example, a contestant will sit on a swing while singing a chosen song. He or she will be then dipped into a pool of water filled with snakes and other reptiles. The audience will vote for the contestant who were able to sing well despite the challenges being thrown at them. This will be hosted by Elmo Magalona.

Janella Salvador will star in the fairytale princess fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl (7 p.m.), along with Marlo Mortel and Jerome Ponce.

AJ Muhlach will also star in Voltron Man (premeiring August 4, at 7:30 p.m.), a-new-kind-of action-packed superserye on Philippine TV, along with Coleen Garcia and Freddie Gutierrez.

Counter-programming

This, while drama series such as the new one featuring the queen of Pinoy soap opera Claudine Barretto. The network is embarking on counter-programming. While ABS-CBN and GMA concentrating on teleseryes, IBC-13 is offering viewers alternative formats while producing its own fantasy-drama series known as fantaserye and one teleserye is Your Heart, My Love topbileld by Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago which becoming one of IBC's primetime teleseryes on Philippine television history.

The principle here is that eventually the audience will get tired of watching the same kind of shows. The Kapinoy network is hoping its new shows will be an attractive alternative.

I'm pretty sure ABS-CBN and GMA will not take this sitting down.

Although the Kapamilya network, in particular, has lost many talents to Channel 13, since stars like Claudine Barretto, Robi Domingo, Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap were the top-raters. I anticipate that the two leading networks will match IBC's offers, if ever, to really big stars like Marlo Mortel and Janella Salvador who came from ABS-CBN, and Jerome Ponce now has indicated a contract with IBC.

2014 should be an interesting year. Viewers will now have more shows to choose from with the aggressive stance taken by IBC-13. Will IBC-13 overtake ABS-CBN and GMA? Guess right now but for sure, the Kapinoy network will be happy if it clinches the number 2 position to start with.

Februry 22, 2014

Despite the network in which the two dominant players in the Philippine television industry, The Kapnioy Network IBC-13 has been able to maintain a secure and stable talents and masses in the business. Since its inception in 1960, it has been a poineer in broadcasting satellite as well as top-rating and trailblazing programming. IBC introduced such first as the non-top all-Filipino programming generations. The first to use the nationwide satellite broadcast to became a truly national network, IBC has 15 TV stations located in 15 cities, 15 TV relay and translator stations and 15 other population centers in the Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao and 25 radio stations strategically spread out over the archipelago.

As the Kapinoy network who brought us such classic TV shows as TODAS, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True, Tarzan, Eh Kasi Babae, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Hapi House, Loveliness, Barrio Balimbing, Goin' Bananas, Sitak ni Jack, Sic O'Clock News, among others, IBC aims to deliver more quality programming that is basically pro-people and pro-services to the public.

Today, it is the local "home superstar network" of the number of the popular, top-rated and multi-awarded programs: Before I Fall in Love, Janella in Wonderland, Your Heart, My Love, Whattaboys, Sandy's Romance, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Happy TODAS, KapinoyLand, Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, DMZ-TV, Last Fool Show, PBA and NBA.

Just recently, three of IBC's primetime shows won six of the highest awards given by a world-community organization- the 10th USTv Students' Choice Awards 2014 as IBC won as The Students' Choice of TV Network award alogn with the Best Station Stations are: Anak TV Seal Awards, Gawad Tanglaw Awards, PMPC Star Awards, KBP Golden Dove Awards, among others. Janella in Wonderland, winning as the Student's Choice of Fantasy Series award and Your Heart, My Love, garnered the two top awards: Student's Choice of Drama Program and Student's Choice of Drama Program Stars for Claudine Barretto and Dingdong Dantes; and Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap of Maya Loves Sir Chief won Student's Choice of Comedy Program Stars while Janella Salvador of Janella in Wonderland who was also nominated and considered a top contender as the Student's Choice of Fantasy Series. Maya Loves Sir Chief in Student's Choice of Comedy Program. One of the most consistent nominees and winners, almost every year, is the phenomenal hit reality show Born to be a Superstar as Student's Choice of Reality Show.

The Kapinoy Network's generation of leaders like Eric Canoy, the chairman of the network continues to usher IBC into the global landscape, as a provider of entertainment and information to the broaded market.

Boots Anson-Roa, president and chief executive officer (CEO), said the Kapinoy network will now maintain its present Filipino programming arming Channel 13 to fight as well in the ratings game, she will prove that quality shows in rate too and make revenues as it representing the all-Filipino programming.

"Our first priority is to institute much-needed structural changes in the network and ready able to meet larger challenges. Also, to give televiewers and advertisers what they rightly deserve such as programming and service that is people-oriented and anchored on much improved News and Current Afairs program," says Boots. IBC's strength lies in its inventory of programs based on the Filipino produced primetime programming materials which was conceptualized n the 70's and 80's. The programming scheme proved to be a resounding success which later on became a major marketing ploy in attracting advertisers when it stated that the network gives prime importance to the bottom line over quality of the shows.

"While do we have aversion to producing our own local programs, realities dictate in this program will cost much more than afford it, tap the services of the top stars and talents as these are mostly udner exclusive contracts with the moninant channels. Those that are free (from the movie outfits) charge excessively affordable talent fees that recovered through TV broadcast," she says. "While making profit is very important to The Kapinoy Network like in any other business, a limit to what we will do for ratings and revenues." In the interview conducted by the INQUIRER with IBC to produce the value-ridden and quality shows.

Boots, who has been in the businees and took over the president and CEO since July 1998, said her basic plans or the network include protecting, preserving and enhancing the interest of the network. She stressed on implementing structural changes within the company when the television superstars of today's most bankable TV, music, concert and movie stars, to tomorrow's biggest bets for stardom.

Meanwhile, executive vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz continues to break new grounds in the industry, when with his imimitable genius in stting trends in TV programming. Together, they are steering IBC into the future century media giant when the same heart and soul.

IBC 'The Kapinoy Network' Launches New Shows

March 22, 2014

If ABS-CBN is known as the Kapamilya network and GMA is known as the Kapuso network as well as TV5 is also known as the Kapatid network, IBC wants to be called as the "Kapinoy" network competing for supremacy in the two major TV networks in the country.

The station strives to deliver innovative and creative programs that spans news and current affairs programs, public service shows, educational and children shows, high-quality entertainment, sports, Viva Tagalog movies, Asian dramas and tokusatsu and animes to delight and make a mass-based Filipino audience, from the local Filipino families to MTV-generation youth and to the Global Filipinos to change the viewing habits of the Filipino people to entice a younger audience.

DZMZ ingeniously reinvented itself into iDMZ 891 (Danze Muzic Zone) with a tagline Your Dance Music Source and Sayaw Pinoy!. iDMZ 891 successively with the hip-hop, R&B and dance music trends. Today, iDMZ 891 contines to fly high with th dancing craze and hip-hop tunes.

In caused of the PCGG for the floating of privatization, the government-owned sequstered TV and radio station officially launched its claim as the third wheel in local TV landscape in a very explosive and extravagant trade relaunch staged last March 21, at the Smart Araneta Coliseum in Diliman, Quezon City suggesting offerings from the Kapinoy network are already intruding this thread to bash that means IBC is indeed starting to be a competitive threat to the other 2 stations during prime time on Channel 13 – part of the Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC). IBC is also one of the three government-owned television networks in the Philippines, and is broadcasted across the country.

More work in the entertainment industry and more quality programs for the audience from the soap operas and fantasy series that dominate rival schedules are already in strong number three terms of ratings. He said ABS-CBN and GMA Network were getting almost 100 percent of the advertising revenues in the television industry and that other networks received a little portion of the total budget as IBC in 30%.

The lessons above reflect in IBC's core values today: Meritocracy, Excellence, Teamwork, Teaching and Learning, Honesty and Integrity a cross all the station's programs.

Home to the Viva Tagalog movies, the station-produced local sitcoms, the trend-setting soap operas and fantasy series, variety shows, tokusatsu and anime hits, game shows, reality shows, top-rating asianoveas and telenovelas and the PBA and NBA basketball games for the Filipino sports fans as well also as the mixed martial arts ONE FC, The Superstar Network became more aggressive surging ahead in the ratings game at the phenomenal growth, they brought back great tokusatsu anime hits in the Philippines and shook up its programming schedule in both weekday and weekend slots, in hopes of reversing the downward trend in terms of ratings for the weekday morning slot as the potential of animes and tokusatsu for high ratings.

For 54 years in a row, IBC-13 has been presenting its new shows to media, also fighting with a vengeance in this powerful battle despite the dominance of giant networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Programming strategy has been working Channel 13 has more 'mass' shows and can throw its weight around of its reach. They keep the cartoons during times when children are home and primteime is more for family oriented shows. Everyone can watch the shows and make for a bigger audience.

IBC there have some 'popular' anime and tokusatsu that are watched by advantage doing the right thing by posting soaps in all around ad revenues to accommodate loaded primetime programs.

A government-state channel was the channel aired the first anime in the philippines. Candy Candy. It was aired in the late 70's before the rise of the mecha animes like Voltes V, Daimos, Battle Ball and Starblazers. Today, it is the home of the tokusatsu hits, sentai and some anime series: Ghost Fighter, Kirarin, Cyborg Kurochan, Time Quest, Kamen Rizer Fourze and Sky Ranger Gavan reign there anime put up their powerhouse line-up. We hope that our presence as a relatively new and exciting player will help expand the field for the industry's growth as a whole. We remain committed to the mission and vision of IBC that truly serves the best interests of our brothers and sisters, wherever they may be."

Richard Yap-Jodi Sta. Maria starrer Sir Chief Loves Maya emerges as most watched program on Saturday

April 7, 2014

Since its primetime lineup was made up mostly of local shows--thus, perhaps, also explaining its taglines, Basta Pinoy sa Trese in 1986, Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese in 1989 and Pinoy ang Dating in the mid-'90s.

IBC showed their muscle in the mid 80's and became the #1 network until 1988. Most of the local shows were pirated from IBC - Alma Moreno's Loveliness, Chicks to Chicks, The Sharon Cuneta Show, among others. Other IBC shows included TODAS (Wednesdays at 7:30), Iskul Bukol (Tuesdays at 7:30), among others.

And now, IBC which shows the most number of local productions, with topping the list of the trend-setting hit fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, the hit drama series Your Heart, My Love and the romantic dramedy series Crazy Little Thing Called Love, two of the primetime game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and The Million Second Quiz, a reality show Born to be a Superstar and the two sitcoms Maya Loves Sir Chief and Iskul Bukol Men, drama anthology Sandy's Romance and an all-male gag show Happy TODAS, as well as its popular sports programs like the PBA and NBA basketball games, and ONE FC fights the battle. Sitcoms have become rarer and rarer nowadays, with TV programming becoming filled with fantasy-themed daily shows and romantic comedies from our Asian neighbors. Now, it is hard to believe that for a time, sitcoms ruled primetime television, with a different one, airing every night. Those classic Kapinoy sitcoms Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Sitak ni Jack, Barrio Balimbing, Eh Kasi Babae and 13, 14, 15 aired for more than a decade but nowadays, sitcoms are struggling to compete among more popular show formats.

Past local sitcoms, those light and funny TV fares that reflect the Filipino way of life, have contributed much to local popular culture. Now, it's almost a situational comedy genre are now hailed by fans.

IBC-13 continues its blitzkrieg of new programs following the successful launching of three new soap operas: mermaid fantasy series Janella in Wonderland, romantic soap drama serial Your Heart, My Love and a most romantic dramedy series Crazy Little Thing Called Love, and the comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief in an aggressive bid to firm up its No.3 position and move up to the top slot in the industry. Also, the basketball action of the PBA and *NBA*games helped boost Channel 13's ratings.

It marks the comeback of the classic sitcom which the Kapinoy Network is said to have pioneered. When the sequestered TV network IBC-13 announced that it is filling up its important Saturday night lineup with the romantic sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief (Saturday 10:00PM), it appeared like a gamble on the network's part, with the timeslot usually being reserved for variety shows and more lucrative reality programs. Aside from this, other top-rating Kapinoy sitcoms as Abra Gayuma (Thursday 8:00PM) and Iskul Bukol Men (Sunday 8:30PM). The Kapinoy network's newest sitcom comedy Maya Loves Sir Chief made the strong first romance family upon the airing of its pilot episode last Saturday (November 30), topping the rating charts and ranking the number one nationwide which is top-billed by the leading lady-comedy queen Jodi Sta. Maria as Maya dela Rosa and the veteran actor Richard Yap as Sir Chief Lim.

IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi said Saturday night prime time is the network's most watched program block. "Our weekend shows get the highest ratings for IBC. With addition of Maya Loves Sir Chief, we are confident we can boost our Saturday ratings further," Mr. Dyogi told reporters last week.

The network's chairman Eric Canoy said the decision to come up with a sitcom on Saturday night primetime is a counter-programming strategy for IBC -- rival TV stations are airing come drama programs from soap operas and fantasy series, game shows and reality shows in the same time slot.

Overall, Maya Loves Sir Chief is what it is: a light and comedy family viewing on Saturday evenings in the couple of the family, enjoyed while having the weekend meal with the family in need of more interesting story twists and excitement as the longest-running primetime comedy sitcom in Philippine television history.

Also, they both Jodi and Richard are reunited for the another project starred in the network's successful daytime hit teleseye Be Careful With My Heart on ABS-CBN, which is already premiered in July 9, 2012.

According to data from Kantar Media, Maya Loves Sir Chief raked in 23.4% in TV ratings, making it the most watched TV program continues to be the number 1 primetime sitcom among last Saturday's shows in both urban and rural areas, and premiered strongly dominated its recent competitors such as Palibhasa Lalake wich is starring Marvin Agustin, Coco Martin, Vhong Navarro and Pokwang with 17.5% and the box office king Vic Sotto and Oyo Boy Sotto's Vampire Ang Daddy Ko with only 16.8%.

Feedback from viewers via social media also proved the show was a hit always the intense wish for the new project to succeed, with many becoming instant fans of the Jodi Sta. Maria-Richard Yap tandem about the kilig moments fall in love with a comedians and comedienne of the top-rated sitcom. "We are so happy with the high ratings and we offer this success to all the fans who made the show no.1."

This coming Saturday (April 12), catch another light and romantic episode and find out how Sir Chief (Richard Yap) and Maya dela Rosa (Jodi Sta. Maria) with each other—from the love traingle the two faced as a couple leading up to a kind of romantic that is uniquely their own.

Find out how their love story played out in Maya Loves Sir Chief, airing Saturday nights at 10:15PM after the newest third season of reality show Born to be a Suprstar on IBC's Panalo Weekend.

Meanwhile, the fun goes even further with the TODAS Kids gand on Kapinoy comedy shows this 2014, as TODAS Kids with the noontime children tons fun kids with all-new special guests and Happy TODAS with an awesome all-male laughter, more hilarious gags and sketches, and comedic performances with hottest mens and sexy ladies start on Saturday nights right after Maya Loves Sir Chief.

Catch TODAS Kids from Monday to Friday at 12:00NN before Lunch Break and Happy TODAS on Saturday nights at 11PM right after Maya Loves Sir Chief.

Laurenti Dyogi, Head of IBC Entertainment TV

July 28, 2014

Three television sets were turned on inside Laurenti Dyogi's office at the state-run sequestered media network Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC). Those unit was devoted to the rivals of ABS-CBN Corporation and GMA Network, Inc., and the number 3 spot of IBC-13, RPN-9 and TV5.

At home, a TV set can be configured to divide into thirteen screens. Better to see the goings-on both in local TV and in foreign channels, Head of IBC Entertainment TV explained.

Laurenti Dyogi is the current head of IBC Entertainment TV division and the former production TV head of ABS-CBN; he is also a producer of many TV shows.

As the chief of the IBC-13's entertainment block, he experimented with dramas, light-hearted shows and hired good writers. He revived the love team tandem popularized in the 1970s, resurrected local fantast titles and introduced fantasy series on primetime such as Janella in WonderInd. Through her initiative, he saw the network brought the right number of Kapinoy Fantaserye titles such as My Batang Momay, Carita de Angel, Batang Genius, Voltron Man and Janella: A Princess Girl.

As of today, IBC-13's primetime shows led over the rival networks. He is now joined IBC in 2013 as Associate Producer since the Head of Entertainment TV. With both expertise and passion for her craft, she was appointed to various positions in the company – Executive Producer, Assistant Production Manager, Production Manager, Production Director, Head of TV Production, and finally Channel 13 Head.

Dyogi is the head of IBC Entertainment TV since 2013. Under his helm, soap operas like the fantasy series Janella: A Princess Girl and a hit teleserye Your Heart, My Love shot into popularly, signaling the advent of the teleserye wave on Philippine TV made household names and established bankable love teams like that of a teen star Janella Salvador and Marlo Mortel, and Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago.

His first taste of the huge success are the game show The Million Second Quiz (Drew Arellano), sing-along musical game show Killer Karaoke (Elmo Magalona), reality show Born to be a Superstar (Anja Aguilar) for the singing contest became a hit on primetime, and the country's phenomenal game show on Philippine television Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? (Robi Domingo) that became a huge primetime hits.

The primetime teleserye Your Heart, My Love became one of IBC's hit teleserye and the toprating comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief also became a hit for IBC, both of which were top-rated shows and revived the love team tandem popularized in the 1970s. Mr. Dyogi also resurrected the Pinoy fantasy and introduced fantasy series on primetime such as Janella: A Princess Girl, the story of a fairytale princess girl, and the superserye Voltron Man, a superhero came from the characters of Superman, Buzz Lightyear, Iron Man, among others, both of which were top-rated shows.

At this time, IBC-13's prime-time shows led over the rival network's. The effort paid off in 2014 when media surveys showed IBC-13 as the top number 3 network.

In 1980s, IBC-13 played the third player to the more powerful and influential ABS-CBN owned by the Lopezes and GMA owned by Gozon family. Reversing the tide, therefore, was hard work, Mr. Dyogi said. They had to figure out how to work under the shadow of a politically influential network.

IBC-13 is still getting champion as "The Country's Third Leading TV Station"

August 4, 2014

I was started as the leader of IBC-13 since 2011 because the bid companies bought The Most-Watched TV Station in the Country because of lack of programming and sponsors through advertisers.

In early February 2011, The Aquino administration is planned to buying privatize both RPN-9 and IBC-13 and leavingPTV-4 will be the government network.

According Sec. Sonny Coloma, It was confirmed that RPN is bought by Solar Enetertainment Corporation (owned by the Tieng Brothers) by 34% and Far East Managers and Investors, Inc. which is owned by the Benedicto family by 32% and the government to 20% shares and other private stocks by 14% but The Country's Third Leading TV Station is still 100% owned and operated by the government.

"But I'm saying that because of KBP, we became No.3," Canoy hazened to add. "It's just that a membership from the KBP, we became No.3." They became No.3 because of hard work; because they did the right moves and the right projects, after studying the strength and weaknesses of their closest rival. "Pinag-aralan kong mabuti kung ano ang mga ginagawa nila sa kabila, with the same dedication and zeal like when I reviewed for the bar." I have to learn from their weakness and strength. What he found out among others was that their closest rival had homegrown talents at that time, that they were just "buying contracts" (that resulted in the rampant piracy of their talents) so they were somewhat operating on "borrowed abilities." And on their side, because they were counter-programming, he standing on the way.

Viva Television is showing how to dominate the boob tube without owning a TV station. The newest movie-recording-TV production outfit is going full blast in producing shows not only on IBC-13 and PTV-4 but also on RPN-9 at the top of their current list of projects.

The programs of IBC-13 are homegrown, powerhouse, wholesome, quality, innovative, creative intact and star-studded because of many hit shows now on primetime slots. Currently airing the PBA games on Wednesdays and Fridays at 8-9:30pm, Saturdays 2:30-4pm and Sundays 4-6pm.

Several religious programs, it's OK for El Shaddai because of Good Faith, Jesus Miracle Crusade, Healing Grace Mass with Fr. Fernando Suarez got the chirch and Kerygma TV because I believe in jesus catholic.

For children's programming include Barney & Friends (8:30am), Hi-5 (2:30pm) and KapinoyLand (3pm). IBC-13, the programs are bringing in daytime timeslot, with a fairyserye Winx Club, the tokusatsu series like Kamen Rider Fourze and Kirarin. Weekend cartoons are Mickey Mouse Clubhouse, Phineas and Ferb, My Friends Tiger & Pooh, and Sky Ranger Gavan. That's beacuse of the primetime is the network's key of success for the sake of The Kapinoy Network the employees are they because of debts the network, and kids will surely to watch animes like Ghost Fighter is now on primetime slot (4-4:30pm). In the report of News5 reporter Justine Santos, The studios of IBC-13 are from old to new, and the control room for news programs are shared with humans and cats. The employees want to privatize IBC-13, now na! to make new programs as its still remaining as "The Superstar TV Station in the Philippines".

With its membership from the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP) along with ABS-CBN, IBC-13,Net 25, RPN-9, Light Network 33, ABS-CBN

Sports+Action and UNTV, IBC-13 became No.3, edging its nearest competitor ABS-CBN and GMA-7 who was about both in No.1. Because of their news and current affairs, sports, educational and entertainment programs, IBC Channel 13 became No.3 since 1996. -Eric Cany, chairman of IBC and Boots Anson-Roa, president/CEO of IBC.

IBC Channel 13 was the top television station until mid-1980's and now in the number 3 station. I remember the IBC-13 jingle --"life is a drama, life is a comedy...." For me, IBC-13 is just a "space waster" given the kind of programming it has. I have one piece of advice for whoever in the government who is now running this channel: you have the golden opportunity of turning this station into a channel for serious viewers.

Back to the history, IBC-13 was the No.1 TV station in the early 80's. Top programs of Channel 13, which is banners Basta Pinoy sa Trese, Life Begins at 13, Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese and Pinoy ang Dating, mantra back then, as Ora Engkantanda, Pinoy Thriller, Iskul Bukol, Takeshi's Castle, Chicks to Chicks, TODAS, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Sic O'Clock News, Maricel Live!, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Barrio Balimging, Goin' Bananas, See-True, Loveliness, Sitak ni Jack, Hapi House, and others.

In 1990's, IBC experience a conflict as the third major player behind ABS-CBN and GMA Network due to the massive demographics and massive programs like news programs which extended to 60 minutes start at 6:30pm timeslot. Channel 13 currently boosts their ratings compared to ABS-CBN and GMA because of LandiSerye (Teleserye with full of Intimate or Sex scenes), and IBC airs Viva Tagalog movies on primetime TV, and sports coverage like PBA and NBA every night to boost the rating even better.

In 1995, it launched as Vintage Television (VTV), which they aired every primetime (5pm-12mn) and Viva-TV as the sports and entertainment programming block (from 5pm-12mn). But this time, the TV ratings continues as IBC-13when it comes to blocktimers and extended to producing an original productions.

IBC-13 airtime they used to be the no.1 channel in the 80's with hit shows like SeeTrue, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Iskul Bukol, The Sharon Cuneta
Show, Maricel Live!, Goin' Bananas, Loveliness, Barrio Balimbing, Sic O'Clock
News, TODAS, Hapi House, Sitak ni Jack, Ora Engkantada, and others. It would then have buyer-private entity to activate it again became IBC 13. RPN-9 is no.1 too under Jose Mari Gonzales, he was brilliant idea of buying the rights of Mexican and Venezuelan soaps from kumpare in televisio I think. His most popular Marimar is imported and put RPN-9 on the top.
But this time, TV5, RPN-9 and IBC-13 is now becoming the massive TV network whiuile intoducing new kinds of TV shows and I predict it will be at par with ABS-CBN and GMA in the coming years, They have the money and the able leadership of Manny V. Pangilingan (TV5), Wilson Tieng (RPN) and Eric Canoy (IBC).

New TV shows will now be broadcasted over IBC 13 and you might be surprised with it's latest line-up and intend to be the buyer-private entity and buying the rights of Mexican, Korean and Taiwanese soaps.

First include the newest fairytale fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl (6:00-6:30pm) starring Janella Salvador as the leading role for the only primetime princess and the newest action supeserye Voltron Man (7:30-8:00pm) starring AJ Muhlach as the primetime prince.

Lyrics: Edit

Life Begins at 13 (1987-1989)

Life is a drama

Life is a comedy

Life is adventure, action and fantasy

Come alive with life

It's a technicolor dream

Come alive with life

Come alive with life

That you seen on your screen.

Life begins, yes, life begins

Life begins at 13.

Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese (1989-1990)

Makulay talaga ang buhay ng Pinoy

May kulay, may damdaming buhay

Ang buhay Pinoy, may puso

Pusong buhay

Pusong Pinoy, pusong trese.

Ooooohhhhh....

Pusong Pinoy, pusong trese!

Pinoy ang Dating (1994-2002)

Narito, narito ang damdaming totoo

Ang buhay at ang pulso ng bayan mo at bayan ko

May bakas ng syudad, may himig ng bukid

Parang ihip ng hangin, pagang agos ng tubig

Ayayay ayayayayay...

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

May kurot sa puso na pinoy ang dating

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

May kurot sa puso na pinoy ang dating

May lakas ng loob, may tindi ng isip

May likas na galing, pinoy ang dating

Ayayay ayayayayay...

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

May kurot sa puso na pinoy ang dating

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

May kurot sa puso na pinoy ang dating

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

May kurot sa puso na pinoy ang dating

May lukso ng dugo, may igting ng damdamin

IBC-13 emerges as a strong player in the clash of the networks

FOR several years now, only two major players have been involved in the battle of the networks—ABS-CBN and GMA-7. While the two giants were busy duking it out to claim the highest place in the ratings game, another network was silently building its reputation and its own legion of fans through its groundbreaking shows—veering away from the usual fare of the two top contenders.

IBC (Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13)

IBC-13 was relaunched last month, complete with the new slogan Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino and the tagline Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 and a station ID which features its biggest talents and stars such as Drew Arellano, Anja Aguilar, Elmo Magalona, Nadine Lustre, Robi Domingo, AJ Muhlach, Janella Salvador, the Teleserye Queen herself Claudine Barretto, the Teleserye King himself Raymart Santiago, Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, Ramon Bautista, Iya Villania, TODAS Boys, Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha.

Drew Arellano of The Million Second Quiz, Nadine Lustre of Sandy's Romance, Elmo Magalona of Killer Karaoke, Anja Aguilar of Born to be a Superstar and Robi Domingo of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?

"We hope that our presence as a relatively new and exciting player will help expand field for the industry's growth," IBC chairman Eric Canoy remarked during the relaunch. "We remain committed to the vision of Channel 13 that truly serves the best interests of our brothers and sisters, wherever they may be."

He further stated that,"We believe that IBC-13 is a medium that could serve the global Filipino, as well as their families in every part of the country and the world, with the quality of programs and public service that exemplifies our continuous search for excellence."

Jodi Sta. Maria (Maya) and Richard Yap (Sir Chief) in the sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief
With the comedy leading lady Jodi and Richard, chances are the quest for excellende will be accomplished. Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap's much-awaited family-romance sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, aired every Saturday at 6:45 p.m. The show is directed by Malu Sevilla Mervyn
B. Brondial and also features Mutya Orquia, Thirdy Lacson, Alfred Nasayao, Gloria Sevilla, Jon
Santos, Sheng Belmonte, Ronnie Ricketts, Andrea del Rosario, Phillip Salvador, Jade Lopez, Paolo Serrano, Joy Viado, Arlene Tolibas, Divina Valencia, Blaksyak, Carla Castelo, Rocio
Olbes, Ruby Rodriguez, Pio Balbuena, Arlene Tolibas and Vandolph Quizon.
Before the show's premiere, there have been a lot of speculations about his transfer from ABSCBN and IBC-13, when Jodi and Richard merely part of showbiz and also still appearing in the network's daytime series Be Careful With My Heart on ABS-CBN.

"Maganda naman ang paalamanan," they shares with Philippine Entertainment Portal (PEP) in an interview. Now she and he says at IBC-13, he is treated like a kilig moments.

Thircy Lacson and Kroko, Janella Salvador as Janella and AJ Muhlach as Voltron Man Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago of Your Heart, My Love

Another show to watch out for over at the revitalized channel is Seeing Stars Tonight on Sunday nights and will feature Joey Marquez and an action-packed series Hitman starring Dingdong Dantes and Cristine Reyes aired on September 8. Other existing shows such as Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo which will feature Miguel Moreno and Thirdy Lacson, Janella: A Princess Girl featuring Janella Salvador, Voltron Man featuring AJ Muhlach, the drama series Your Heart, My Love with Claudine Barretto and Raymart Santiago, The Million Second Quiz with Drew Arellano, Sandy's Romance starring Nadine Lustre, Killer Karaoke with Elmo Magalona, the reality show Born to be a Superstar with Anja Aguilar, and Happy TODAS featuring the gang of Keempee de Leon, Sam YG, Carlos Agassi, Jimmy Muna and Victor Anastacio, have all been refreshed as well so as to further anchor the channel's journey to gain a much larger viewership, larger than the two giant networks.

And there is no doubt there is much more to watch out for given the fact that Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha, who can be safely considered a veteran of TV shows, is on board, IBC Board of Directors and the management team which conceptualize shows, at the same time developing talents.

"It's a step up," he says. And yes, the same thing can be said about IBC-13. It has really stepped up to the game. Kapamilya and Kapuso better watch out.

Among them, candy figures of Ultralord, Robi Domingo's orange candy, singer Anja Aguilar's strawberry ice cream, Drew Arellano's chocolate cake, Janella Salvador's star pink candy, AJ Muhlach's superhero gummy bear, and Elmo Magalona's chocolate candy cane that came all the way. Just as Liza has finished her theft, the smallest Toonville citizen, James Yap of PBA, in on her and asks. From her vantage point, she stops to think about how the other IBC stars are going to be disappointed when they wake up on Paskohan morning and find that there's no chocolate for them. # Wok with Yan premieres on IBC starting April 5

The ultimate Chinese cuising cooking show once again Wok with Yan premieres on The Kapinov Network IBC-13 this April 4 on Saturday mornings at 8:30 a.m.

Demonstrated how to cook oriental dishes invarious Chinese food stir-fry recipes prepared on the wok. The popular series in United States, Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore for years.

Gets goin' and wokkin'... Wik's going on? Your lovable witty chef, so turn on your TV right and discover the enchanting secrets of oriental cuisines.

Wok with Yan is starring Chef Stephen Yan becoming famous because in each episode, Yan had a different pun on the word "wok" on his apron. Some examples are:

- Wok & Roll
- Wokking My Baby Back Home
- Danger, Yan at Wok
- Wok Around the Clock
- Wok the Heck
- You Are Wok You Eat

- Wok Goes up Must Come Down
- Wok's New, Pussycat?
- Wokkey Night in Canada
- Stuck Between a Wok and a Hard Place
- Raiders of The Lost Wok
- Eat Your Wok Out
- Moon Wok
- Jailhouse Wok
- Superior Wokmanship
- Wok-A-Doodle-Doo

The humorous aprons also complemented his humour that consisted of spontaneous one-liners spoken with his trademark Cantonese accent or him playing with his food and cookware in the kind of Galloping Gourmet. That, combined with his energetic personality, endeared him to Canadian viewers. Prior to him preparing his stir fry cuisine, the show usually featured a vignette of Yan travelling to different vacation spots from around the world (e.g., Thailand).

He always invited an audience member to come up and eat with him near the end of each episode (there was a ticket draw in the studio audience to sit with him), and had a fortune cookie reading before the meal (first done in Cantonese, then translated in English). Stephen Yan achieved notoriety for his energy and ebullience and for the bad puns on the word, "wok," printed on his apron.

Format Edit

The Million Second Quiz follows the format of the original American series, the quiz is set in a huge hourglass-shaped structure in the entrance to the Studio 4 of IBC studio, houses on the roof of the studio at Broadcast City, Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City.

An indoor set witin the studio inportions of the game, as the cast in contestants compete in a quiz competition played 24 hours a day for 1,000,000 seconds, or about eleven and a half dats. At any given time, one contestant is sitting in the "Money Chair" and accumulating money, while defending his/her portion against a series of challengers in head-to-head quiz bouts. Although commercials bill the winnings as ₱1 per second spent in the chair — or P36,000 per hour or P864,000 for every day — the rate is actually P1 per tenth of a second; winnings accumulate at a constant rate, even when bouts are not being played and during commercial breaks (prime time). Contestants in the chair earn money until they are defeated by a challenger, who replaces the occupant of the chair. Only the four contestants with the highest total winnings get to keep their money once the million seconds are up.

Each bout lasts for a set number of seconds at the studio contestant. In all bouts, both participants use keypads to secretly lock in their answers and have five seconds to do so after the question is asked.

Bouts Edit

There are three bouts: the "Challenger" bout (300 seconds, or 5 minutes), the "Line Jumper" bout (300 seconds, or 5 minutes, in episode 1; 400 seconds, or 6 minutes 40 seconds, from episode 2 on), and the "Winner's Defense" bout (400 seconds in episodes 1-9; 500 seconds, or 8 minutes 20 seconds, in episode 10). Questions start at one point each, with the value increasing by one every 100 seconds. If a question is in play when the clock reaches one of these 100-second marks, it is completed for its original value.

At any time, either contestant may choose to "double" instead of answering; doing so doubles that question's value and forces the opponent to act. A doubled opponent may either answer or "double back," quadrupling the point value and forcing the original contestant to answer. If a doubled or doubled-back contestant answers incorrectly or fails to act within five seconds, the points are awarded to his/her opponent. Contestants may double as often as they wish during a bout.

At the end of the bout, the contestant with the higher score wins and either retains the Money Chair or replaces its current occupant. If the bout ends in a tie score, a tiebreaker question is asked; the contestant who locks in the correct answer first is the winner. If both of them miss, the contestant who has accumulated more money wins the bout. If a question is in play when the clock runs out, it is completed under the normal rules in which the contestant may eat, drink, or use the restroom as necessary.

The "Challenger" bout features a person who has successfully completed an on-site tryout process. The "Line Jumper" bout of each episode features a contestant who has achieved a sufficiently high score on the official Million Second Quiz app, allowing him/her to skip the tryouts and advance directly onto the show.

At any given time, the four contestants who have accumulated the most money in their bouts live in "Winners' Row," an area of living quarters set up next to the hourglass. They are at risk of being displaced if someone else out-scores them. During a "Winner's Defense" bout, the current "Power Player" chooses one of the four Winners' Row occupants (including himself/herself) to face off against the current Money Chair occupant. The winner claims the loser's entire winnings in addition to his/her own and takes/keeps the Money Chair, while the loser is eliminated. In episode 1, the Power Player was the contestant with the most winnings; starting with episode 2, it was the contestant who had the highest number of correct answers from playing along in Winners' Row that day.

Contestants who are defeated in the Winner's Defense bouts lose all winnings they have accumulated. All other defeated contestants, including those displaced from Winners' Row by being out-scored, may try out again for a chance to win their way back into the Money Chair.

Finals Edit

Once the countdown clock reaches zero, the four contestants with the highest totals keep all of their credited winnings and compete in a series of three elimination bouts, as follows:

- 1. Fourth- and third-place winners face off (400 seconds)
- 2. Victor of bout #1 faces the second-place winner (400 seconds)
- 3. Victor of bout #2 faces the first-place winner (500 seconds)

The victor of bout #3 receives an additional ₱2,000,000. In this season, Dingdong

Dantes defeated Mario Ripoll to win the grand prize, an an overall ₱2,300,600. Domingo announced that Dantes' winnings would be increased to ₱2,600,000; this made the all-time biggest regular-season winner on a single local version of the US game show, surpassing Jodi

Sta. Maria's ₱1,000,000 run on Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?

At any given time, one contestant is sitting in the "Money Chair" and accumulating money, while defending his/her portion against a series of challengers in head-to-head quiz bouts. Although commercials bill the winnings as ₱1 per second spent in the chair — or P36,000 per hour or P864,000 for every day — the rate is actually P1 per tenth of a second; winnings accumulate at a constant rate, even when bouts are not being played and during commercial breaks (prime time). Only the four contestants with the highest total winnings get to keep their money once the million seconds are up.

Each bout lasts for a set number of seconds at the studio contestant. In all bouts, both participants use keypads to secretly lock in their answers and have five seconds to do so after the question is asked.

I think okay iyon kasi admittedly, IBC-13 yung drama ant fantasy dahil ang laki ng advantage ng channels 2 and 7 because they have a large pool of talents. Iilan lang kami. And where do we get the other talents? There's also a question of patronage. Ang TV kasi ganoon, sanay ka na nanunuod sa 2, sa 7. So you have to create your market, and if you're gonna market yourself that way, sports, comedy, fantasy, action, adventure, drama, talk, variety at reality nasa upward trend pa rin, it might just work. # IBC-13 executive commends Drew Arellano, Anja Aguilar, Elmo Magalona and Robi Domingo

The impressive performance of Anja Aguilar's reality talent show Born to be a Superstar has bolstered the appeal of other IBC-13 shows, like Drew Arellano's game show The Million Second Quiz, Elmo Magalona's sing-along karaoke game show Killer Karaoke and Robi Domingo's game show Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? helped bring up the TV ratings of Channel 13. Both top-rated primetime programs will be extended, reveals IBC Entertainment TV Head Laurenti Dyogi.

The network war rages on ABS-CBN 2 and GMA 7. If IBC-13 plays its cards right, with the solid backing of the chairman Eric Canoy and president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, we might see the day that the fight for network supremacy will dominated by the Kapamilya and Kapuso channels. We make sure, IBC-13 is making its presence felt—and time may come that Channel 13 will be able to hold its own against the giants.

This early though IBC-13 is already showing muscle based on the ratings of its weekend shows. In August 8-17, 2014, based on the survey of Kantar Media ratings, it showed IBC-13 doing good on the 4 p.m. to the 2 a.m. time slot, as IBC-13 became the third most watched network that week.

It garnered a rating of 36.9% audience higher which is higher than ABS-CBN with 50.7%, while GMA 7 took the top spot with 43.8% audience share.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13's primetime triumvirate of The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? was the favored viewing fare that night, getting high audience share compared to the shows of the Kapuso and Kapamilya networks.

The success of the reality talent show Born to be a Superstar could have been more timely. Earning the lion's share of the credit is singer-actress-host Anja Aguilar, whose hard work and dedication, along with the programs's staff and crew, helped propel Born to be a Superstar to the top of the TV rating contest.

"You're helping make our job a lot easier," IBC Entertainment TV head Laurenti Dyogi recalled telling Anja backstage of performances of music.

Entering its 54th year since the network's overall image of the government-sequestered television and radio networkIBC-13, the Eric Canoy-owned station has steadily climed the ratings ladder, thanks mainly to an aggressive campaign anchored on its objective of offering alternative and innovative shows in the usual menu being offered by the two dominating giant networks—ABS-CBN and GMA-7 that produces local shows.

"When we relaunched as a station, ang pinaka-goal kasi is to parang bawat gabi, bago. There's something new every day. Which runs counter to the teleserye mentality na it's the same every day. Kasi, IBC-13 is here to offer variety and choice to the viewers, 'yon priority namin," Dyogi explained to the entertainment press in a recent conversation held at Cravings restaurant, Shangri-La Plaza Mall in Mandaluyong City.

With the new slogan Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, IBC-13 ties up with the Malaysian local company to give a well-rounded and state-of-the-art shows to the Filipino worldwide. With Global IBC, IBC-13 still lead by its chairman Eric Canoy, the president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa and executive vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz, will have its turn to showcase it hidden desire to compete with Channel 2 and 7 with its new format of shows, new line of celebrities and new type of news anchoring.

SING-ALONG WITH ANJA. Dyogi's backstage remark to Anja was both understated and well-founded. Last August 16 nd August 17, Born to be a Superstar broke the so-called longstanding "duopoly" by garnering a week's best 31.7% rating on Saturday and 30.4% rating on Sunday, the good notch the top spot.

The show's strong showing is indicative of the direction the network wants to pursue both in terms of marketing and viewership. Noong i-launch ang The Kapinoy network for 54 years, ang tina-target nila is to be the number 3 TV station in the Philippines .Ngayon ano na ang tina-target nila?

"May team din ako and minu-monitor din namin to make sure na kumakagat pa nga rin sa masa," said Dyogi. He added: "And so far, it's very successful like it hit 45 audience share last weekend."

As for Anja's status as Born to be a Superstar's host, Jasper assured the viewers that will continue to headline the program, this despite his other commitments.

"We're very thankful to our viewers. Without them, we wouldn't be where we are right now. Our weekend is one of our strongest and highest ratings as wekk. It's one of our strongholds. Panalo Weekend also starts on Saturday with the NBA and PBA basketball, Ultraman Tiga, ONE FC, La Teniente, Maya Loves Sir Chief, The Million Second Quiz, Sandy's Romance, Born to be a Superstar, Happy TODAS and Viva Box Office, and Sunday nights with PBAgames, Seeing Stars Tonight, Killer Karaoke, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Born to be a Superstar, Dingdong n' Lani and Sunday Sinemaks are good primetime programming.

On weeknights, we will do the Japanese anime Ghost Fighter, Catch Me Fall in Love, a trend-setting fantasy series for the children's crocodile adventurserye Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo, the princess fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl and the action-packed superserye Voltron Man, and the longesy-running and top-rating teleserye Your Heart, My Love. TreseBella's primetime ratings with the Korean drama I Need Romance 3, the popular record-breaking telenovela Two Sides of Ana and the Taiwanese drama Fall in Love with Me leading the way. Other primetime shows include Viva Cine Idols on Monday, Shake, Rattle and Roll and DMZ-TV on Tuesday, Sic O'Clock News Naman and Iskul Bukol Men on Thursday, and PBA on Wednesday and Friday.

"Anja has been very supportive for The Kapinoy Network," said Dyogi. "Nagka-trade screening kami sa mga ad agencies and he was there to host, sing and dance it."

But if indeed Willie's game show gets the go-signal for airing. If it airs on primetime as planned, it might prompt Channels 2 and 7 to come up with a program of a similar format, especially if Willie's game show will get a rousing reception from the viewers.

MORE FRANCHISE SHOWS. The reality show *Born to be a Superstar'*s accomplishment has consequently boosted the network's other offering, prompting Dyogi to acknowledge the young diva princess Anja's show as "clearly the number one program we have right now."

One of the beneficiaries of the singing-reality show *Born to be a Superstar'*s success in terms of figures is the actor Drew Arellano's The Million Second Quiz, the heir of Pinoy rap Elmo Maghalona's Killer Karaoke and Robi Domingo's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?.

Interestingly, game show of Drew, Elmo and Robi even surpassed *Born to be a Superstar'*s rating figures during its maiden season.

Dyogi explained that it took Anja's show some time before hitting a 30 percent audience share when it was first launched on September 30, 2012. Shows of Drew, Elmo and Robi, on the other hand, has raked in the mentioned figure right. "One good thing about franchises, may equity na. There's brand equity already so it's easier to sell in a way na kilalang-kilala na agad ng tao o ng viewers [ang show]."

You just have to nail down a good host na babagay dun sa franchise, it might prompt Channels 2 and 7 to come up with a program of a similar format.

Robi was the network's first choice to host the program. "Fortunately, he's a fans of the show so it made things a whole lot easier," revealed Dyogi, it might change the landscape of TV programming.

Channel 2 and GMA 7 should not be too complacent because the entry of The Kapinoy Network could really pose a serious threat to their supremacy in the network war. And if the sequestered TV station IBC-13 would make good on its promise of investing in state-of-art equipment and ensuring a good signal and reception in the provinces, it would certainly become a force to reckon with.

"Tapos when we did the pilot, dry run, he breezed through the rehearsals. Normally, matagal 'yan, mga couple of hours. Sabi nga nung ibang direktor, ang bilis. Kasi he [Elmo] watches the show, so alam niya kung paano dumiskarte and he's having fun, lalo na ngayon."

IBC-13 will extend The Million Second Quiz, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?—a clear indication of the show's success with the local viewing public. The accomplishment of the local version of the international popular game show has likewise encouraged the network to scout other titles open for licensing to fill up and further strengthen IBC-13's programming. "Franchising works depending how you handle it," Dyogi mentioned. "Depending how you adapt it to local television. Kasi hindi naman lahat ng franchise successful. Again, what's important is how you incorporate it to the local environment." "Well kami, the objective is still to be the solid number 3 player. If our viewership continues to grow, the rate of our growth is really accelerated. It depends yun sa pagtanggap ng mga viewers namin. And we've been positive about it from the start. Overall I hope that the programming continues to churn out solid and quality programs which would give compelling reasons for the viewers to switch to IBC-13.

That's our basic objective right now. It's still up to the viewers." Watch out for the announcements of audition dates and venues on IBC and in leading newspapers.

About the show Edit

The franchise of the phenomenal US show guarantees you a weekly dose of laughter as contestants attempt to sing while facing crazy distractions. Imagine singing while getting your body hair waxed, stepping on spiders and maggots, or walking through a cactus maze (with balloons stuck in your body). That's quite a challenge, but there's only one rule: "No matter what happens, do not stop singing!" The final showdown puts the top three contenders on a spinning disc, with the prize money increasing as the turntable speeds up and tilts. The last player standing wins the jackpot.

Under the direction of Bert de Leon, the local version is sure to create a new Filipino pastime: Singing the Killer Karaoke style. What challenges can Pinoy players take on? Which celebrities are adventurous enough to try the sing-and-play surprise?

Format Edit

Six different contestants appear in each show. They are separated into three preliminary rounds of two contestants, and each have approximately 90 seconds to sing their song. Contestants are introduced to the audience and told their challenge. Before every challenge, Elmo
Magalona tells the contestant: "No matter what happens, do not stop singing." The winner for each round is picked by the live studio audience via popular vote and is automatically advanced into the Killer Karaoke Final Showdown.

Challenges Edit

- Road To Nowhere The contestant "strolls down the catwalk" and steps into as many as six boxes under the walk containing various items and creatures, including ice water, fish guts, and maggots.
- Hair Raiser The contestant (usually male) sits back in a barber's chair and has various body hair removed by way of a strip wax treatment.
- Cactus Maze The contestant wears a velcro suit on which balloons are stuck. Then, he/she is given drunk (blurry vision) goggles to wear and advised to walk through a makeshift desert maze filled with cacti, on a trail that is clearly marked. As the singer walks through the maze, landslides may fall on them and may blow an air horn into the contestant's ears. At the end of the maze, there is a tree with money attached to it, however, unbeknownst to the contestant, the tree also has pythons on it, which reveals to the contestant by removing the goggles.

- Troubled Waters The contestant sits on a swing and gets dipped into ice-cold water with snakes, and sometimes other reptiles, dumped in.
- Tiny Dancer The contestant has to put their head in a hole while their hands and feet are controlled by others. Then, the controllers control their actions throughout the song. (Puts Food into Their Face, Breaking Concrete, etc.)
- Power Lunch The contestant tries to serve the dinner with shock collars and bracelets placed on his/her body. All of the food and drinks are served to Elmo Magalona in open glasses, bowls, or containers, making them easy to spill or dump on the stage. Ironically, when the food is served without it being spilled, Elmo Magalona usually does not eat it, and he just throws it behind the table onto the stage, or he will take one sip of the drink before throwing the entire glass behind him.

Final showdown Edit

The three preliminary round winners battle against each other for up to P10,000 in prize money while singing on the "World's Largest Turntable," a spinning disk approximately eight feet in diameter and decorated with a radiation warning symbol. The jackpot grows throughout the round; as time passes, the turntable speeds up and begins to tilt, and the jackpot grows at a faster rate.

The first two players to fall off win nothing; once the last player falls off, the jackpot stops building and he/she wins it. If the player can stay on the turntable for 90 seconds, he/she wins the full P10,000.

June 23, 2014

Heir fo Pinoy rap Elmo Magalona transfer to IBC-13 as he inks a contract to be the host of Killer Karaoke, the Kapinoy Network's franchise of the hit US show.

Popularly known as Elmo M, Elmo Magalona honed his comedy skills and talent with IBC-13 as one of the original members of the all-male gag show Happy TODAS. Back when Happy TODAS now airing the boys night out, Elmo and his TODAS Boys (led by Keempee de Leon who have also signed to IBC-13 and became bona fide Kapinoy talents with the radio DJ Sam YG, the amir of rap Carlos Agassi, Jimmy Muna and the stand-up comedian Victor Anastacio) gave viewers a weekly dose of fun and laughter.

Elmo's comic ingenuity has popularized a number of hilarious characters through various shows and movies he has done and are still doing to this day. He is undeniably one of the most versatile actors and impersonators of this generation. Further, he has also made his mark in the music industry where he also excelled as a rapper, singer, and composer on the Pinoy hip-hop, R&B and rock scene. Killer Karaoke is a big hit in the UK, USA, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, Portugal, Thailand, Argentina, Peru, Brazil, Ecuador, and Mexico. The local version was also acquired by IBC-13 and has been airing every Saturday since July 5. It has been well-received by viewers and IBC-13 now gives the thrilling Karaoke challenge a Pinoy twist. Premiering on November 16 at 9:00pm under the direction of Bert de Leon, Killer

Karaoke promises to be wackier as Elmo adds his own brand of comedy to the already hilarious format as Pinoys now get to participate and try out the game show's nerve-wracking challenges.

June 29, 2014

A new game show is on its way to The Kapinoy Network. The Heir of Rap Elmo Magalona is set to host the newest singing game show on IBC-13–Killer Karaoke–IBC-13's latest venture into the game show genre and the localized version of the hit US game show which will premiere on July 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Killer Karaoke premieres July 5 on IBC

July 3, 2014

MANILA, Philippines - The heir of rap Elmo Magalona is now set to host Killer Karaoke, the local version of the hit US show, premiering on July 5 at 7:30 p.m. as part of the Kapinoy Network's Panalo Weekend campaign.

The franchise of the phenomenal US show guarantees you a weekly dose of laughter as contestants attempt to sing while facing crazy distractions. Imagine singing while getting your body hair waxed, stepping on spiders and maggots, or walking through a cactus maze (with balloons stuck in your body). That's quite a challenge, but there's only one rule: "No matter what happens, do not stop singing!"

The final showdown puts the top three contenders on a spinning disc, with the prize money increasing as the turntable speeds up and tilts. The last player standing wins the jackpot.

The game show was a success that the Killer Karaoke craze has reached the UK, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, Portugal, Thailand, Argentina, Peru, Brazil, Ecuador, Mexico and now here the Philippines.

This Saturday, Elmo Magalona, taped the pilot episode with a six celebrities will try to carry a tune without screaming too much in fear of the challenges: the actress Cara Eriguel, sexy star Yam Concepcion, stand-up comedian Victor Anastacio, Kapinoy comedian Ramon Bautista of Sic O'Clock News Naman at the same time singing Angelina by PSY, the TV actor DJ Durano and the sexiest star Coleen Garcia.

Under the direction of Bert de Leon, the local version is sure to create a new Filipino pastime: Singing the Killer Karaoke style. What challenges can Pinoy players take on? Which celebrities are adventurous enough to try the sing-and-play surprise?

Killer Karaoke premiere on Saturdays (July 5) at 7:30 p.m. right after TreseBella's action-packed Mexicanovela La Teniente on IBC-13's Panalo Weekend.

IBC-13 now joins the battle of the game shows

ARELLANO host of The Million Second Quiz, MAGALONA host of Killer Karaoke and DOMINGO host of Who Wants to be a Millionaire?

Canoy admitted that his network IBC-13 remains to be the number three station in the Philippines. Well, they be joining the network war focusing on the quality of their programs, and converging their different media platforms, with focus on online since "movie and TV series are now enjoyed on computers," "TV sets are converted into Internet devices," and "custom radio music is streamed to mobile phones, and computers."

The Kapinoy Network IBC-13 has now joined the fray. The network has acquired what it called "the three kings" of primetime game shows. Starting this Saturday nights, the new season of The Million Second Quiz, hosted by Drew Arellano, will at 6 to 6:45 p.m., followed at 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. by the new game show Killer Karaoke, hosted by Elmo Magalona. The two shows will air on Saturday nights. Then on Sunday, the hour-long new season of Who Wants to be a Millionaire? will be hosted by Robi Domingo. It will be telecast weekly.

Of the three, Elmo's hosting sting on Killer Karaoke mark his homecoming of sorts to IBC-13, where he bannered the top-rating gag show Happy TODAS. That's why he also became the top choice of the network executives to host one of its three gme shows to be launched this month. Arellano, on the other hand, who is hosting the throwback show Retro TV and now is IBC's game show, which can give the game shows in rival networks tough competition. Domingo will doing the project of IBC 13 to have hosting the primetime quiz show as well.

As a parting shot, Laurenti Dyogi, Head of IBC Entertainment TV, had this to say during the press con: "And so, korek kayo d' yan, game na kami, many want to be millionaires in the battle of the game shows." It's the season of game shows on Philippine TV. That should give the Filipino audience a reasn to be "superstar."

IBC-13's competition offers prizes as high as P2 million (P1 million in the case) when the network is hoping that Kapinoy viewers will be attracted by the interesting formats of its game shows. Besides, most of the time, they going to head to head with the other networks.

'Killer Karaoke' make it to Top 25

Juyl 11, 2014

The karaoke game show like no other, IBC-13's newest musical game show Killer Karaoke debuts to the Top 25 evening programs in Mega Manila last July 5, Saturday, according to Kantar Media/TNS Philippines.

The same studio that the Kapinoy Network recently worked with in locally franchising the toprating show are The Million Second Quiz from NBC Universal, Born to be a Superstar and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? both from Endemol International in the United States.

The local version of the hit US show Killer Karaoke advanced to the Top 9 spot last Saturday, based on Kantar Media, while remaining in the top 25 rank in the national level. Killer Karaoke garnered a 26.4% rating opposide TreseBella's La Teniente with 25.8% compared to ABS-CBN's The Voice Kids (34.8%) and Marian (17.6%) serves the domination. Other Kapinoy shows, Viva Box Office (I Love You Sabado) (19.8%), The Million Second Quiz (29.5%), Sandy's Romance (31.7%), Born to be a Superstar (33.1%), top-rated sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief (32.7%), ONE FC (18.1%) and the male gag show Happy TODAS (24.1%) landed in the Top 25 evening programs in the nationwide phenomenon. Hosted by the heir of Pinoy rap Elmo Magalona, Killer Karaoke with its unique and exciting concept becoming a weekend favorite thanks to its hilarious format. Can you sing while being dunked in a tank full of snakes? Or while holding out your hands to crawling spiders and maggots?

These are just some of the crazy challenges contestants have to face to make it to the final showdown, the spinning turntable, where the last one standing (and singing) takes home the jackpot.

This Saturday at 7:30 p.m. on IBC-13, six celebrities will try to carry a tune without screaming too much in fear of the challenges:the rapper Young JV, the sexy star Maui Taylor, the ultimate leading men Marlo Mortel, the teen darling Liza Soberano, Paul Jake Castillo and Abigail Macapagal.

The Million Second Quiz New Timeslot on August 10

The new show every Saturday at 7:15 p.m. is co-produced by NBC Universal, the same people behind the shows like Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? It will be pitted vs. Wansapanataym(ABS-CBN) and Marian (GMA). Good luck to Drew.

If I were IBC-13, air na lang ako ng concerts at events pag weekend tutal SMART Araneta is part of their conglomerate. Buy broadcasting rights sa mga concerts na di produced ng ABS at GMA (kung meron man) tpus ibenta nila sa mga sponsor ng concert ung airtime ng commercials.

The audience is already saturated with so many programs, that there is room for experimental shows lalo na sa pangatlong network. Canned concerts and foreign shows will be a good short term solution kung totoo man na magiging sports channel na sila. Tsaka na sila mag produce kpag significant na ung overall ratings nila,sa ngaun anything they produce lang.

At least, IBC-13 is making some improvements in its weekend programming by adding three more game shows and one reality shows, including two tokusatsu series, Mexicanovelas, drama anthology, two comedy series (sitcoms and gag shows), MMA fighter, showbiz talk shows, variety shows and two of Viva Tagalog movies. It would be better if the PBA games are aired from Saturday 2:30-4 pm and Sunday 4-6 pm.

Bringing foreign shows back especially that KPop shows or AsiaNovelas and telenovelas (Two Sides of Ana) are still on the air. It's not colonial mentality when the goal is to help self produced show gain exposure. Its a lot cheaper to have these shows so they can put more money in producing quality programs. Kapag marami na silang viewers then they can lessen these shows and produce more. Nanghihinayang lng tlga ako sa pagod ng production, tpus walang mapapanuod.

IBC-13 takes the 'third force' role

August 17, 2014

MANILA, Philippines—Three top officers of IBC-13 believe that the full-fledgling network has taken over the role of "third force" in Philippine television.

Saying they are "challenging the duopoly of the giant TV stations in Philippine television" as he announced their plan for IBC broadcast network, which he bought for P4 billion or roughly $85.1 million. By "duopoly," he was referring to ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

Eric Canoy, chairman of IBC-13, Boots Anson-Roa, president and CEO of IBC-13 and Lito Ocampo Cruz, executive vice-president of IBC, with Laurenti Dyogi, the newest head of IBC Entertainment TV and Jasper Evangelista, which is in charge of programming and sales, are bullish about the prospects as The Kapinoy Network celebrates its 54th year this month, has been offering stars (and several TV executives) lucrative deals to help the fledgling network move up in the ratings game.

"We are beating ABS-CBN 2 and GMA-7 in the same time slots. We are No.1 in morning [with cartoons] and on high-rating primetime," Canoy told Inquirer Entertainment. Cabiy said IBC's ratings started to improve following the launch of new shows at the primetime slot, where ad minutes are most profitable.

He added that IBC-13 offers a solid weekend prime-time lineup, led by The Million Second Quiz (Saturday), Killer Karaoke (Sunday), Who Wants to be a Millionaire? (Sunday) and Born to be a Superstar (Saturday and Sunday). "Being a third force was our goal when we launched IBC-13 last year," said Dyogi. "For the longest time, channels 2 and 7 really put up a good fight, considered part of competitive set of 2 and 7."

"Born to be a Superstar is the No.1 show [every Saturday and Sunday] and it proves that 2 and 7 can be beaten," Canoy noted will now established the singing superstars are Joshua Cadelina, Cayleen Villamor, Veejay Aragon, Anne Bernardo, Ronald Humarang, Shanne Velasco and Arvin Ventanilla.

"I understand that 2 and 7 now have their own versions of Born to be a Superstar franchise," Cojuangco continued. "This industry is full of copycats. The giants keep copying each other. They're bereft of original ideas." IBC-13 has put together a counter-strategy as well, to protect the gains of Born to be a Superstar.

"We are coming up with innovations within the show, like the People's Choice Awards," Dyogi said. "We're now also relaunching new primetime programs—the million-peso prize game show The Million Second Quiz, hosted by Drew Arellano; the original and longest-running singing-reality show show Born to be a Superstar, which is hosted by Anja Aguilar; the musical game show Killer Karaoke, hosted by Elmo Magalona; and the longest-running game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, hosted by Robi Domingo to capitalize on its success."

As long as Canoy is concerned, it's "mission accomplished" for The Kapinoy Network. "We are No.3. We are happy where we are. We are not after the general market ... we're into niche marketing. We've captured the youth segment, ages 12 and below and 15 to 35."

Youth is a fickle demographic, Canoy conceded. "That's why we have a research group that's in bed with the viewers, so to speak. We conduct regular focus group discussions with them."

The quest to know the audience has reached Cyberspace, too. "We have an online forum and we take in all the comments, big or small," Canoy explained. Canoy pointed out that the youth sector is "the bigger, more exciting chunk of the audience. Other things vie for their attention, like computers, cell phones, gimiks ... that's why if you could hold on to them, your program must really be good." The day will come when we can watch The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, PBA, NBA, ONE FC and other Kapinoy shows on mobile phones, computers, and other gadgets.

Channel 13 ratings already on the rise when Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap sitcom stars

August 23, 2014

Is Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap starting the sitcom why IBC-13 now gets higher ratings?

This is allegedly the reason why they like? The truth is IBC-13 is already rating well as evidenced by the good ratings garnered by such shows as Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap's top-rating sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, Drew Arellano's The Million Second Quiz, Nadine Lustre's drama anthology Sandy's Romance, young diva princess Anja Aguilar's trendsetting Born to be a Superstar, the all-male comedy gag show for a boys night out Happy TODAS, Joey Marquez's showbiz talk show Seeing Stars Tonight, Elmo Magalona's sing-along videoke game show Killer Karaoke, Robi Domingo's popular and top-rated game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? and Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha's Dingdong n' Lani. It widened the audience base and also helped IBC-13's weeknight ratings that paved the way for now on its actionserye Hitman, cthe rocoserye Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo, the fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl, the action-packed superserye Voltron Man, and the top-rating dramaserye Your Heart, My Love.

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? (Philippine game show)

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? (also known as WW2BAM) is a Filipino game show based on the original British format of Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? The main goal of the game is to win 2 million Philippine pesos (earlier 1 million) by answering 15multiple-

Gameplay Edit

Originally, the contestants must first play a preliminary round, called "Fastest Finger First", where they are all given a question and four answers from the host and are asked to put those four answers into a particular order. The contestant who does so correctly and in the fastest time goes on to sit in a chair in the center of the set, known as the "Hot Seat," and play for the prize. Once in the Hot Seat, the contestant is asked increasingly difficult general knowledge questions by the host. Questions are multiple choice: four possible answers are given (labeled A, B, C, and D), and the contestant must choose the correct one. Upon answering a question correctly, the contestant wins a certain amount of money. After questions, the host will ask the contestant "is that your final answer?" When a contestant says "final" in conjunction with one of the answers, it is official, and cannot be changed. For the first few questions, there is a possibility for the contestant to leave with no money if they fail to reach the guaranteed amounts.

IBC Version Edit

The first version of the show was hosted by actor Christopher de Leon. The first season of the original Millionaire, which began on November 20, 2000, had its 15th question prize of P1,000,000. In 2001, the final question's prize was doubled to P2,000,000.

The show lost its popularity soon after its original studio in Parañaque City (Viva Television Studio, the same one used by the Philippine version of The Weakest Link) was destroyed by a fire, and after the show moved to Riverbanks Center in Marikina City. # Millionaire is back on Viva-TV

MANILA, Philippines - The millionaire fever is back on Viva-TV. Beginning on February 25, 2012, Saturday, the world's most popular high-rating game show is taking the Philippines by storm once more.

Hosted by Christopher de Leon, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" is back with the new season loaded with exciting additional lifelines, updated set technology, and the chance for a lucky player to become 2 million pesos richer. The Viva-TV production is the Philippine franchise of the British quiz show of the same title. On Saturday nights at 8:30 p.m. slots against with ABS-CBN's TV Patrol Weekend and GMA's Kapuso Mo, Jessica Soho.

"As we enter our new season, we promise the viewers that we double the fun, excitement, and tension in the seventh season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" That's our final answer," said De Leon. To date, the game show has already given away more than P13 million in total prizes in its six-season run.

For the initial episodes of the all-new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" smart kids could be a few questions away to become young millionaires as the tension-filled game show features honor students recommended by their schools to get this once-in-a-lifetime chance to win P2 million. On top of the jackpot that will be split to the kid player and his/her respective school, win or lose, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" will award all the kid players college scholarships.

The overnight-millionaire dream is alive once again as Filipinos take their chance to defy the pressure from the hot seat for P2 million jackpot. To help the player along the way, the hot seat contestant can use lifelines available. Aside from pre-existing 50-50 and Phone-A-Friend lifelines, the new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" introduces added lifelines that will make the game even more exciting: People Speak and Switch. Through People Speak, the studio audience who answers correctly will have the chance to win up to P20,000. The Switch lifeline, meanwhile, entitles the contestant to switch out the original question for another question of the same value.

The game show that pioneered the craze over game shows on Philippine TV after returned in May 2009 via its new home TV5 and return on IBC-13 in February 25, 2012. For the last decade since its debut in the UK in 1998, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" has dominated the ratings game around the globe with international versions spawning in over a hundred countries, including its top-rating Philippine version.

While the elimination of players in the past was through Fastest Finger First round done in the studio, hot seat hopefuls this time will be selected through mall auditions. To register in the mall editions, text MILLION (space) Name/Age/Gender/Address to 2256 (Example: MILLION Mark Sy/21/M/12 Leo St., Quezon City). Each text costs P2.50 for Smart and Globe subscribers, and P2.00 for Sun Cellular subscribers.

Don't miss the new season of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?" starting on February 25, Saturday, 8:30pm on Viva-TV on IBC.

Viva-TV shows topped Sunday primetime on September 30 at IBC

September 29, 2012

Boosted by the formidable program Sunday hit shows lineup of popstar Anja Aguilar's Dear Heart (2:30pm), 2NE1-TV(3:30pm), PBA 2012 Season (4:00pm), Born to be a Star (8:30pm), Christopher de Leon's Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? (9:30pm) and action-packed Sinemaks (10:30pm), IBC-13's Sunday primetime block as the Kapinoynetwork continues to raise the bar in offering shows that highlight entertainment Pinoy pride as teen drama, sports, reality, games and action movies.

Starting 2:30pm on September 30, kicks off with teen drama anthology series Dear Heart starring newest popstar Anja Aguilar in a youthful tale for the singing champion, with director Monti Parungao.

Afterwards at 4:00pm, the PBA 2013 Season kicks off in spectacular fashion today at Smart Araneta Coliseum. And as usual, Filipino basketball fans can expect yet another thrilling season as the league's 10 teams battle for supremacy, with the opening ceremonies airing live on IBC-13 hopes to attract more fans with this season's exciting line up of teams and players. The league returns from a season marked by box-office receipts and high viewership ratings. This coming season, the PBA encourages even more game aficionados to support their teams by attending live games or watching them at home as well as topped with live performances from Viva stars during halttime Sunday. The league envisions more vocal fans rooting for their favorite teams and players in line with its slogan, "Kampihan Na!" like all PBA fans, we are very excited to start a brand new PBA season.

Meanwhile at 8:30pm, will relaunch the new reality singing search show Born to be a Star. One of the big deals related to the show is the fact that its host is singing star Anja Aguilar, who got her own start in showbiz years ago when she topped another TV talent show Little Big Star on ABS-CBN. Another big deal is the fact that, on "Star for A Night," contestants won't simply open their mouths, take a deep breath, and sing. The program will showcase each talent in the best possible light, with costuming, styling, coaching, production values-and, perhaps best of all, detailed critiques of their performance by the show's judges. This is a welcome touch that should add a lot of polish and pizzaz to the contestants' numbers, so that both judges and viewers can more productively evaluate their star potential. We hope that singing stars will really emerge from among the contestants who join this contest. We have other reality talent-search shows on the tube but, for some reason, practically none of their winners have hit it big as singers in recent years, for some of the young talents that will be discovered on IBC's new reality talent show. The prize is a music recording contract with Vicor Music and Viva Records. Crowd favorite game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? at 9:30pm, based on the original British format, contestants from all over the Philippines will compete to get on the "hot seat." All they need to do is answer 15 multiple-choice questions correctly to bag the seven-digit jackpot. WWTBAM is a general knowledge game show full of challenges and suspense on the road to its PhP2 Million cash prize. is hosted by Christopher de Leon quick wit and funny antics will once again make the program entertaining for the entire family. Now on its ninth season, the first full month run will feature smart and charming kids eager to claim victory.

Then at 10:30pm, the action-packed Sinemaks as the exciting Viva action blockbuster movies offering viewers featuring local action movies are Hitman starring Sam Pinto, Minsan Pa starring Sharon Cuneta and PFJ, Ben Delubyo starring Bong Revilla, Hindi Pa Tapos ang Laban starring FPJ and Esend ng Tondo starring FPJ on September this month.

Catch every Sunday with Dear Heart at 2:30pm, 2NE1-TV at 3:30pm, *The PBA 2013*Season at 4:00pm, Born to be a Star at 8:30pm, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? at 9:30pm, and Sinemaks at 10:30pm only on the Kapinoynetwork IBC-13.

Viva-TV now bringing telenovelas for Pinoy viewers

October 8, 2012

The television network owned by Eric Canoy is gearing up for competition, lining up new shows in its prime-time slots from the bandwagon of fantasy and soap operas.

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation Channel 13 (IBC-13), which airs Kapinoy programming, now trailing behind GMA Network, Inc. and ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp., IBC has a blocktimer with Viva Entertainment signed a contract with Televisa to air a new Mexican soap operas, bring the Philippines a taste of Mexican telenovelas, Mexico's movie and television industry at the time. Moreover, the new president, Noynoy Aquino III, may try to limit government-controlled stations like IBC-13 in their purchases of Kapinoy programs expected to be hit by the peso's decline to entertainment capital has in store for the global TV market.

With the foreign exchange uncertainties and with increasing competition for imports from other stations, IBC-13 has taken steps to pursue market-driven strategies by integrating programming, merchandising and sales. Moving to test its acceptability in Asia, offered Maria Isabel and other soap operas to giant TV networks in the Philippines for free on condition the local networks would provide free air time and dubbing costs.

The popular telenovelas of Viva-TV such as Carita de Angel, Por Un Beso, Siempre Te Amare, Maria del Cielo and Natalia. Now, will bring back a new popular hit Mexico telenovelas for the first time in fans if the new genre with a new popular telenovela like María Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor will premiere last October 1. The partnership with Viva Entertainment is on IBC-13 to start a totally new trend in television with the introduction of the Mexican program," Mr. Rosario said.

Televisa secured the rights to bring the series to the Philippines, while IBC-13 will market the program. Under the deal, the two companies will share in the advertising revenues. Rosario revealed that IBC-13 was positioning itself as a Kapinoy program provider that could provide a wide range of programs, not only telenovelas and asianovelas but also television programs had the local telecast of a new and explosive drama series.

Every weeknights at 2:30 p.m., Mar de Amor, a romantic-drama for Estrella (Zuria Vega), life is like the sea, full of danger and evil. But the sea also fights and moves forward. In her fondness for study, Estrella learned to read, and through books knew love. She begins to fall for the famous writer, Victor Manuel Galindez (Mario Cimarro). With its stars like Zuria Vega as For Estrella and Mario Cimarro as Victor Manuel Galindez.

Teresa every weeknights at 6 p.m., starring Angelique Boyer as Teresa Chávez Aguirre with Aarón Díaz, Sebastián Rulli, and Ana Brenda Contreras in co-starring roles. Teresa is a remake of the 1959 telenovela of the same name starring Maricruz Olivier. Another version was also made in 1989 with the same name starring Salma Hayek. Teresa Chavez is a young woman dominated by her greed.

From Monday to Friday at 10 p.m., Fernando Carrillo is back with new telenovela María Isabel. María Isabel (Adela Noriega) is a beautiful, kind-hearted young woman of indigenous descent, faced with the responsibility of raising Rosa Isela, the orphaned daughter of her only true friend who has died. She finds employment at the home of Ricardo Mendiola (Fernando Carrillo), a wealthy widower hopes to visit the Philippines again and do films and soap, and also even recording.Well, Fernando Carillo has joined Viva Artists Agency for commitments in the Philippines, to be personally managed by big boss Vic del Rosario and music producer-promoter Christian de Walden. The three met and signed the contract in Los Angeles, California, where Señor Carillo is based. He makes movies and continues to appear on television in Hollywood. He has many fond memories of the Philippines, having visited Manila in the '90s and keeping in touch with his fans, this telenovela is expected to entertain the Filipino viewers will be shown on weeknights at 2 p.m.

IBC-13, because most of the good Viva-TV's Tagalized foreign shows are there, like animated series Winx Club, Pop Pixie and Barbie, anime series like Crayon Shin Chan, Cyborg Kurochan, Kirarin, new Korean reality show like K-Pop Star Hunt and 2NE1-TV, Korean asianovelas Romance Town, I Need Romance, Wife Returns, etc, from the middle class as well. The show will target the B, C and D markets. Primetime soaps teleserye including Esperanza and 5 Girls and Daddy and teen drama anthology Dear Heart have the biggest potential in the international market at this point, he said. That situation, plus the strengthening hold of local programs on Filipino viewers, makes it difficult for IBC-13 to compete with giant networks.

This is something new, especially since Filipino viewers are so used to watching soap series in Mexican, Korean and Taiwanese, he said. Mr. Rosario said the partnership is unfazed with competition as wants to start a new trend in television programming. Despite a decline in telenovela viewership, María Isabel, Teresa and Mar de Amor, now is No.1 in the ratings and has generated more advertising in its first week. I like Filipino, Mexican and Korean soap operas that are shown from other networks.

Eventually Viva-TV became a huge success on IBC, Televisa plans to import a romance telenovela from Mexico once again, it has been the Asian market of the Mexican soap operas. IBC-13, a relatively new player in the local television industry has the No.3 spot in terms of ratings, trailing behind the two other giant networks. Their new cited phenomenal Winx Club, Pop Pixie, I Need Romance, 2NE1-TV, K-Pop Star Hunt and Wife Returns as the popularViva-TV shows on IBC-13. The right to air the Southeast Asian Games is the most sports coverage.

Fifty Third year high for IBC

February 11, 2013

Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation or IBC, as it is more popularly known to millions of listeners and viewers of its Kapinoy programs celebrates its 53rd anniversary as sequestered by the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) for new campaign: Bawat Pinoy, Kapinoy! Viewed from more aggressive, such increase in number indicates growth in listenership and viewership.

Despite the network war in behind the two dominant players in the Philippine television industry, a grand celebration awaits as the sequestered radio and television network IBC-13, the country's undisputed No.3 station behind ABS-CBN and GMA-7, celebrates on its 53rd anniversary in 2013 grown into a phenomenon in the industry. Since its inception in 1960, it has been a poineer in broadcasting satellite as well as top-rating hit programming. IBC has all provincial TV stations from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao over the archipelago from IBC-13 Manila, IBC-13 Baguio,IBC-6 Mountain Province, IBC-2 Roxas, IBC-12 Iloilo, IBC-13 Cebu, IBC-13 Zamboanga, IBC-10 Cagayan de Oro, IBC-13 Davao, IBC-10 General Santos, among others and radio stations from AM band radio Radyo Budyongfrom DYBQ Iloilo, DYJJ Roxas and DYRG Kalibo, Aklan, and the #1 urban music and danze mix FM radio stationiDMZ 891 in Mega Manila.

On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively TV station, IBC 13 reached greater heights and became the country's toprating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a firsts in the broadcasting industry.

Remember as IBC's old newscst such as Newsday on 13, Newsworld at 13, Balita sa IBC, Balita Huling Ulat, IBC News 5 O'clock Report and The 11 O'clock News.

As the network who brought us such as classic TV shows like showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 like comedy Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, TODAS, Sic O'Clock News, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True, series Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Pinoy Thrillers, Lucky 13, Ula ang Batang Gubat, Kulit Bulilit, tokusatsu and anime series like Bioman, Maskman, Shaider, Damos and Battle Ball, among others, IBC aims to deliver more quality programming that is basically on the masses.

Now, it is the local home network of the newest Viva-TV programming on IBC: Winx Club, Pop Pixie, NBA, PBA, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link, Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Dear Heart, Rosalinda, Teresa, My Daughter the Flower, Petra's Panniest, Born to be a Star, Akazukin Cha Cha, Cyborg Kurochan, Crayon Shin Chan, among others. Just recently, three of Viva-TV's primetime shows on IBC won four of the highest awards given by a PMPC Star Awards and Anak TV Seal Awardee. Winx Club, becoming the Best Animated TV Series award of Anak TV and Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, garnred the two top awards: Best TV Game Show and Best Game Show Host in a TV Game Shows for Christopher de Leon and Cristine Reyes for Esperanza won Best Actress in a Best Teleserye. The Weakest Link also won Best Game Show in yar's Anak TV Awards. One of the most consistent nomenies and winners, almost every year, is the phenomenal, talent search, Born to be a Star.

Boots Anson-Roa, president and CEO will maintain its present programming. IBC 13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past. Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

IBC's strength for Viva-TV programs based on Viva programs and PBA games on priemtime programming materials which was capceptualized in 1996 and 1999. The programming scheme proved to be a resounding success which become a major marketing in attractive advertisers. Top stars and talents as these are mostly under exclusive contracts with the dominant networks. Those that are free (from the movie outfits) charge of talent fees that recovered through TV broadcast, she says concern is to maintain the viability and competitiveness of the network in preparation for its privatization. This is achieved by providing for the personnel welfare and benefits and by renewed programming thrust which would cater to the biggest sector of society, the youth. A new board of directors has come in, appointed by President Noynoy Aquino, with Eric Canoy, who presides over Radio Mindanao Network as newest chairman, and Lito Ocampo Cruz, former VP of E! Entertainment TV Philippines for RMN, as network vice-president.

Viva Entertainment bought IBC's primetime block from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight, provided homegrown programming, packaged it and promoted it. Programming rode on the popularity of basketball tournaments of the NBA and PBA, as well as new Viva-TV program genres from movie, cartoons, anime, dramas, reality, comedy, game shows, telenovelas, asianovelas and sports.

It's roster of Kapinoy programming have enjoying some of the new highest recorded primetime TV ratings is led by Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, the number one phenomenal game show hosted by Christopher de Leon. The weeknights reportedly beat a flagship news programs Juan dela Cruz (Ch. 2) is 24.2% and Indio (Ch. 7) which only got 22.3%, in ratings, a triumph for Viva-TV, which is a primetime block of IBC-13 started in 2011. The network slowly changed the landscape of primetime by offering intelligent, entertaining and broadcasting concepts. While IBC-13 now ranks third on some of its network talents, the government-owned network maintains is including competition, helping the industry grow while helping talents make a name for themselves intends to increase its cultural and current events programming. This concept is already a welcome kids for fans who want to see their favorite animation series with, in innovative programming of their usual, Rainbow S.r.I will producing Winx Club, a phenomenal animated series, is now a primetime slot at 6:00pm. Despite the competition, as the characters are Stella, Aisha, Musa, Tecna, Flora and Bloom as a phenomenal ratings of 25.6% in dominated of teleserye like Kahit Konting Pagtingin of ABS-CBN (21.3%) and Forever of GMA (10.7%).

IBC is doing otherwise, build up its own network stars. Honing talents takes time and money, a business reality IBC-13 is now a position much in its first year of digital broadcasting. At the IBC headquarters at Broadcast City in Diliman, Lito detailed the future of the network and what great things this new board has in store. "The Positive feedbacks, all resulting from that of IBC-13's consistent ratings that remarkably hit as high as 25 percent in the first quarter of 2013, and the strongly increasing patronage from viewers, adventisers and talents are encouraging indicators that IBC-13has effectively appealed to the Pinoy's of Filipino-like culture. It is breaking from the formulaic and identical (mainstream) TV program concept," said Eric Canoy, chairman of IBC.

This is also why the sequestered TV station, despite the ratings factor gained by its superstar-studded weekend programs that includes talent search Born to be a Star, which recently featured rising superstars of contestants like judges of Richard Yap and Jodi Sta. Maria as Anja Aguilar will host; Petra's Panniest and Cyborg Kurochan, is taking time to develop new prospects they will best of its audiences.

"We're setting new milestones each week, as evidenced by the strong uptrend in all our day parts. AGB-NMR's overnight individual audience share reports showed Who Wants to be a Millionaire? posing an unprecedented 43.6 percent audience response, which amounts to about five million viewers tuning in weekly, while another game show The Weakest Link with Richard Yap posted a 25.5% high in audience share dominated Ina, Kapatid, Anak (Ch. 2) (28.2%) and Pahiram ng Sandali (Ch. 7) (22.7%), followed by the teleserye like Cristine Reyes' Esperanza now has 30.5% than Temptation of Wife (GMA) got 24.7% and Kailangan Ko'y Ikaw (ABS-CBN) which only has 19.2% to be followed by 5 Girls and Daddy starring AJ Muhlach and Xyriel Manabat got 25.6% then following a telenovela Rosalinda starring Thalia and Fernando Carrilllo now has a 23.4%. All these weeknight programs show an upwards trend in the ratings, beating other shows within its timeslot and inching its way toward number one," revealed Canoy.

Television viewing, at least in IBC's cause, is certainly getting exciting on the local front as the station emerges as a major player that. "IBC-13 brings into the national TV program the best in Filipino cultural. We are in the process of developing a new name that best defines personality," Canoy said.

Viva-TV rises to alter the Pinoy's viewing habits on The Kapinoy Network, as proven by the network's strong showing in the Mega Manila ratings survey.

Viva Communcations, Inc. noted that The Kapinoy Network had significantly increased its viewership ratings that a sequestered television network IBC-13 established its position as a strong number 3 in the Philippine television industry dominated by the broadcast leaders ABS-CBN and GMA climb to the ratings.

IBC-13 and its radio stations DZTV Radyo Budyong and iDMZ 891 in the Kapinoy programming around the IBC-13transmitter power in San Francisco, Del Monte, Quezon City.

The network's new identity, with aggressive promotion and interesting programs, chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. attributed the expected increase in advertising revenues to the higher ratings of cited the rise of homegrown TV shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star as the top-rating programs for primetime with PBA and NBA games as TV program ratings begin to climb.

Viva-TV execs are elated that their Kapinoy shows on IBC are ratings very well, particularly the popular and top-rating game show Who Wants to be a Millionaire? hosted by Christopher de Leon and Richard Yap's The Weakest Link that both post double digit ratings. They're optimistic that when the reality talent search show Born to be a Starhosted by a certified singing champion and powerhouse singer Anja Aguilar, their ratings will get even higher. Meantime, their basketball fans of sports to the PBA and NBA are the flagship program will doing the viewership ratings.

Generated consolidated revenues of P13 billion from advertising and consumer sales, a 13% increase compared to last year. Advertising revenues reached P13 billion, an increase of 13% from a year ago. Consumer sales amounted to P13 billion, posting an 13% increase. Total costs and expenses increased by 13% to P7.2 billion brought about by increases in production costs, cost of sales and services, and general and administrative expenses as well as IBC Board of Directors in privatization. Capital expenditure and program rights acquisition amounted to P13 billion which was the same level of spending last year.

The consequently allowed the network to beef up its Kapinoy programming, which consequently boosted its chances to compete against GMA-7 and ABS-CBN.

The "uptrend" was anchored largely on the game show Christopher de Leon's Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, which as of late has the ratings survey in the Mega Manila area. Richard Yap's The Weakest Link in the phenomenal game show and the reality show Born to be a Star with Anja Aguilar along with the basketball fans like PBA and NBA are also asserting muscle in their respective timeslots.

The Kapinoy Network of privatization in the national audience share and viewership ratings for Urban and Ruralaudiences with a prime-time audience share averaging 23% in the first three months of 2013, a 13 percentage point lead over GMA and ABS-CBN, based on Kantar National TV Ratings.

For the first quarter, the Top 20 programs for Total Philippines (Urban and Rural) which will expanded to Top 30, were from Viva-TV shows on IBC, with the following occupying the Top 15 slots: Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, The Weakest Link, Born to be a Star, PBA Commissioners' Cup, NBA Playoffs, Sandy's Boyfriend, Sinemaks, ONE Fighting Championship, Petra's Panniest, Esperanza and K-POP Star Hunt in the most-watched topping ratings on primetime slot.

IBC: Competitor Edit

IBC-13 is a government-owned sequestered television-radio network by the government through PCGG and the major commercial TV network owned by the chairman Eric Canoy. Since than, IBC-13 has been reported as one of the top 3 TV networks based on AGB Nielsen survey. The Kapinoy Network going to be a competitor of the two leading networks ABS-CBN and GMA.

ABS-CBN and GMA Network, Inc. claim respectively they are number one in Mega Manila and nationwide viewership ratings. They both showcased mass-oriented TV shows, reality shows, game shows, soap operas from teleserye, asianovelas and telenovelas, comedies, animes and others. IBC-13 joins the roster, become more aggressive as it reached the number 3 position among TV networks at the same point.

IBC-13 become known as The Kapinoy Network and gained ratings because of their most-watched TV shows from Viva-TV, the primetime block of Viva Communications, Inc. IBC has been in a competition with the two dominant players ABS-CBN and GMA. The Kapinoy Network turns as a different TV network in the two biggest TV networks.

In a strong competitor, ABS-CBN and GMA focuses on the masses. They will conceptualize and create the same theme that will beat the ratings of the other network. They adapt each other's TV shows to see which will gain more viewership ratings. Meanwhile, IBC introducing the primetime programming block Viva-TV, featuring the Kaspinoy trend-setting programming led by the flagship program PBA and NBA as IBC grows into a bigger network, they start to GMA and ABS-CBN to keep its ratings in the two giant TV networks.

They adapted everything: IBC has news and current affairs programs, children's television programming, high-quality entertainment, classic IBC hit shows and the tokusatsu and anime series along with Viva-TV from movies, animes, dramas, game shows, reality talent search and sports. IBC-13 also created anew of its station tag into Kapinoy the same with ABS-CBN's Kapamilya and GMA's Kapuso.

Viva-TV stars on IBC came from Kapamilya stars. They produce their own stars. In other words, IBC seems to be a mixture of the two bigger networks. When it comes to primetime, you can easily see the mixture of the leading networks ABS-CBN and GMA stories merely because some of the story writers and the actors were from the two other stations. Since the two were established the stars can adapt the environment of the network. With their transfer to The Kapinoy Network, they bring with them the acting skills they got from the network they came from.

Your chance to be a millionaire is here

September 13, 2013

Christopher de Leon will host the 13th anniversary of Who Wants To Be a Millionaire on The Kapinoy Network IBC-13, every Saturday night.

MANILA, Philippines - Since Who Wants To Be a Millionaire marks on its 13th anniversary to Philippine television in 2000 via The Kapinoy Network, the show with host Christopher de Leon.

The first local franchise of the game show are rumored to Vic Sotto aired on TV5 since 2009 while De Leon on The Kapinoy Network. The IBC-13 show has captured many memorable and unforgettable moments, both with celebrity players and ordinary contestants.

Anja Aguilar was the biggest celebrity winner to date, taking home a whopping P2M in September 2012.

Celebrities players who got a chance to play in Who Wants To Be a Millionaire including Robi Domingo, actress Jodi Sta. Maria, Janine Tugonon, Ryan Agoncillo, Cogie Domingo, AJ

Muhlach, Cristine Reyes, actor Josh Padilla, Cherie Pie Picache, Maui Taylor, Freddie Webb, Tessie Thomas, Nadine Lustre, Miguel Aguila, among others.

This year, the new season of Who Wants To Be a Millionaire is definitely with a bigger and better show on IBC-13. Now on its 13th year anniversary, the game show is hosted by Christopher and airs every Saturday night.

The contestant must answer a total of 15 general knowledge questions in multiple choices. Along the way, he can use lifelines like 50-50 (where two incorrect answers are removed from the choices), Phone a Friend, People Speak and Switch (where a contestant can opt to skip the question and go to the next one) to help him.

With the Millionaire show hosted by Christopher, the prize money was P2M when rumored to the box-office king Vic Sotto to show by TV5 in 2009, the jackpot prize was increased to P2M. This season, a new lifeline and new twist will be introduced in the format of the game show that will challenge the contestant's ability in choosing a lifeline. Double Dip allows a contestant to give two answers to one question. If he gives a wrong answer, he can give another answer, hopefully the correct one, for the same question. Here's the twist. As soon as the contestant takes the hot seat, he will be made to choose from two formats — Classic Money Tree gives a safe haven and three lifelines while High-Risk Money Tree has one safe haven and four lifelines.

Dazzling production numbers make up Friday night a reruns of The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness, Maricel Live, and other variety shows are shown.

Thanks to ATC @ IBC that will be launching on June 1, 2014, Retro TV will be air again, we will see some of the timeless classics of IBC like TODAS, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Loveliness and Maricel Live once again.

IBC-13 breaks boundaries; announces good news for 2014

August 18, 2014

SUBIC, Olongapo City – Breaking the duopoly of the two giant TV networks in the country, IBC-13 really did a good job since its launch (or reformatting) last year. Though already using their new branding Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino ang Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, the corporate name remained as Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) known as Ito'ng Bagong Company.

At the recent 21st Philippine Advertising Congress held in Subic, IBC-13 announced the good news that will challenge again all the other networks – their massive expansion plans and venturing into movies.

This grand surprise wowed thousands of delegates in the congress. In 2014, The Kapinoy Network plans to expand its network coverage across the nation and enhance infrastructure and manpower, as well as investing in High-Definition production equipment with a completely tapeless, digital workflow – all to continue playing big in the industry.

Being powered by Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC) and Viva Communications, Inc., IBC-13 will play a vital role in providing best content across all media platforms and continuing innovations for the growing multimedia group. Lito Ocampo Cruz, executive vice-rpesident of IBC-13, said that the film industry in the country is dying that's why they've been coming up with the role of providing content to the network's entry into film production called IBC Films, which it plans to do in a big way.

"For many countries, like the Philippines, movies have become part of local culture. We want to do our part in reinvigorating the movie industry. That's why we plan to produce more movies than the combined total of the two leading networks," shared ABC Development Corporation Chairman Manny V. Pangilinan.

Completing the IBC-13 team is Lito Ocampo Cruz, Executive Vice President (EVP). The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? Agency Edition

What surprised the delegates even more is The Kapinoy Network's bringing live to them their top-rating hit shows The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants to be a Millionaire? of course with their ever handsome hosts Drew Arellano, Anja Aguilar, Elmo Magalona and Robi Domingo, respectively. Some contestants from the delegates joined Born to be a Superstar Agency Edition. Sam Concepcion, Paula Bianca, Gino Padilla and Joey Albert acted as the talent scouts that afternoon. Sam and Paula's comic antics kept the audience singing and dancing.

Meanwhile, jurors who served as scorers were from the entertainment press invited in by TV5: Maridol Bismark of Philippine Star, Bong Godinez of Pep.ph, Bayani San Diego of Philippine Daily Inquirer, Mario Bautista of Malaya/Manila Bulletin and this writer. Robi asked questions involving IBC-13's shows, amazing personalities and the management under the Kapinoy network. "This is a long-term investment for us. One that we know will benefit a lot of people, from those behind the cameras to those in front of them. And ultimately, the Filipino audience, whether they're watching on television, on their computers, on their mobile phones or on any other device," Lito vowed of IBC-13's addressable advertising and most of all, its best content for everyone, everywhere, and every time.

IBC-13 Continues To Developing Its Own Stable Of Talents

September 26, 2014

IBC-13 seems determined to producing and airing local variety programs. In the 1970s and 1980s, it was among the top-raters in the local TV industry, beating with RPN-9 and GMA-7. Its popularity started when the network was involved in the sequestration process as the government found that the station was owned by several of alleged Marcos cronies.

Since the time of former President Cory Aquino, IBC-13 has been operating as the government owned corporation following the sequestration. That setup somehow height the network. Thus, it was ablt to continue to its development and department, according to the president Noynoy Aquino III for PNoy administration.

Now, IBC-13 is almost for 55 years of Philippine TV viewers and home to the PBA and NBA basketball. In the past decade, it was known for showing full-length Tagalog movies and with several hit shows like Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, Barrio Balimbing, Sitak ni Jack, Hapi House, Goin' Bananas, Sic O'Clock News, Takeshi's Castle, Ora Engkantada, Loveliness, The Sharon Cuneta Show, Maricel Live!, among others. IBC's financial woes came in full swing around the year 1986. That year saw the government's sequestration of IBC because its owner at that time is a Marcos henchman. Then IBC saw an implosion which many ex-employees of the Banahaw Broadcasting Corporation migrated to IBC which had a negative impact on the broadcaster's expenses, which in turn forced IBC to seek help from Viva, Seiko, etc. to produce more series. IBC became Islands TV for a few years in the early '90s generally a significant financial improvement. Then IBC came back with an awesome station ID, was mainly known at that time for airing anime and Japanese tokusatsu shows and signed with Vintage Television blocktimer on IBC-13 in the early 90's to air with sports programs with PBA. The blocktimer attempt by IBC purchased its Viva Entertainment that was competitive ratings-wise was Viva TV talking integrated entertainment and sports programs on primetime (all of these artists of talents and stars are also from Viva Entertainment itself). Now, the strong number 3 in viewership at the height of gaining the network war behind the leaders ABS-CBN and GMA-7.

As for Viva-TV on IBC, Vic del Rosario, Jr. has promised to improve the technical facilities of the station. Regarding the radio coverage, Viva Sports is talking to DZSR Sports Radio on AM, there may be another objective in the mind of Viva cover the NBA and PBA games. PBA tickets range from P150 to P350 while venue rentals vary from P20,000 to P35,000 or a percentage of the gate, whichever is higher.

Another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with the PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, like Barangay Ginebral San Miguel, San Mig Coffee Mixers, Barako Bull Energy Cola, Meralco Bolts, Milo Energy Drink, Petron Blaze Boosters, Air21 Express, Rain or Shine Elasto Painters, Alaska Aces, Talk N' Text Tropang Texters and GlobalPort Batang Pier watching favorite teams in action, including the the Rookie Draft, the Philippine Cup, the Commissioners' Cup and the Governors' Cup, and on Sundays also ion halftime, topped with live guest performances from your favorite Viva stars. And indeed these Kapinoy shows on IBC prove themselves to be a force with flagship program PBA started to garner high ratings while NBA also gaining the ratings of the aforementioned show.

Another thing to be here is that IBC-13 offered us something new. We all know that ABS-CBN is great with their dramas, asianovelas, fantaserye, comedies, telenovelas, drama anthologies, reality and variety shows, and GMA mix of action, fantaseryes, comedies, dramas, reality and variety shows

Now is IBC-13 started to the competition they offered fare us something that the other television networks. First, The Kapinoy Network offered an action-packed sports fans focused on basketball, boxing, billiards, MMA and wrestling. This is the basketball fans like James Yap, Michael Jordan, Manny Pacquiao and Nonito Donaire. Then, most of the celebrities now have former contracts on ABS-CBN and GMA, IBC becomes the one and only television channel that could combine the Kapamilya stars. So refreshine are Richard Yap, Christopher de Leon, Anja Aguilar, Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes, child star Xyriel Manabat, Candy Pandilinan, AJ Muhlach, teen star Nadine Channel, Petra Mahalimuyak, Josh Padilla, Alexis Navarro and Imee Hart on one channel.

With regards to primetime on weeknights with Viva-TV, they offered the Kapinoy viewers with the new local shows that every night. By producing teleseryes which aired every night on other network. IBC also on telenovelas and koreanovelas on weeknights as well as sports programs, dramas, comedies, game shows and reality shows. This gives against the two other big networks when IBC started giving us variety of weeknights. They offered the viewers with a programming innovations.

Let the Ratings War Begin

June 10, 2013

ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are claimed to the number 1 network supremacy through the years based on the ratings from Kantar Media and AGB Nielsen, respectively.

The international channels like Global IBC featuring classic programming from the archives of IBC-13, consisting sitcoms, dramas, game shows, variety shows and event newscast from The Kapinoy Network.

Since ABS-CBN accused AGB Nielsen of tampering with its ratings in 2007, they have been subscribing to the Kantar Media as its main ratings provider. And since they started their subscription to Kantar, the network has claimed to achieve higher ratings than that of competitor GMA-7 based on Kantar Media's data. On the contrary, GMA-7 continued to claim ratings leadership in most areas using data from AGB Nielsen. With both media giants claiming their right to be the number one television station in the Philippines based on their respective data from their ratings providers, to make claims such as this.

GMA's No.1 supremacy comes from their afternoon programming, whose block included the noontime variety show Ea! Bulaga!, its Afternoon Prime and Telebabad series of teleseryes, showbiz talk shows such as Startalk, and public service programs such as Wish Ko Lang. Prior to ABS-CBN's move to Kantar, its evening programs have been traditionally high-rated. But since the move, ABS-CBN claimed to dominate the nightly programming, which included TV Patrol, its Primetime Bida series of top-rating teleseryes, Maalaala Mo Kaya on Saturdays, and Gandang Gabi Vice! on Sundays.

And when Be Careful With My Heart started airing on noontime slot, its cheerful and infectious storyline started taking over a majority of TV sets by the end of the year. The KapinoyNetwork owned by Eric Canoy looking to fresh up privatization of PCGG and provide position in the programming innovations to the established giants ABS-CBNand GMA, which cornered to the mass market. The FM radio station iDMZ 891, which target the middle-class and upperclass with an Asian market for A-B-C markets.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13 remains the undisputed number 3 supremacy as the mostwatched TV network, currently dominated by the two leading networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7, as IBC has been more aggressive in the top-rating from Kantar Media and AGB Nielsen survey to make the Kapinoy programming traditionally high-rating in the broadcast industry for block-tome agreement partnership with Viva Entertainment will claimed to dominate the giant networks aiming to the mass-based audience, which including the PBA and NBA games, boxing matches, mixed-martial arts (MMA) like ONE FC along with the hits, Viva movies on Kapinoy Cinema and Sinemaks, the game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, the reality talent shows are K-POP Star Hunt on Saturdays and Born to be a Star on Sunday nights as well as its imports of the Mexican telenovelas, Koreanovelas and Japanese animes. A comedy show Petra's Panniest on weeknights and the primetime teleserye like My Family Xyriel starring Xyriel Manabat, for loveteam like teleserye Safe In The Arms Of Love and the teen drama anthology Sandy's Boyfriend will established the bankable phenomenal love-team like Dingdong Dantes and Cristine Reyes, and AJ Muhlach and Nadine Lustre. New giant TV5 with their programming lineup in attempt to challenge ABS-CBN and GMA.

Through the years, both networks pushed each other to the limits in effort to produce high-quality programming to all walks of life. Claiming to be the number one network in the country. Viewers have their own choice of programs to watch, so it is up to them to watch any program they like, as long as they enjoy it.

Kapinoy marks 53 years of the sequestered

April 1, 2013

On the first day of February 1975, under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

From a relatively known TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network in the 1976. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC-13 set a firsts in the broadcasting industry and the number 1 television network from 1977 until 1988. Showing full-length Tagalog films and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 like Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, See-True and a lot more.

Celebrating 53 years of television

March 28, 2013

The 53 years of station ID celebrates the historic moments that IBC has brought to the nation. Began in 1960 for Channel 13 as Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation of 1961 thru the trimedia conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by Andres Soriano. In the first day of February 1975, Inter-Island 13 was renamedIntercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, the Philippines was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila and initially beamed to seven relay stations in Visayas and Mindanao scattered all over the archipelago era. DWKB-FM 89.1 was opened and in a short time, it became the number one FM station in the country. From a relatively TV station, IBC-13 reached greater heights and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience metamorphosed into one of the country's most viewed TV network in 1976. Thus, IBC-13 set a firsts in the broadcasting industry There's the commercial-free screen featuring images, showing full-length Tagalog films on primetime and IBC-13's top-raters introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 like Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, See-True, among others. This catapultedIBC in the number one slot among all television networks in 1978.

Through the sweat of it's employees and the income generated from it's programs, the network built and finally moved into its present home - Broadcast City. The complex was a five-and-a-half hectare land located at Capitol Hills, Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines.

It was 1978 marked the biggest, most progressive leap any network has ever made. Because of its station produced shows and co-production ventures, it penetrated a wider market. Thus, remarkable productivity surfaced with a acquisition of several provincial TV and radio stations.

Years passed after EDSA Revolution, things were never the same again in the network. IBC became a sequestered by the government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the stations. The network's condition became congruent with the government situation, new administrators meant new management. A board of administrators was created to run the station of 1986. Cost of the programs went up by a threefold. Line produced shows and the co-production ventures with Viva, Regal, and Seiko were favored. The top rated shows of IBC were pirated by the rival networks. IBC took a new image, Pusong Pinoy Pusong Trese, to recapture the glory days it once had of 1989. But because of the sequestration, periodic change of management and the internal problems, the network started to lose the support of advertisers. By 1990, Islands Broadcast Corporation took over the management and the marketing of IBC which came to be known as Islands TV-13. It was in the later part of its operations that ratings and income suffered due to mismanagement which caused labor unrest.

During this time of 1992, IBC became a 100% government owned station by virtue of a compromise agreement between PCGG and Mr. Roberto S. Benedicto, management and marketing were returned to the IBC Board of Directors. Programming remained at a standstill in preparation for the launching of a new image. It was May 1994 when IBC launched Pinoy ang Dating with a visually enticing MTV, an innovation in terms of station identification. Despite limited resources, programming improved the battle for audience share continued. Advertisers became more responsive to marketing efforts.

IBC-13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past. Filipinos became part of the global village through IBC's nationwide satellite broadcast in 1994. Vintage Television (VTV) entered the scene with PBA Games as it's major program. Rehabilitation of the Transmitter and other technical facilities where initiated in the central and provincial stations. A new Harris 60-kilowatt transmitter was installed. The global service of APSTAR 1 satellite was utilized for a wider global reach. By 1998, it was the number 3 network in the country, positing among TV networks from now, and the images of the 53 years of station ID prove. On another screen areIBC's pioneering all-Filipino flagship news programs Express Balita. Now on its 53rd anniversary, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away. Viva-TV continues to reign on primetime with its sports and entertainment programs from established popular shows, home to the NBA and PBAgames. IBC's Kapinoy programming dominate the non-prime slots. Foremost concern is to maintain the viability and competitiveness of the network in preparation for its privatization. This is achieved by providing for the personnel welfare and benefits and by renewed programming thrust which would cater to the biggest sector of society, the youth.

Another screen commemorates IBC's expanding reach, with IBC News Network (INN), IBC Regional, IBC Global, IBC Interactive and IBC Foundation, Inc. iDMZ 891, now on its #1 urban music and danze mix FM radio station in the country will target the A-B-C markets. And then there are Viva-TV's current success stories on IBC, with the NBAand PBA games, cartoons Pop Pixie and Winx Club, hit telenovelas like Rosalinda and Palabra de Mujer, hit Koreanvelas like My Daughter the Flower, Esperanza, 5 Girls and Daddy, Dear Heart, Cyborg Kurochan, popular and top-rating phenomenal game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire, The Weakest Link and a popular talent search show Born to be a Star featured, among other Viva shows on Channel 13. The spot also featuring the behindIBC's growth.

There is Andres Soriano, the founder of Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation with Roberto Benedicto. Now, there are new management and board of directors in the plug like IBC chairman Eric Canoy, the president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa, vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz and sales and marketing Tessie Taylor tasked with carrying the network into the future.

IBC's new digitally computer-animated 53 Years of station IBC produced by IBC's award-winning Creative Communications Management (CCM) division. More of quality Filipino television, viewed in the Philippines and here in the international scene.

The Kapinoy Network goes established networks

April 27, 2013

In these IBC classic shows are Takeshi's Castle, sitcom Iskul Bukol, TODAS, Chicks to Chicks, showbiz talk show*Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino*, musical variety show The Sharon Cuneta Show and so much more, the name of The Kapinoy Network for Intercontinental

Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) since in the past 15 years, IBCremains the undisputed number 3 in the overall ratings behind leading networks ABS-CBN and GMA. In history, IBC-13 is established by an american Dick Baldwin, until brought under the tri-media conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald headed by a Filipino-Spanish industrialist Andres Soriano in the 1960. The buyout is in response of sensationalized coverage of a Philippine Airlines (PAL) crash of Lopez's CBN (which the said mentality is applied even today). During Martial Law, one of the Marcos' cronies, Roberto S. Benedicto, bought IBC from Soriano and metamorphosed into one of the country's most viewed TV network with its primetime lineup and full length local and foreign films aired on this channel. After the People Power, the network was sequestered by the government under Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). During sequestration, mismanagement and rising operating, causing IBC to become insufficient and nonviable to mainstream TV market. In 1994, IBC tried to convince advertisers with a hypnotism of nationalism embarked on a station ID.

In the Philippine Star for IBC from their new TV Guide. Under the mass media that IBC known as The Kapinoy Network with its official website at IBC.com.ph. Based on my observation with limited human eyes:

- 1. The network being a government-owned and controlled corporation (GOCC), will focus on the morning show Magandang Umaga Ba?, the IBC's long-running flagship news programs Express Balita in primetime slot at 6:30pm and Ronda Trese in late-night at 11:30pm, and the top-of-the-hour news updates IBC Headliners, in which the government along with the public service programs are Good Take, Linawin Natin, Snooky, Angara ng Bayan and Nora Mismo. In the recent financial statements to see its comparative performance and standing the two leading networks.
- 2. The Kapinoy programs in IBC becoming the TV ratings to show in other networks, which is based on the Kantar Media survey.
- 3. The Kapinoy programming in IBC is reproductive, covering and new shows in the flagship children's television programs KapinoyLand along with Y2K: Yes to Kids, Sesame Street and Barney & Frinds, noontime variety show Lunch Break compared to Eat Bulaga! and It's Showtime!, interactive music show Danze sa TV(simulcast over iDMZ 891), some of the IBC classic hit programs as IBC Classics like TODAS, Iskul Bukol and Chicks to Chicks, showbiz-oriented talk show Showbiz Star, cultural educational program Cooltura, lifestyle tele-magazine show Chinatown TV, the comedy king TV sitcom Dolphy, magazine sitcom program for healthHapi Kung Healthy, tokusatsu and anime series Kamen Rider Black, Bioman, Voltes V and Battle Ball, and religious programming as El Shaddai airing every weekday mornings from 4 a.m. to 5 a.m., also on weekends at 4:30 a.m. and 1 a.m., and the catholic church Family TV Mass airing every Sunday at 6 a.m.
- 4. Viva-TV homegrown primetime programming block on The Kapinoy Network rode to the popular basketball with the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and the National Basketball Association (NBA), as well as the boxing matches like Nonito Donaire and Manny Pacquiao, billiards like World Pool Masters and mixed-martial arts wrestling World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) and ONE Fighting Championship. Apart of the sports programming, these include teleserye Esperanza and My Family Xyriel challenges to the competitors of soap operas and fantasy series, teen drama anthology Sandy's Boyfriend, comedy show Petra's Panniest and local blockbuster movies from Viva Films (action-packed Sinemaks on Sundays). The top-rating game shows Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link which in the million-peso prize in the phenomenal primetime game shows, and the popular talent search show for the singing contest Born to be a Star for the singing star fans in the superstar champion of young singers.

5. The anime series in Japan like Kirarin, Cyborg Kurochan and Chinpui for the anime fans with kiddies. The popular and top-rating Mexican telenovelas and Korean asianovelas are Amor Bravio, Palabra de Mujer, Shut Up Flower Boy Band and All About My Romance.

Boots aormula for a perfect match

May 20, 2013

ITS THE PERFECT MATCH.

This is how sequestered television-radio network IBC-13 cheir executive officer and president Boots Anson-Roa descibes the block airtime partnership with the entertainment company Viva Communications, Inc. with the owner of a chairman and CEO is Vic del Rosario, Jr. The help of Viva for IBC's primetime block with Eric Canoy as the chairman. The agreement has resulted in the recent branding The Kapinoy Network for Channel 13 in the broadcasting industry.

Before the new IBC Board of Directors come in, the cash to develop Kapinoy programs. I needed advertisers, going against Channel 2 and 7, Boots told Inquirer Entertainment in a phone interview.

Like herself, Boots said, her new allies, owners of several established networks in their country, were interested in surving the mass-based market. This coincided with my business plan of privatization, the network cheir said. The masses, which makes from 60 percent of the populatrion, is the biggest market.

Other platforms

Boots said the IBC management also shared her view on how to best serve that masa market. The mass media would be home around 9 p.m. From 11 p.m. to 1 a.m., they'd be in front of the TV. This is a new mass-based and star-studded Kapinoy programs. The rest of the time, the youngsters would be out driving, he said, adding that this is radio, mobile TV, the internet and even billboards comes in. You have to invest in all platforms. Boots has since established with provides internet access and the FM radio station iDMZ.

Viva Television produces more Kapinoy shows on primetime slot in a year. It owns over 100 percent of billboards in Asia, runs two English newspapers, controls the radio stations DZTV Radyo Budyong and iDMZ, and a free-to-air networks, including Mega Manila, Baguio, Davao, Cebu, Iloilo and Roxas. I found the perfect match, Boots said. For her part, he bought a state-of-the-art power of 60-kilowatts in the Harris transmitter tower and kept his control overIBC News and Public Affairs department.

Before the Viva Group of Companies came into the picture, Boots sais, the network tried coproducing shows with block-timer Viva Entertainment on primetime slot. IBC-13 also aired classic IBC hit shows, tokusatsu and anime series and children's television programs for kids. For the mass-based shows, Boots said, she had duscussions with third parties. In the in-house productions, likeChannel 2 and 7, which have cornered the mass market. Their shows are all the same, she pointed out. We welcomed third parties because it convinced the advertising industry that IBC-13 is now a third player and competitor in the broadcast industry. A relatively third player in the local television industry, IBC-13 has moved up to the number 3 spot in terms of ratings, trailing behind GMA Network Inc. and Lopez-owned ABS-CBN Corporation.

IBC-13 plans to revise Kapinoy programming as Viva-TV, in the primetime hours from 5 p.m. to 12 midnight on daily, 2:30 p.m. to 12 midnight and 10 a.m. to 12 midnight, programming rode to the PBA and NBA games as well as the top-rating phenomenal game shows Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? and The Weakest Link, and the talent search contest Born to be a Star, Boots announced.

Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap in a scene from IBC's New Year and Valentine offering In Love with You under IBC Films' 13 Original Movies

As the third challenger in the race for television supremacy, IBC-13 appears to have been doing much better than its competitors expanded. We notice, therefore, that both ABS-CBN and GMA-7 have been fielding more innovative teleseryes (just like Janella in Wonderland and Your Heart, My Love) as well as game shows, reality shows, interview, variety shows and innovative sitcoms.

We recently tuned in on IBC airing Tuesdays with a concept that reminded us of Maalaala Mo Kaya, a drama anthology that airs Saturdays on ABS-CBN based on real stories sent in by letter writers, and hosted by Charo Santos-Concio. The series has had adaptations on radio, a comic book, a pocketbook and translations into English. Meanwhile, a concept that a teen romantic drama anthology Sandy's Romance thatairs Saturdays on IBC with her real romantic love stories sent in by letter writers and starring Nadine Lustre. The difference is that IBC Films' 13 Original Movies has original stories, and recently aired last January 28 with In Love with You with a simple girl Jodi Sta.Maria in a family affair with father Richard Yap.

On Feb. 4, A Long and Lasting Love was the advance Valentine offering of the channel with Khalil Ramos and Sue Ramirez reviving their partnership of long ago which brought SueLil to Coming up on Feb. 11 is Now That You're Gone, in the heart-warming drama with the queen of Philippine soap opera Claudine Barretto and Dingdong Dante sin the role. Also on Feb 18, is A Runaway Bride, a romantic comedy with Erich Gonzakes as a girl who makes a mistake involving someone else's wedding. Mario Maurer is her leading men. Finally, on Feb. 25, Handog ng Pilipino sa Mundo finishes off the month of hearts with a drama-EDSA independent featuring Joel Torre, Chin Chin Gutierrez and Freddie Webb. It was certainly a well-thought-out package that makes us want to take note of every Tuesday on IBC. In an interview with the press, IBC's head of entertainment Laurenti Dyogi admitted it would be difficult breaking audience viewing habits, especially since they are coming across as the new kid on the block. He mentionied the fantaserye Janella in Wonderland and teleserye Your Heart, My Love on weeknights as two o their intiial ventures of soap opera to attract viewership.

After the launching of the film production IBC Films to producing the show 13 Original Movie, we would surmise that the channel is now more confident with their product. Laurenti must have settled for the return to local telesine which we believe to be the best decision ever. Of course, it was more difficult to do an entirely new story weekly than just buying into an expensive foreign franchise. It is also not too often that one could bank on the much-awaited teaming up of Jodi and Richard as In Love with You with the award-winning director Jeffrey Jeturian directing. We hope that The Kapinoy Network will be able to maintain the quality of 13 Original Movie produced by IBC Films. See you at the succeeding screenings.

PCOO Sec. Sonny Coloma and the IBC 13 management headed by President Lito Ocampo Cruz

September 17, 2014 Secretary Coloma:

In the last Wednesday's Rappler article that IBC-13 will be buying the ratings and privatized before President Aquino steps down in 2016 leaving the older sister station. PTV 4, as the government broadcaster, and RPN-9 and IBC-13 both now also claiming to the number 3 spot. We asked ourselves: "Why now? Why not during the time of sequestration during the administration of his mother?"

In history of the network, most of our netizens made excessive praises of Channel 13 during the Marcos administration. Soon after the People Power, the original programming of IBC gradually diminished and the first blocktimer in the 1990s, by Vintage Television, recovered the audience retention with PBA and the new millenium comes with Viva Television. And now, the relaunch of original programming for IBC goes on the original production and made excessive praises and claim to the top of the ratings.

Recently, your network forged a deal with Engr. Rey Sanchez of Asian Television Content Corporation (ATC) to allocate the primetime block since last June 2. We were happy to have an alternative programs with Hi-5, ONE FC and two Latinovelas The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente.

Presently, the network provided mediacre ratings and financial slump, because of the primetime schedule, the Kapinoy network has been producing the trend-setting series like fantasy, action and adventure. Along with drama series, three of comedy series like sitcom, gag show and political satire, musical variety shows, talk shows, game shows and reality shows complete with the Philippine entertainment, such as sports programs only with PBA and *NBA*basketball, as well as educational and children's programming, cartoons, Japanese animes, Mexican telenovelas, Asian dramas, the Viva Tagalog movies and news and current affairs with lackluster and lagging of newer facilities as an implied justification. Your network had nearlygood TV programming during Holy Week and Christmas season to function as a full-time national network.

Some of such speculations include low advertising rates, in which, the network settle the burden of the liability of PHP 1.234 billion and a PHP 655.3 million capital deficiency.

These evidences of accounts were based according to the recently published audit report in the Commission on Audit for the said government-owned and controlled corporation.

With that inability to settle down the long overdue obligations and neglect of investing facilities and its maintenance that bid to compete with commercial networks, last July 28, the same day your master delivered the Fifth State of the Nation Address, a handful of employees of the network marched on to Commonwealth Avenue with the protesters heeding their long overdue remuneration and immediate privatization.

We feel good for their redressing their grievances but you did not show the concern which is found on successful commercial channels because the network exercises partial and editorial policy towards the Chief Executive's viewpoint rather than other branches of government and the common Juan dela Cruz.

Needless to say, the privatization process of this network follows the fashioned red tape bureaucracy.

With all honesty, we, the undersigned in behalf of the Filipino people, have already made a verdict that we have virtually no audience to appreciate this channel and declare it as a laughingstock — a shame not just for the country's media industry sector but also for Asia and the world.

Forgive the rest of the netizens who issues within this national television industry for their senses are devoutly limited to the three big, successful commercial broadcasters.

To conclude this open letter, the network's management must have three options:

- Continue to stick with the status quo programming,
- Contact another blocktimer with a win-win situation on financial aspects, or
- Continue the reception, the network and the frequency to private bidders.

Historical Background Edit

In the increasingly television industry, IBC-13 continues to dominate the television landscape set the pace in the tradition that it has carved for itself as a trailblazer of the industry. In the 53rd anniversary celebration of The Kapinoy Network, the president Noynoy Aquino III that, the history of IBC-13 is the history of Philippine Television.

In 1960, Channel 13 started broadcasts in 1961 under Inter-Island Broadcasting Corporation thru the tri-media conglomerate of RMN-IBC-Philippine Herald owned by the late Andres Soriano. The station also broadcasts in Cebu and Davao set up the first provincial station. Dick Baldwin was the station's first owner, and programming first consisted of mostly foreign programs from CBS, and a few local shows.

In the 1970s, IBC launches the color transmission television named Vinta Color named after the Vintas from Zamboanga, the third network in the Philippines to convert to all-color broadcasts.

On the first day of February 1975, Inter-Island 13 split off from the Sorianos, owners of RMN and under the auspices of the Benedicto Group of Companies, by the late Roberto Benedicto, who purchased the network consisting of the Manila station and other relay stations in Cebu and Davao in the Philippines in Visayas and Mindanao was delighted in the birth of a television station that would bring color to the dark years of the Martial Law era. The Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC) brought forth DZTV Channel 13, a commercial television station based on Metro Manila has always been associated with the very first and the very best in local broadcasting and initially beamed to seven relay stations scattered all over the archipelago.

DWKB-FM, now known as iDMZ 891 Sayaw Pinoy! was opened and in a short time, it became the number one FM station in the country.

From a relatively TV station in 1976, IBC 13 reached greater heights metamorphosed into one of the country's most viewed TV network and became the country's top-rating network. Through hard work coupled with and intrepid business sense, IBC management developed a strategic programming that appealed to the mass audience. Thus, IBC 13 set a firsts in the broadcasting industry.

Showing full-length Tagalog films on primetime and the introduction of one-of-a-kind program genres were first seen on Channel 13 like TODAS, Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan, Iskul Bukol, Chicks to Chicks, Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino, Pinoy Thriller, The Sharon Cuneta Show, See-True and so much more with one spoke of television. This catapulted IBC in the number one slot among all television networks. By 1978, IBC manifested an enviable resilience in surviving the challenges. It marked the biggest, most progressive leap any network has ever made. The station produced shows and co-production ventures, it penetrated a wider market. Thus, remarkable productivity surfaced with a acquisition of several provincial TV and radio stations.

Years passed after 1986 EDSA Revolution, things were never be the same again in the network. IBC sequestered by the government became a government controlled operation under the Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG). Malacañang appointed several management groups to oversee the operation of the network's condition became congruent with the government situation. New administrators meant new management.

A board of administrators was created to run the station. When BBC 2 closed down, IBC absorbed majority of its displaced employees, thus doubled the operating expenses of the network as Basta Pinoy sa Trese expresses IBC-13's corporate goal for the larger Filipino audience to identify themselves, a vision of Philippine television to be the home of the local productions that are expressive of the Filipino heart and mind.

The provider of entertainment and enlightenment; the imparter of Filipino social and cultural values. It defines the basic thrust of IBC-13's programming a strong bias for more local productions, a striving for balance of entertainment and public information, and the recognition of its social role to earn profits. Cost of programs went up by threefold. Line produced shows and co-production ventures with Viva, Regal, and Seiko were favored.

The top rated shows of IBC were pirated by rival networks. Cost of programs, talent fees and TV rights increased tremendously in 1988. IBC could no longer afford to produce its own shows.

In 1989, IBC took a new image, Pusong Pinoy Pusong Trese, to recapture the glory days it once had. But because of the sequestration, periodic change of management and the internal problems, the network started to lose the support of advertisers. Islands Broadcast Corporation took over the management and the marketing of IBC which came to be known as Island TV 13 in 1990. It was in the later part of its operations that ratings and income suffered due to mismanagement which caused labor unrest.

During this time in 1992, IBC became a 100% government owned station by virtue of a compromise agreement PCGG and Mr. Roberto S.Benedicto, management and marketing were returned to the IBC Board of Directors. Programming remained at a standstill in preparation for the launching of a new image.

IBC 13 managed to survive despite unstable conditions. The niche it has carved in the broadcasting industry proved to be an indelible one. Instant recall has always been associated with IBC and its glorious past. It was May 1994 when IBC launched Pinoy ang Dating with a visually enticing MTV, an innovation in terms of station identification. Despite limited resources, programming improved when the battle for audience share continued. Advertisers became more responsive to marketing efforts.

In 1996, Vintage Television (VTV) entered the scene with PBA as it's major program for basketball games. Rehabilitation of the Transmitter and other technical facilities where initiated in the central and provincial stations. A new Harris 60 Kilowatt transmitter was installed. The global service of APSTAR 1 satellite was utilized for a wider global reach. In 2000 for millenium, Viva-TV, the primetime block of Viva Entertainment on IBC producing shows.

VTV continues to reign on primetime with its sports and foreign canned programs. IBC's religious and public affairs program dominate the non-prime slots. The new management under Mr. Emiliano D. Templo is determined to put IBC back on its feet. His foremost concern is to maintain the viability and competitiveness of the network in preparation for its privatization. This is achieved by providing for the personnel welfare and benefits and by renewed programming thrust which would cater to the biggest sector of society, the youth.

Now, a new hope shines on IBC, the network which pioneered various genres in TV production. As long as IBC remains a network with its innovative and creative core intact, the dream of reaching the top is not so far away.

Mission Edit

- To fulfill our pivotal role in shaping the Filipino people's consciousness through information and entertainment programs that adhere to wolrd class standards.
- To provide positive and wholesome programming that promotes the best Filipino talent and reflects the true Filipino sentiment and spirit.
- To sustain and strengthen our dominance in broadcasting and be a third leading player in production and distribution.
- To diversify and expand into new business ventures which include animation, postproduction, theater operations, theme parks, international movie joint ventures, video and audio production, licensing and merchandising, music recording and other information and entertainment-related enterprises.

Vision Edit

IBC-13 is the sequestetred total information and entertainment company: the third leading player and center of creativity in Asia, and the third major player in the global market.

The Kapinoy Network in the service of humankind, and particularly of Filipinos worldwide.

News and Current Affairs Edit

IBC News and Current has also maintained its dominance over competition with its high-rating news and current affairs programs as well as its live and breaking news coverages of events that affect the national life.

Express Balita, the station's highest rating newscast on Philippine TV, launched in North America through KTSF Channel 26 in San Francisco.

Diversification Edit

This paved the way for the activation of the Network's international distribution which now covers countries that have a heavy concentration of Filipino communities like the United States, Europe, Asia, Australia, Japan, Korea, Guam, America, Tokyo, Africa and eventually the Middle East.

This year, through PAN-Amsat, the world's most powerful satellite, IBC-13 will be seen in 2/3 of the world.

IBC International expanded its operations globally when Global IBC, the first Filipino premium cable international channel in the U.S., was launched in 2011.

Another venture entered into by IBC is the Direct To Home market. Direct Kapinoy delivers all Filipino programming directly to subscribers' homes in the States by means of a three foot satellite dish. IBC International has also started its foray into the telecoms business by offering value-added telecommunications services from the US to the Philippines. IBC has also diversified its operations to enable the Network to maintain its competitive edge. International distribution, video and audio post production, licensing and merchandising, recording, theatrical acquisitions and a UHF channel are the ventures that hopefully will augment and enhance the Network's present streams of revenue which are essentially or substancially derived from television. Our provincial expansion program is also on target with approximately 300 million being earmarked for the purpose.

Awards Edit

In the local arena, IBC-13 continues to reap major awards from the most prestigious award-giving bodies. International awards have also been given to our station ID, among others. The Far Eastern Economic Review has again named IBC-13 as one of Asia's 200 leading companies. And for the fourth straight year running, Asia Business Magazine has adjudged IBC-13 as Asia's Most Admired Media Company with Gawad Tanglaw Awards, PMPC Star Awards, Anak TV Seal Awards, UStv Choice Awards, KBP Golden Dove Awards, among others.

As the company celebrated its 53rd year of incorporation, IBC-13 became the first local braodcasting network to be honored with a commemorative postage stamp issue by the Philippine government.

Number 3 in Ratings Edit

IBC-13 showed their muscle in the mid 80's and became the #1 network until 1988. Most of the first ABS-CBN local shows were pirated from IBC - Alma Moreno's Loveliness, Chicks to Chicks (Thursdays at 7:30PM), The Sharon Cuneta Show, among others. Other IBC shows that included Piling-Piling Pelikula (Mondays at 7:30PM mostly Chiquito films) TODAS (Wednesdays at 7:30PM), Iskul Bukol (Tuesdays at 7:30PM), Seeing Stars with Joe Quirino(Sundays 8:00PM with guest Carmen Soriano, Carmen Patena, Pilita Corrales, Big 3 Sullivans, Aldeguer Sisters, The Rainmakers, Tatlong Pinoy, etc.) among others. The IBC primetime lineup was made up mostly of local shows - thus, perhaps, also explaining its taglines, Basta Pinoy sa Trese in 1986, Pusong Pinoy, Pusong Trese in 1989 and Pinoy ang Dating in the mid-'90s. The station traditionally considered an also-ran in Philippine television, is the undisputed number 3, behind top-notchers of the 2 leading networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7. A strong and certified number 3 position in viewership ratings, thanks to the PBA and NBA basketball games.

In the realm of programming, we have remained essentially mass-based. Year-end figures for whole-day audience share has remained at 30% compared to competitor with ABS-CBN with 50% and GMA with 45% In the provinces, IBC-13 dominates audience share at all hours with an average of 45%.

Prospects for the Future Edit

In the Network's Annual Report, Chairman Eric Canoy and President and CEO Boots Anson-Roa outlined the Network's plans for this year:

"In attention will be focused on three major areas of growth: the setting-up of a UHF station, the continuing expansion of our international and regional operations, and our foray into theatrical acquisitions.

The prospects for the future of the company is indeed exciting. Having reached the peak in terms of advertising shares, we are now focusing our strengths and resources on other ventures. We shall continue to seek new opportunities both in the local and international markets as we prove our worth as a broadcasting network and also with full-scale entertainment conglomerate.

The vision to serve will always be our network's foremost corporate objective. The desire to improve our programs and products are all geared fulfilling this goal -- Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino.

RIDING THE WINDS OF CHANGE Edit

IBC-13's gross airtime revenues from its broadcasting operations grew a healthy 23% to P3.13 billion, despite an estimated 10% to 30% decline in total industry advertising spending for the year. This growth was achieved due to the company's commanding lead in ratings and audience share, more than double the next highest-ranking competitor, allowing it to increase both its advertising rates and minutes.

With the revenues of P2 billion as of 2012, operating income of P100 billion in 2012, net income in P1.1 billion, total assets in P8.2 billion and total guity in P21.4 billion, the market shareof 25%.

Eric Canoy, Chairman

This year, we look forward to reaping the benefits of the investments we have continued to undertake despite the crisis investments in improving our broadcast facilities and network and multi-media entertainment infrastructure, in the training and development of our creative, technical, sales, and corporate support staff.

Through the economic downturn, IBC-13 continued with its expansion program, installing five provincial TV relay stations in Tuguegarao, Cotabato, Iligan, Santiago, and Butuan; inaugurating a new broadcast complex in Cebu; and constructing a talent and design center in Manila. With its extensive investments in broadcasting facilities, The Kapinoy Network's coverage at the reached 60% of the country's television households.

All these, we continue to undertake in order to deliver the finest in Filipino news and entertainment, create the best working environment for our employees, generate the highest returns to our shareholders, all in the service of the Filipino. That is our mission. For as long as there is somebody out there who needs a good laugh or cry, for as long as people continue to be inspired and moved by our images, for as long as man is free to imagine — wherever there is a Filipino, there will always be IBC for Kapinoy.

Boots Anson-Roa, President and CEO, IBC-13 top honcho

Fifty-three years after introducing television to the Philippines, IBC-13 remains poised to break new ground in the field of broadcasting and to face the challenge of the new millennium.

The network is sequestered, and Boots admitted that in privatization. Boots also revealed that the network's franchise was granted by Congress very recently, after the network had operated for more than 30 years.

Since the phenomenal success of its post-EDSA relaunched operations, your network has branched out into other industry-related endeavors. All the while fortifying its creative and technical expertise with cutting-edge technology and privatization of PCGG government by the PNoy administration of president Noynoy Aquino III.

The purpose of that luncheon affair was to introduce to the press most of the shows produced by the network itself. Several hours of programming are produced daily by airtime blocktimer of Viva Communications, Inc. Such programs include the basketball games and the international sports events like the PBA and NBA games participated in by the several Filipino cue artists.

IBC-13's new business ventures in UHF programming, international cable TV and Direct-to-Home Satellite Service, movie production, high-end film and audio postproduction, music recording, and merchandising are logical extensions of its core business of broadcasting. Film productions expand movie program inventory while hit TV properties have crossed over to cinema, recording and product licensing. The integrated News & Current Affairs Group provides content for television, radio, UHF, cable and the internet. In-house developed stars and creative talents are now being shared across all media. The post-production houses service cinema and TV advertising clientele. The international program distribution component has extended its business to cover telecoms.

Lito Ocampo Cruz, Vice President, Freddie M. Garcia, Vice Chairman and Rey Sanchez, Channel 13 Head

These are just some of how convergence has worked for the network and the list of other possible permutations keeps on growing. It is this kind of synergy that will lead IBC, pioneer leader in Philippine television, to the fulfillment of its vision as a Total Information and Entertainment Network, into and beyond the year 2013.

53 Years of Philippine Television Edit

Search from the Start Edit

The double wedding of Nella and Paulo and Emon and Andrea was one of the most memorable scenes in the drama serial teleserye that took the nation by storm.

You hope Nella and Paulo falling in Love. And this happens daily when most television screens are tuned to IBC-13's soap opera triumph Safe In The Arms of Love, a romantic teleserye. Since SITAOL hugged the screen, the Filipino's evening schedule was suddenly built around the program. Dinner-time was moved later or meals were taken in front of the screen. Friends would schedule their gimmicks at a later time. Updates on plot twists were relayed via beepers to those home. It was simply phenomenal! Picture this. Two shooting days, two OB van units, four cameras, 20 regular cast members, anywhere from 25 to 50 production and engineering people, and an extreme amount of pressure. Shooting days are every Tuesday and Thursday. Way before the cameras start rolling, director Wenn V. Deramas and scriptwriters Keiko Galvez and Rondel Lindayag hammer out storylines and develop plot twists.

Copies of the final script are then delivered to the actors' residences. A normal shooting day starts at 7.30 am and stretches to as late as 2.00 am the next day. On the set, hustle is the name of the game since they can shoot in as many as three different locations per session, to a slum area where dwells, to a rural cottage, that is home to guardian, Carmen. As it demands a fast-paced and tension-driven production schedule that could rival your average Safe In The Arms of Love plotline. The numbers hit a high of 50%, everyone involved in production knows that they did well. According to Associate Producer Mae Santos, "We produce one of local television's few, true hits— that's great incentive to go there two days a week and try to outdo yourself."

IBC-13 Modernizes for More Expansion

February 11, 2014

Sequestered broadcasting firm Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. (IBC) is undertaking a modernization program to gear the network to local and international expansion. Part of its modernization plan is the upgrading of its facilities through the use of modern and sophisticated technology.

Last 2011, the company launched Global IBC which uses Panamsat's PAS 2 satellite to reach out viewers in Asia, Australia, and as far as US West Coast 24 hours a day began a 24 hour uplink with a Hughes Galaxy 4 satellite that enables the company to reach over 2 million Filipinos throughout the rest of North America through cable or direct home dishes. Global IBC now serves over 13,000,000 viewers in the US.

The company will also launch this month IBC Licensing and Merchandising, its licensing and merchandising arm. Aside from television and radio owned by IBC, this holds rights to different blockbuster international movies such as Walt Disney movies and the like. The company will promote movies, television and videos to be supplemented by novelty items such as T-shirts, toys, dolls, and writing instruments.

The Kapinoy Network is planning to buy 12 FM radio stations and expects to gain a 20% share in the P1.0 billion FM industry. As the company embarks into different ventures, it enjoys a better share of what it has toiled upon. According to interim results, the firm earned net income of P500 million for the first months in 2013, up by 15% on gross income revenues of P4,000 million. The results are in line with the full year target of 1,382 million. While cost of production increased within normal limits, operation expenses rose by a hefty 10% against 4% in 2013. This translates into operating income growth of 30% in 2013 from 20% in 2012.

This increase in operating expenses was mainly brought about by the on-going P5000 million expansion and modernization program of the company. The competition within the industry has in fact benefited IBC as it was forced to find ways to be more innovative to maintain its dominant position in the business network in the giant networks ABS-CBN Corporation and GMA Network.

Japanese Primetime is now on IBC-13

August 8, 2014

Remember of anime series as Battle of the Planets, Voltron, G-Force, Starblazer, Heidi, King Arthur and the Knights of The Round Table, Ron Ron, Woody the Wooden Doll, Marine Boy, Bioman, Shaider, Voltes V, Bioman, Maskman, Turboranger, among others.

After earning huge success with fantaseryes, teleseryes, sitcoms, gag shows, political satire, talk shows, variety shows, film showings of Viva Tagalog movies, game shows, reality shows, telenovelas, Asinovelas and sports events, sequestered TV station IBC-13 which is stands for Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13, is now also reaping huge success with the best that Japanese television has to offer by the way of one popular anime seryes and two very popular tokusatsu and sentai series.

These include the anime Ghost Fighter (weekdays 4-4:30 p.m.) and the tokusatsu Ultraman Tiga (Saturdays 4:30 p.m.) which goes on primetime slot on IBC-13.

Yusuke Urameshi of Ghost Fighter

Ghost Fighter is an action-packed martial art anime that appeals to a favorite televiewers of all ages. It became a hit among young viewers despite that a prime time show. And the kids enjoy watching his adventures everyday. It began its second run on Philippine television broadcast. Ghost Fighter has reigned Japanese supreme TV ratings since its premiered in December 1990. Here in the Philippines, Ghost Fighter will be seen from Monday to Friday, 4 to 4:30 p.m. on IBC. It all started when a delinquent 14-year-old boy named Yusuke Urameshi died in a car accident who tried to save a young boy's life. His spirit roamed around for a while and he decided to take a peek on his house to see what's going on after his death. Surprisingly, most people who went to his burial seem to be laughing. Most of them were Yusuke's enemies from school and his teachers who hated him, except the school's dean. The dean went to Yusuke's burial and mourned which also surprised Yusuke because he used to get scolded by him often. Atsuko and Keiko also mourned for him. Kuwabara came to his burrial with his blood boiling. His friends were already holding him back. Kuwabara still kept saying that he and Yusuke still have a score to settle. He said this with tears. Yusuke realized that there are still people out there who cared for him who began promoting anime.

Josh Padilla lends his voice as Ultraman Tiga

Ultraman Tiga is another tokusatsu as the superhero kids show, it will be a televiewers of all ages. Ultraman Tiga wil be premiered on August 9, Saturdays at 4:30 p.m. on IBC. Ultraman Tiga's human form, is passionately naïve, wide-eyed, eager, earnest and good-hearted with the right kind of DNA that makes him worthy of being Ultraman Tiga. He is Rena's love interest, and later becomes her husband. Though not necessarily physically strong or particularly bright, he accepts and embraces his destiny to be Ultraman Tiga and shows that Ultraman Tiga's strength comes from his very human courage, love and spirit. He was able to enter GUTS after he was recruited by General Sawai for being able to prevent General Sawai's kidnapping by an invader's UFO. He believes that humanity is not a weak existence that always repeats old mistakes, but can make a brighter future for future generations. He fights to protect humanity and the world as Ultraman Tiga based on that reason. By this point, Daigo proved he is not invincible or a special existence, despite being able to transform into a giant of light and just a feeble human outside. Masaki, who is also a descendant from the ancient human race like Daigo, continues to manipulate the Spark Lance and change his body into light particles and merge with the giant statue he found. Ultimately, Daigo was able to recover the Spark Lance and defeat Keigo Masaki/Evil Tiga with his very human feelings and strength. Daigo finally confesses his true identity as Ultraman Tiga to Rena in episode 50 and transforms in front of her. After trying hard to fight Ghatanothoa "the Ruler of Darkness", Ultraman Tiga was defeated and turned back into a lifeless statue. The voice of the super-action Ultraman Tiga will be provided by popular actor Josh Padilla.

IBC-13: Continues to Shake Viewing Habits

August 29, 2014

MANILA, Philippines - While other networks air teleserye on primetime, sequestered TV station IBC-13 dares take the road less traveled. Because it airs the croco adventurserye Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo, actionserye Hitman, fantaserye Janella: A Princess Girl, action-packed superserye Voltron Man and the heart-warming teleserye Your Heart, My Love on weeknights, it also airs sitcoms Iskul Bukol Men (Thursday) and the family sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief (Saturday). drama anthology Sandy's Romance and Happy TODAS when even industry insiders say this genre is on its way. It dubs Winx Club, Ghost Fighter, Mickey Mouse Clubhouse and Ultraman Tiga in Tagalog to make it more accessible to Pinoy kids. Lito Ocampo Cruz, the network's executive vice-president (EVP), says that's precisely what the slogan called Kapinoy ng Bagong Pilipino and Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 means. The network wants to shake viewing habits by thinking out of the box. This means going out of the airconditioned office and bringing movies to those who matter most: The people. Kapinoy viewers who is watching the Viva Tagalog movies also can do so through Viva Cine Idols (Monday), Viva Box Office (Saturday) and Sunday Sinemaks (Sunday). a reaching project that screens Pinoy films in barangay halls. Some big screenings, townsfolf cann go for free, and watch auditions for IBC-13's reality show fopr the national singing competition Born to be a Superstar along the way. This common touch explains why the show, hosted by the Asia's young diva princess Anja Aguilar, posed an impressive 38.6% audience share, or over three million Mega Manila eyeballs.

"It's our banner show," crows Lito. He also talks of "triple growth in Manila," cause for a month-long second anniversary celebration to toast the network that first went on air September 30, 2012. Like a father proudly showing off his child's honors, Lito glows with stories about "school attacks."

These are forays into Metro campuses where children and teenagers get to know about the network's shows when they are held right in their own turf.

This will make it easier for the network to someday develop its own pool of talents who will star in its shows.

The situation call for one, since young stars from ABS-CBN and GMA 7 also freely appear in IBC-13 shows. GMA's Drew Arellano, for one, host IBC's top-rater The Million Second Quiz, GMA's Elmo Magalona also host IBC's sing-along videoke game show Killer Karaoke, and ABS-CBN's Robi Domingo, for one, now also hosts IBC's top-rater Who Wants to be a Millionaire?

But given a few more years when the dog-eat-dog rivalry goes out of bounds, The Kapinoy Network will have to turn on homegrown talents to survive.

But survival is the least of the network's worries for now. Now when it says Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap's Maya Loves Sir Chief is "consistently setting an upward trend in the ratings, beating other sitcoms such as Home Sweetie Home and Pepito Manaloto within its time slot and inching its way towards No.1 position."

When on Sunday nights, Who Wants to be a Millionaire? "hit 29.7% audience share one Saturday, outflanking ABS-CBN's Rated K and GMA 7's Kapuso Mo, Jessica Soho." Inspired, Lito promises to come up with a new tagline to best mirror the network's thrust of taking televiewing habits "to the next level." Exactly how will he change the Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13 tagline to a more catchy one? Mum's the word.

Instead, Lito declares, "It is our commitment to the viewers to continually give them more quality choices in free-to-air television. This is what the partnership between Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation (IBC), Asian Television Content Philippines Corporation (ATC) and Viva Entertainment hoped to achieve when we relaunched IBC-13 brand a year ago... Going into our 54th year, we'll continue to bring innovative, creative and highly-entertaining programs for our progressive Pinoys."

Let's hope he fulfills that promise.

Followed by PBA on NBN/IBC

shows PBA on Vintage Sports

In 2000, Vintage Television was absorbed by media giant VIVA Entertainment and signed a three year deal worth 770 millionpesos. The consortium defeated GMA Network, in its bid to enter into the sports broadcasting scene following ABS-CBN's coverage of the Metropolitan Basketball Association.

From 2000 to 2001, Viva broadcast PBA games on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays with out of town games covered on Saturdays either live, tape-delay or aired days later. In 2002, at Viva's request, the league scheduled its games on Tuesdays and Thursdays with one game from 6-8, and two double-headers on Saturdays and Sundays to accommodate the airing of the local version of two popular game shows that also produced by them; (The Weakest Link and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire). This led to a sudden decrease in ratings and the league shifted back its 2001 schedule at the start of the semifinals of the Commissioner's Cup. Noli Eala and Ed Picson were the main play-by-play commentators from 2000 to 2002. However, Picson left the network at midseason following a fallout between him and the network. He would return to cover PBA games for the PBA on ABC broadcast in 2004.

At the end of the 2002 season, Viva left a significant amount of debt to the league. They tried to bid for a new contract with the league but was defeated by the NBN-IBC consortium. Viva-TV aired its last PBA games on Christmas Day 2002 during Game 4 of the 2002 All-Filipino Cup between the Coca-Cola Tigers and the Alaska Aces. Incoming commissioner Noli Eala and Tommy Manotoc were the commentators for its last run.

Return Edit

On June 2, the PBA announced that Viva Sports, holder of the PBA's television franchise had won the rights with a deal reportedly worth ₱508 million. Aside from live games aired on Viva-TV, the number one entertainment channel relaunch on June 5, 2011. Curiously, the return of the PBA on Viva-TV was start on June 5, 2011, the franchise-holder of the league's TV coverage and many PBA talents and production people.

Viva Sports and Viva-TV became the new official broadcasters of the PBA following the 2011 Governors' Cup. On the other hand, PBA would also developed with Sports5 as PBA on AKTV which airs on AKTV premieres on October 2, 2011 and free TV coverage on TV5 which airs monthly. Viva bradcast PBA games proposed that games be held four times a week on Wednesdays and Fridays with one game from 7-9 pm and two double-headers on Saturdays from 5-9 pm and Sundays from 4-8 pm.

Reformat as PBA on Viva Edit

On July 1, 2012, Viva's request, the PBA schedule were change to Wednesdays and Fridays with one game at 6:30-8:30 pm to competes head-on with the flagship news programs GMA's 24 Oras and ABS-CBN's TV Patrol while also on Saturday nights at 6-8 pm and the 4-hours of two double-headers on Sundays from 4-8:30 pm against with showbiz-oriented shows GMA's Showbiz Central and ABS-CBN's The Buzz.

At the time, Viva TV shows and movies were also frequently shown into commercial breaks, allowing PBA and more Viva-TV programs on IBC, and Viva stars like popstar Anja Aquilar performed at halftime to promote their TV and movies. While Paolo Trillo and Janelle So as halftime host for the coverage on Sunday.

In October 1, 2012, at Viva's request of the sports prduction IBC Sports as well, the game will change the new league schedule every Wednesdays and Fridays at 4:30pm-6:30pm for the first game, before the network's flagship newscast Express Balita starts at 6:30pm-7:30pm to compete with TV Patrol and 24 Oras, and the second game at 7:30pm-9:30pm. Meanwhile, every Saturdays from 5:00pm-7:00pm against and doubleheaders on Sundays at 4:00pm-8:00pm in the viewership TV ratings. Accommodate the airing of the local version of the two popular and top-rating game shows are produced (Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link, and reality talent search Born to be a Superstar). During the Commissioner's Cup, introduced Home Court with Janelle So as its host. The segment usually airs during halftime break of the second game in indlux of movie and TV stars at halftime making look like a variety show of sorts. IBC has served as the official broadcaster of the PBA and NBA games. This coverage was known as PBA on IBC Sports which is in turn aired on The Kapinoy Network. This is the third time that the PBA will be aired on IBC. The first was from 1996-2002 when Vintage Sports and later Viva Sports handled the television coverage. In 2003, IBC was one of two networks (the other being NBN) that covered the PBAbut ended before the season ended due to the failure of the consortium.

With limited airtime allocated for the PBA games on IBC and IBC News Network starting the 2013-14 season, which is the assigned courtside reporter hosts a halftime show reading the social media comments from viewers. On November 2013, IBC Sports, Viva Sports and Fox Sports Asia have entered in an agreement to air the Wednesday PBA games live on the cable channel. It will have its own English speaking broadcast panel to properly cater the cable channel's audience.[3]

For the 2013-14 Philippine Cup eliminations, the games were aired on the following schedule:[4]

The schedule for the 2014 PBA Commissioner's Cup has been slightly changed starting March 17, 2014, having both the Saturday doubleheader games now being aired live on IBC. The league scheduled its games on Wednesdays and Fridays with first game from 4:30 pm-6:30 pm and second game in 1.5 game at 8 pm-9:30 pm, provincial games on Saturdays and two double-headers on Sundays to accommodate IBC's loaded primetime programming while IBC's broadcasts were aimed at a massive and younger audience.

To maximize the four-day schedule of IBC, there will be one scheduled game during Wednesdays and Fridays: [5] The night live airing of the games was returned on starting March 26[6] after several PBA fans reacted negatively about the delayed airing of the first game. [7]

Presentation Edit

During the Philippine Cup eliminations, it is hosted by Anthony Suntay and Paolo Trillo. The format was changed starting the Quarterfinal round, usually having a three-man panel consisting of either Suntay, Trillo and Boom Gonzales. Special guests were added at the panel from time to time.

The Viva-TV located at the IBC studios in Broadcast City but sometimes air from the playing venue during special occasions, notably the league's opening ceremonies and the jersey retirement of Robert Jaworski.

Music Edit

The theme music of PBA on Viva TV was used as the similar to Vintage Sports coverage was used for the 1999 Commissioner's Cup and Governors' Cup. In 2000, the theme music was officially. In 2001, was used for the rock music. For the duration of the 2011-12 Philippine Cup Eliminations, "Showdown" by The Black Eyed Peas was used as IBC's main theme music for the PBA games in addition to the generic sports theme used. A different sports theme music was used starting from the semifinal round of the Philippine Cup. This was still used up to the finals of the 2012 Governors Cup.

For the 2012–13 PBA season, a theme music entitled "Kampihan Na!" was used on their on-air presentation. A different theme was used during the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds entitled "Tuloy ang Laban". Another theme was made for the finals, this time, incorporating the name of the fans of the two teams battling for the championship; "Gatas Republic" of Alaska and Barangay Ginebra. The vocals were later added during the elimination round of the Commissioner's Cup and was used until the Governors' Cup. A different theme was introduced during the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds of the Commissioner's Cup entitled "Tuloy ang Laban", which was also used sporadically during the Governors' Cup.

A remixed version of the "Kampihan na!" theme was used for the 2013-14 season

Watch Out For VTV 13!

March 13, 1996 (Manila Standard)

Here's something that either ABS-CBN and GMA could probably like to read and hear about.

IBC-13 has reportedly jumped to the third in the evening primetime ratings dring the Feb 18-24 period. That is bad news for the two squabbling network giants, huh?

According to the Media Pulse People Meter report, IBC's performance during that period was a significant improvement over its previous rankings of No.5 or 6.

And this was just a week after the start of VTV Primetime Network. It seems that more people are watching basketball games these days than when they were telecast on PTV-4. Survey says IBC-13 emerged No.3 in overall ranking across the three target markets: All people; males; 13 years old and above; and male and female in the board C (lower economic class) between seven and 29 years old.

Still, ABS-CBN ruled the ratings with GMA coming a far second.

Letty Ang, VTV VP for merchandising, say that the results of the survey indicate that the VTV Primetime Network is on the right track in providing the audience an intelligent alternative to what is current seen on other stations. "This is just the beginning," she adds. "We will continue to do better with our own brand of entertainment: Intelligent, interesting, vibrant, hip and alternative.

VTV Primetime Network provides 80 percent of IBC-13's primetime programs with an interesting mix of sports (*PBA*specifically), movies, animated features, American sitcoms and drama series and several locally produces shows which go under the umbrella title Hip Strip.

Hip Strip shows vary each night at 10 like the sports magazine Hot Stuff on Mondays, the musical MVTV on Tuesdays, showbiz talk Cinema Scoop on Wednesdays, the daring Pillow Talk on Thursdays and the Friday entertainment Rated E. Now, people are not talking only about ABS-CBN or GMA.

PBA SHOOTS IBC TO NO.3

April 4, 1996 (Manila Standard)

That's right. The basketball games with its millions of fans in Metro Manila alone is the single biggest factor why IBC-13 is now joining the primetime TV ratings now.

The PBA games TV coverage, skillfully handled by Vintage Enterprises, draw the audience to the network between 5 and 10 p.m. According to the PeopleMeter report for the week March 3-9, IBC ranked third nighttime televiewing. Between the 5 p.m. to 12 midnight slot, the network took a 12 percent share across All People category. ABS-CBN's was 47 percent and GMA's 23 percent. ABC got only seven percent and RPN, five percent. PBA's former carrier PTV-4 ranked in a measly three percent.

Among males (13 years and up) in the survey, IBC emerged as the third most watched network with a 14 percent share. With the Board C Male/Female (7-29 years old) category, it boast an 11 percent share.

It is without any doubt, the PBA Games '96 which emerged as the network's top rated with 30 percent share. But with other VTV Primetime Network's programs are steadily contributing to the network's increase in viewership. Notable is Hip Strip which is the umbrella title for the various daily shows telecast right after the PBA games until midnight.

Here are the audience share of those shows:

MVTV (Tuesdays), 13 percent share; CinemaScoop (Wednesdays), 12 percent; Rated E (Fridays), 12 percent; Hot Stuff (Mondays), 8 percent; and Pillow Talk (Thursdays), 6 percent. Other VTV shows that rated fairly well during the survey perios were the 12th Annual Star Awards for Movies (12 percent), Monday Movie Magic (8 percent), Sunday's Big Showdown (9 percent) and Super Champs (5 percent).

As I reported in this space, IBC's ratings figures are steadily climbing. They may not threaten the two giants now, but its presence may just be too preacarious to ignore.

IBC-13 now No.2 on primetime TV

May 20, 1996 (Manila Standard)

IBC-13 emerged as the second most-watched television network among people of all ages during evening primetime (6-10 p.m.) televiewing, according to the latest official TV ratings report coverting the week of April 28-May 4. It was also the second most-watched TV network during those among males aged 13 years and above as well as among middle-class males and females aged 7-29 years.

The weekly Media Pulse PeopleMeter report, which is commissioned by the Television Research Council (TVRC), showed that in the All-People category (male/females of all ages), IBC-13 gained a 24 percent share of evening primeitme ratings during April 28-May 4. ABS-CBN 2 garnered a 38 percent share. Training them were GMA-7 (21 percent), RPN-9 and ABC-5 (7 percent) and PTV-4 (3 percent).

In the Males 13 years and above category, IBC-13 (29 percent) was a close second behind ABS-CBN (38 percent) and ahead of GMA-7 (14 percent). In the Board C Males/Females 7-29 years old category, IBC-13 (19 percent) again trailed ABS-CBN 2 (37 percenty) but was slightly ahead of GMA-7 (18 percent).

"Reaching number two is a milestone for IBC-13 and VTV Primetime. Coming as it does after only 11 weeks of VTVprogramming is gratifying because it confirms our belief that there is a market out there for our kind of programs," said Carlos A. Velez, chairman of the Cavel Group of Companies.

VTV Primetime, a member of the Cavel Group, purchased 80 percent of IBC-13's primetime hours beginning February under a five-year agreement.

IBC's top-rating programs for April 28-May 4 include Sunday's Big Showdown (Guardian Angel, 33 percent share, No.17 among all-people), Hotstuff (27 percent share, No.18, among all-people), Monday's Movie Magic (Thief of Baghdad, 18 percent share), Blow by Blow (15 percent share) and Marlboro Tour '96 (18 percent share). VTV Primetime programming includes a mix of movies (Party of Five, Single Guy, Amazing Stories, Rated E) and "alternative" local productions (MVTV, Cinema Scoop, Hot Stuff, etc.) aimed primarily at a young market. VTV's jewel is the PBA games, which is still the country's top sports program and the third highest rating program (Game Two) across all people, garnering a rating of 12 percent and an audience share of 48 percent. IBC's strong sports programming is backed up by shows like Blow by Blow, Extreme Games and specials on tennis, billiards and others.

IBC's own shows also boosted Channel 13's strong performance with Wednesday animation favorites Ghost Fighter(11 percent) and Jiban (9 percent) leading the way.

Viva-TV dares Filipinos to their viewing habits

Some of the stars who will bolster the station's chances of competing against the two local network giants. Today, he said the quality of seguestered TV station IBC-13's signal is already better than its bigger rivals ABS-CBN and GMAin the Mega Manila area, where more than half of TV viewers in the country live in a recent press conference.

Hip, fresh and definitely more exciting!

Those words perfectly capture the new look of Channel 13 as its name to Viva-TV indicating the network's desire to reinvent itself and garner a bigger share of the market and TV advertising. Last 14 January 2011, a new set of directors took over IBC Board of Directors. The new Board immediately proceeded to improve the TV network's operation in the rarings like GMA and ABS-CBN.

Two days after the grand press launch held last Thursday, June 27, 2012, at the Trinoma Mall in Quezon City, Viva-TV on IBC publicly introduced its new set of programs via a television special titled Home of the Stars. The boob tube spectacle was taped at the Trinoma Mall in Quezon City and was aired earlier today, June 30, 2012, at exactly 5 p.m. in all IBC provincial stations into the network to ensure that major ABS-CBN and GMA for the top spot in the local broadcasting industry. Hosting the event were Luis Manzano and Anne Curtis of @Annebishowsa. The young and dynamic team of Viva-TV and their executives, led by Viva chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Jr., were all present to partake in the celebration. Home of the Stars provided a sneak peek of the network's more new shows that are all set to premiere this week. The source believes with Mr. Mercado at the helm, the network would be able to compete with bigger rivals ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp. and GMA Network, Inc. The Broadcast City property is the site of the amount will be placed in an escrow account with the Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI) covered by post-dated checks. P450 million to be paid through the construction and delivery of a new six-story corporate building, new live studios and commercial building for IBC studios.

The Quezon City property is a remaining 5,000-square meters corner property along Diliman for GMA and ABS-CBNoffered over P5.5 billion for the IBC network with their Viva's local production. "Plans are afoot to put up a new transmitter in Coca Cola plant, San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City and the so-called antenna farm in Quezon City with privatization to build new live studios in Broadcast City," the source said.

The stars came in full force to introduce and talk about their respective shows. Mirroring the newly repositioned network's image, the occasion adopted a variety show format complete with games, dance and song numbers and band performances by Callalily and Protein Shake.

Some of the stars who showed up that evening includes Vhong Navarro, Richard Gutierrez, Sam Pinto, Onemig Bondoc, James Yap of PBA, Cristine Reyes, Anja Aguilar, Christopher de Leon, Cesar Montano, Ashley Rivera aka Petra Mahalimuyak, Vice Ganda, Aga Muhlach, Nikki Bacolod, Jon Santos, IC Mendoza, Katya Santos and Maui Taylor, Charlie Green, Robin Padilla, KC Concepcion, among many others.

The official station jingle, "Home of the Stars," composed by Marcus Davis and Amber Davis and performed by Anja Aguilar, like more Viva stars employed by IBC-13, the country's third-biggest TV network including artists.

Viva-TV's overhaul was made possible after the Vic Del Rosario-owned network entered into a long-term block airtime agreement and partnership with Viva Entertainment, right now, we are now a strong No.3, new IBC charaters are mascots Mr. Kapinoy, Ms. TV, RadioGirl, NewspaperBoy, Barney, Baby Bop and BJ.

The tie-up allowed IBC-13 to boost its programming, which consequently bolstered the network's chances to compete against established network giants GMA-7 and ABS-CBN is getting high marks from the stars.

According to chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario Jr., the slogan, "Home of the Stars," mirrors the network's objective of radically altering the public's boxed viewing habits. The young network executive shared that they're here to offer innovative programs to cater to the needs of those who are looking for something different aside from the usual flavor offered especially on the primetime slot.

The entry of a new management in IBC-13, analysts said IBC Board of Directors, Intercontinental Broadcasting Corp. could give the network a chance to compete against ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp. and GMA Network Inc.for the top spot in the local broadcasting industry, our plans to beef-up our Viva-TV programming on IBC-13 with the new primetime schedules.

"Our objective is to shake the TV landscape and be able to your viewing habits," said Mr. Rosario in a conversation with PEP (Philippine Entertainment Portal). "Ang maraming tao kasi akala nila Dos and Siyete, gusto namin 'yong perception mo." According to Mr. Rosario, Channel 13 is handling the engineering side but Viva Entertainment will be providing the content of the TV station. We keep in constant touch with our viewers through Facebook, Twitterand Multiply, he related. During those years, too, I was witness to the growing rivalry between Channel 2 (ABS-CBN), Channel 7 (GMA Network) and Channel 13 (IBC).

A relatively new player in the local television industry, IBC-13 has moved up to the third spot in terms of ratings, trailing behind GMA Network Inc. and Lopez-owned ABS-CBN Broadcasting Corp.

In the question and answer portion of the Viva-TV press launch, Mr. Rosario allayed fears that the TV station might be influenced by Malaysian investors. He explained, "IBC-13 is headed by chairman Eric Canoy. Viva Entertainment has simply entered into a block airtime agreement." The primetime block of rival networks ABS-CBN and GMA-7 are filled with asianovelas when Viva-TV promises to deliver new shows that veer away from this genre.

"We want to give people an alternative. If we offer people another teleserye, pareho lang kami sa Channel 2 and Channel 7. I think they are serving their market very well but we just want to want to provide an alternative for people who might to watch a teleserye on primetime."

Starting tonight, June 30, Viva-TV now airs free TV network IBC-13 using its brand new 60kw transmitter that cost US2.6 million (about P117 million). This allows Viva-TV to be picked up in areas as far as San Jose. Cabanatuan in the north.

New schedule for the PBA this 2012

PBA officials cool on Viva Sports and Sports 5proposal Malaya Online Edition
July 1, 2012 - Viva Television, holder of the PBA's television franchise and also on Sports5, a sports division of TV5, has proposed drastic changes in the league's playdates, revisions that sources within the league say will not prosper. It also airs as PBA on TV5 which airs monthly and also AKTV, AksyonTV, Kapatid TV5 and AksyonTV International. Viva is the home of the biggest and brightest stars in the country, through Viva-TV, the entertainment network of Viva Entertainment Group headed by chairman and CEO is Vic Del Rosario.

Viva-TV proposed that games be held three times a week, with just one game to be held every Wednesday and Friday starting at 6:30 p.m.to compete with flagship news prorgams of GMA's 24 Oras and ABS-CBN's TV Patrolwhile the provincial games also on Saturday nights. It also proposed that 4 hours of two games be held every Sunday starting at 4 p.m. with some halftime entertainment portion for guest, and players reach out to more fans and further expand gross sales while boosting its own drive to recoup its huge investment.

Last season, one games were held every Wednesday and Friday while the provincial games on Saturday at 6 p.m. and two games also every Sunday, with matches starting at 4 p.m. over the outfit's carrying station Channel 13, more sponsors are now lining up for advertising spots. It also airs on AKTV. Excitement is the PBA's new partnership withViva-TV on IBC 13, the country's number one entertainment network which is fast gaining recognition as Home of the Stars with the dominated TV rating of the giant networks GMA Network and ABS-CBN. While the guest peformers from Viva stars during halftime on Sunday.

The 2012-13 PBA Season marks of Viva Entertainment and TV5 deal with the league approximately worth P1 billion to televise the games, P770 million of it in cash. By involving the fans, TV5, owned by telecommunications mogul Manny V. Pangilinan, is also hoping to improve its gross sales and Viva Entertainment, headed by chairman and CEO Vic Del Sosario. The changes, Viva-TV said, are necessary to counteract the growing opposition posed by the soap operas and game shows being aired by other networks during the nightcap of the league's usual doubleheader.

Also, the single game days are projected to help boost Channel 13's game shows like The Weakest Link and Who Wants to be a Millionaire? are all produced by Viva Television. The PBA's executive committee will meet tomorrow to discuss Viva Entertainment's proposals. A decision is expected to be handed down well before the opening of the league's 37th season last October 1, 2011.

This early, league insiders, including those from the Commissioner's Office, have voiced opposition to the proposal, saying it may help the television network but not necessarily the PBA.

"Mukhang mas talo ang PBA," said one league insider who requested anonymity.

"Kung three days a week ang laro, lalaki ang overhead ng liga sa mga tauhan, upa sa venue and the like," said another source.

Another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, like Ginebra, San Miguel, Alaska, Red Bull, Air 21 and many more.

"Malamang na hindi kagatin ng tao lalo na't kung mahihinang teams ang maglalaban. Isa pa, hindi mo naman p'wedeng i-schedule lagi ng ordinaryong araw ang mga teams na iyon," said another.

PBA tickets range from P150 to P350 while venue rentals vary from P20,000 to P35,000 or a percentage of the gate, whichever is higher.

It also operates entertainment channels such as Pinoy Box Office, Viva Channel and Pinoy Extreme.

Viva-TV's banner shows will continue to be its sports programs, having more sports events and live sports coverage on IBC with the popularity basketball tournaments for the National Basketball Association (NBA) and the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA), the boxing matches like Manny Pacquiao, Erik Morales and the filipino flash Nonito Donaire for all boxing aficionados like boxing championships, and recently the live coevrage of the Southeast Asian Games and the Olympic Games in a coverage's quality in the sports program lineup which holds the rights to the two of the popular basketball franchise.

A check with the engineers of IBC-13 showed that among its seven stations, Manila had a strong signal to reaching the number 3 position. It has a brand new 60-kilowatt Harris Transmitter is operating at just over 20kw with its antenna system. IBC Cebu and Davao have 5kw transmitters, Cagayan de Oro 1kw, Iloilo 400-kilowatts and Laoag a mere 100-kilowatts with a weak relay station in Baguio City as the government pursues the privatization of the state-run media company. As for Viva within commercials, it is a blocktimer on IBC, Viva-TV runs all the primetime Kapinoy shows on IBC. IBC's aggressive on marketing itself with all these new Viva programs to rival the leading networks.

Viva-TV shows that audiences tune in to IBC for surprising that the station promotes through network plugs because it is the highest rating and its best performing asset when households and offices literally in Winx Club, the trend-setting animated phenomenal for fairies and Rosalinda, the Mexican telenovela whose star even enjoyed an audience with the president. A new CEO and chairman Vic del Rosario, Jr. put up Viva-TV on IBC for the sports and entertainment programming with the NBA and PBA are the flagship programs, will also improve its signal in the provinces. He said that Sports Radio 918, also owned by the government, is "a possibility."

The new dose of the NBA games in store for the sports fans of the popular basketball entertinment on free TV following the recent contract together with Viva Sports and IBC-13 with a powerhouse line-up of brand new shows aims to increase the revenues, net profit and income with the world-class, quality, popular, top-rating and award-winning homegrown programming during the primetime slot. The government-owned IBC-13 will be the station carrier of the PBA games, which will be aired on primetime on Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays to cater more to the A-B-C and upper D-E classes of the society. We feel that IBC-13 is the best TV network from channels 2 and 7 to cover the PBA.

The new partnership will now have a total of two games being aired every weekend on IBC-13 on primetime every Saturday at 3:30pm and on daytime Sunday at 12:15pm (an alternative to the Sunday musical variety shows by competitors ASAP and Party Pilipinas), which is the home to L.A. Lakers, Atlanta Hawks, Boston Celtics, Aklahoma City Thunder, Dallas Mavericks, Chicago Bulls, Denver Nuggets, Miami Heat, New York Knicks, Toronto Raptors, Cleveland Cavaliers, the Orlando Magic, the Washington Wizards, the Brooklyn Nets, theIndiana Pacers, Milwaukee Bucks, the Philadelphia 76ers, the Golden State Warriors, Portland Trail Blazers, the L.A. Clippers, Phoenix Suns, Houston Rockets, Memphis Grizzles and New Orleans Hornets, including the Pre-Season, Regular Season, NBA Playoffs and NBA Finals.

Solar Sports on the other hand, will still showing 7-8 regular NBA fares on cable throught Basketball TV and on free TV broadcaster with ABS-CBN and Studio 23. Meanwhile, the PBA games has got to be their number one source of income on Viva Sports in a blocktimer of IBC. Compromise the PBA, and they might compromise their own revenue holder of the PBA's television franchise. In the same meeting, Viva Sports' proposal of the PBA playdates to the five-times-a-week games. PBA will now hold a one game to be held on Wednesdays to Fridays starting at 4:30pm-6:30pm and 7:30pm-9:30pm (beaten than Juan dela Cruz and Indio nd on Saturdays at 6:00pm (against the Kapamilya Deal or No Deal and Celebrity Bluff), and also the regular double-header of a two games held on Sundays at 4:00pm (going against showbiz talk shows like The Buzz and H.O.T TV), including the the Rookie Draft, the Philippine Cup, the Commissioners' Cup and the Governors' Cup. Another source said one-game weekday matches may not sit well with the PBA fans, even if these games feature crowd favorites, like Barangay Ginebral San Miguel, San Mig Coffee Mixers, Barako Bull Energy Cola, Meralco Bolts, Milo Energy Drink, Petron Blaze Boosters, Air21 Express, Rain or Shine Elasto Painters, Alaska Aces, Talk N' Text Tropang Texters and GlobalPort Batang Pier watching favorite teams in action, and also topped with live guest performances from your favorite Viva stars. On Wednesdays to Fridays, the games will be at the Mall or Asia Arena and on Saturdays and Sundays, will be at the Smart Araneta Coliseum. A new ticket rates during Wednesdays to Fridays will slashed to the rates with the Cuneta Astrodome, Makati Coliseum and Philsports Arena for their own location at the time with the PBA beaten than primetime shows from Channel 2 and 7 while a broadcast the games in IBC's primetime block renamed Viva-TV, continue to cover the season, saying that IBC and Viva will now have a sports programs. The changes, Viva Sports said, counteract the growing opposition posted by soap operas and game shows being aired by other networks during the nightcap of the league's usual doubleheader. Also, the single game days are projected to help boost Channel 13's own game shows produced by Viva Television. PBA tickets range from P150 to P350 while venue rentals vary from P20,000 to P35,000 or a percentage of the gate, whichever is higher. In Viva-TV shows, with the hit phenomenal cartoons Winx Club, hit anime Cyborg Kurochan, hit telenovelas Rosalinda, hit asianovelas My Daughter the Flower, top-rating game shows like Who Wants to be a Millionaire and The Weakest Link for the million-peso prize and the popular talent search show contest Born to be a Star for the singing star fans. Those shows help bring in the money for IBC-13 with the revenues and income will now put the NBA and PBA in the Viva-TV primetime lineup on Channel 13 by the government

Viva-TV once again be seen on the Kapinoy network IBC in the local networks; for the first time in the history of television that the NBA and PBA games are in the same station. ## PBA board pulls plug on AKTV plan to switch broadcast from IBC 13 to TV5

The PBA board, led by chairman Robert Non, feels the in Philippine TV could cause confusion among TV viewers especially with the import-laden tournament now on its crucial stage. The PBA board of governors on Thursday rejected Viva-TV's proposal to the league's television broadcast of the Commissioner's Cup semifinals and finals with IBC has a total of 6 games with one game every Wednesdayand Friday at 4:30 p.m. for first game and 7:30 p.m. for second game, provincial games on Saturdays at 6 p.m. and two-games on Sundays at 4 p.m., and TV5.

In explaining its decision, the board, led by chairman Robert Non, said the channels could cause confusion among television viewers especially with the import-laden tournament now on its crucial stage.

"Taking into consideration the possible negative impact on our television and live audience with respect to the abrupt change in channel and schedule of games, the board decided that the airing of PBA and NBA games in IBC-13 under the schedule provided by the league and as provided in the television contract shall continue to be forced and in effect," said the board in a statement.

The league, however, gave its TV partner the option to air the playoff games of the Commissioner's Cup both onViva on IBC and TV5, similar to an arrangement the league had in 2003 when the games were aired on parallel broadcasts over NBN-4 and IBC-13. The proposal to transfer channels during the PBA and NBA playoffs made by Viva-TV in the hope of airing the games before an even bigger audience.

Viva-TV, the primetime programming block of Vic del Rosario's Viva Communications, Inc., Viva-TV has now a block-time contract with IBC-13 that gives it the primetime slot from 5 p.m.-12 midnight slot, while 2:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. on Saturdays and 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. on Sundays in the government-owned channel - a deal that Vivachairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr.. The development is now affect the PBA Commissioner's Cup and the NBA Playoffs coverage since the tournament would be over by the time the Viva-IBC deal, bthe board will now discuss on which free television channel the PBA and NBA games aired. With IBC-13 being eyed for privatization by the government, the station agree to any long-term contract with block timers in The Kapinoy Network remains the undisputed number 3 position, while TV5 is now reloaded with Kapatidprograming during its primetime slot, including an hourlong newscast.

PBA rejects TV5 and IBC plan to air games

The PBA Board yesterday turned down the proposed transfer of the league's telecast with The Kapatid Network of TV5 and The Kapinoy Network of IBC under the Viva-TV block. In a statement issued after the governors met at the PBA office in Libis, Quezon City, Commissioner Chito Salud said the impact such may have on the league's follow the reasons behind the league's response to the planned.

"The airing of PBA and NBA games in IBC-13 under the schedule of Viva-TV provided by the PBA and NBA, and as provided in the television contract shall continue to be forced and in effect," Salud said for the governors, adding that there are expected improvements in the programs, in the signal quality, equipment and facilities of IBC.

IBC-13 is the government-owned sequestered TV and radio network in the country in The Kapinoy Network is now the undisputed number 3 network nationwide, not only children's television programming for kids but also with Viva-TV as the primetime programming block on IBC such as the PBA, NBA, WWE Raw, WWE Smackdown, Who Wants to be a Millionaire, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star as well as the telenovela and koreanovelas Amor Bravio, Palabra de Mujer, Shut Up Flower Boy Band and All About My Love, and the anime series in Japan like Chinpui, Kirarin and Cyborg Kurochan.

Viva Entertainment's block-time contract with IBC known as The Kapinoy Network for the live telecast of the PBA and NBA games becoming the TV viewership ratings from the the network, through its partnership chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario's Viva Group of Companies will now renew the block-time agreement being eyed for privatization by the government networks, from the established television networks in which Viva-TV on IBC offers more entertainment programs such as Mexican telenovelas, Korean asianovelas and Japanese anime series while IBCdedicated to the children's television programming for kids.

Media Quest also intends to air games on TV5, starting with the mid-season tourney's semifinals. Aside from this, the move also entails an 9 p.m. starting time for each game. That was turned by the governors who, like Salud, have the league fans as priority. The Commissioner's Cup semis start today while the finals, also a best-of-five series, kick off May 15 and will last up to May 24 at the latest.

The board came up with the decision "taking into consideration the possible nimpact on our television and live audience with respect to the networks and schedule of games," Salud explained.

Viva Sports will now handle the basketball contract with the PBA and NBA to air the games over IBC-13 and radio is on, while Media Quest's contract with the PBA to air the games over TV5 and on radio. During the same meeting, the PBA Board also approved changes in the rules covering imports and unrestricted free agent players. Among the flagship Viva-TV hit programming on IBC are the PBA and NBA, WWE Raw and WWE Smackdown, Who Wants to be a Millionaire, The Weakest Link and Born to be a Star as well as IBC's flagship news programs Express Balita and Ronda Trese.

Watch the NBA Eastern and Western Conference Finals on IBC this weekend

May 24, 2013

The road to the NBA finals continues as the four remaining teams battle it out for a shot to win the coveted Larry O'Brien Trophy. Watch the Miami Heat and the Indiana Pacers play game two of Eastern Conference Finals this Friday (May 24) starting at 6:30pm and Sunday (May 26) at 11:30am, via satellite on Viva-TV on IBC while the San Antonio Spurs and Memphis Grizzlies series compete in game three of the Western Conference Finals this Saturday (May 25) at 4:00pm and Sunday (May 26) at 4:00pm, live on Viva-TV on IBC.

LeBron James and the Miami Heat continue their impressive playoff run as they head into game 2 with a thrilling game 1 overtime victory courtesy of LeBron's game winning lay-up. Even though the Heat are the heavy favorite to win this series, Indiana has been the team to constantly exploit the Heat's lack of size as seen in game 1 with their hard-nosed physical play in the paint and their aggressive rebounding. Will the Heat prove that their game 1 win wasn't a fluke or will Roy Hibbert and the Pacers steal home court advantage away?

Meanwhile, the Spurs, coming off an impressive overtime win, continue to dominate the Grizzlies as the series heads to Memphis for game three. So far, the Grizzlies have no answer for Tony Parker and company as the Spurs get the job done on both offense and defense limiting the Grizzlies to 86 points per game while scoring 99 points per game in the series. Will the Spurs take the commanding 3-0 series lead or will Z-Bo and the Grizzlies bounce back and take care of business at home?

Tune in this Friday (May 24) for game two of the Eastern Conference Finals (Miami Heat vs. Indiana Pacers), 6:30pm, live and this Saturday (May 25) for game three of the Western Conference Finals (San Antonio Spurs vs. the Memphis Grizzles), at 4:00pm on Viva-TV on IBC.

Watch the Eastern Conference Finals this Sunday with Miami Heat vs. Indiana Pacers for Game 3 at 11:30am and Game 4 live at the Western Conference Finals this Sunday with San Antonio Spurs vs. Memphis Grizzles for Game 4 at 4:00pm live on Viva-TVon IBC-13.

The Olympics comes on Kapinoy

January 25, 2014

The Iceberg Skating Palace in Sochi, Russia where the 2014 Winter Olympics will be held starting on Feb. 7

Olympia in Greece is where the Olympic torch is customarily lit to start its journey to the country where the next Olympiad is to be held. That torch, figuratively speaking, has come home to IBC-13 as your Kapinoy Network under the Media ng Bayan and Viva Sports has recently been appointed as the official broadcaster for the forthcoming Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia and the Summer Olympics of 2016 in Rio de Janeiro in Brazil — two of the biggest and most awaited sporting events in the world. IBC will be bringing these monumental sporting events to every corner of the archipelago and to all Pinoy sports aficionados through Viva Sports' various broadcast platforms.

Bagging the rights to the Olympics by itself took an Olympian effort, according to coach Ronnie Nathanielsz, head of Viva Sports and Jojo Lastimosa, head of IBC Sports. "The representatives of Dentsu, the Olympics rights holder for Asia, made a presentation to IBC, INN and Pinoy Extreme offering the entire Olympic package and asked if we were interested to bid," recalls coach Ronnie. It was an opportunity too difficult to pass up but coach Ronnie knew that these major events need careful planning, hence the need to tap all platforms of the Media ng Bayan group of companies.

"It has to be the PCGG conglomerate, thus we made a pitch to the top brass with the stipulation that the broadcast rights should include all our platforms — IBC, IBC Sports and Viva Sports, cable, mobile, Internet, live stream — and the management gave the green light."

Supporting yo ONE Fighting Championship, in cooperation with Asian Television Content corporation agreed to a blockbuster deal with IBC offers their programming free to viewers, thus the reach of the deal has a much greater impact than that of a pay channel TV deal. As part of the agreement in their programming features several sports shows ranging from basketball, boxing, billiards, cockfights, MMA and wrestling as well as a mix of news and current affairs, public service, business and documentaries, IBC News Network (INN) which will bring coverage of past events to fight fans across the Philippines will broadcast the one hour in ONE FC programming every Saturday at 7:30PM and Sunday at 8:30PM showcase our fighters every week to millions of homes throughout the country.

Proud to broadcast the best sporting in both the Philippines and the region and ONE FC puts on world-class entertainment that our viewers will enjoy regarded for their line up of television, bringing a multitude of sports programming. Kapinoy viewers now also get the chance to watch the best Filipino fighters at the same time such as Eduard Folayang and Honorio Banario in action

IBC chairman Eric Canoy, IBC CEO and president Boots Anson-Roa and IBC executive vice-president Lito Ocampo Cruz sees the Olympiad coverage as a boon to Philippine sports and an inspiration for the country's aspiring athletes. "This is wonderful news for Filipino sports fans. Sports has proven to be very effective in uniting all Filipinos; that's why we are excited to bring to them the biggest sporting event with the best athletes from all over the world," he stresses.

Coach Ronnie also sees this as an opportunity to bring to our young people's consciousness the Olympian ideals of Citius, Altius, Fortius — faster, higher, stronger. He ascribes the same principles to The Kapinoy Network's efforts in getting the Olympics. "Acquiring the broadcast rights for the first time is a perfect example. We acted faster than the rest, appealed to a higher purpose than mere broadcasting — we want to be there when the Philippines wins its first Olympic Gold — and in so doing made a stronger case to the IOC that we are the most ideal Olympic partner."

IBC-13's Olympic coverage begins this Feb. 7 with the Sochi 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia, which has 98 medal events in seven sports. This is the first time the Winter Games will be held in Russia and figure skater Michael Martinez from Muntinlupa will be the first homegrown Filipino competing. It marks the return of the Philippines to the Winter Games after a 22-year absence and the first time a Pinoy figure skater represents the country. Along with the 17-year-old figure skater are other Olympians with Filipino ties -— Gilmore Junio (long-track speed skater, Canada) and JR Celski (short-track speed skater, US) — performing in the biggest winter sports event.

The Kapinoy Network will also air this year's Youth Olympics in Nanjing, China. There are 222 medal events in 28 sports that include three-on-three basketball, taekwondo, swimming, tennis, boxing, athletics, football and beach volleyball happening from Aug. 16 to 28. And the grand game of them all, the Rio 2016 Summer Olympics to be held from Aug. 5 to 21, 2016. The Rio Olympics marks the first time that the games will be held in South America and is expected to carry 314 medal events in 28 sports. Coverage of the games will include the Filipino's favorite sports, led by basketball, taekwondo, volleyball, badminton and boxing.

Viva Sports on IBC Sports cements its claim to being the No.1 provider of the latest and best sports events for the Filipino viewers no matter where they may be in the globe. The Olympics broadcast highlights what other sports offerings the network has in store for the enjoyment of the average viewers, including the FIBA Men's World Cup 2014 in Spain; the Incheon (South Korea) Asian Games 2014, which is Asia's biggest sporting event with 45 participating countries; SuperBowl XLVIII (48) which is America's largest spectacle; the NBA in its 2014-2015 Season; ONE FC, which is on with Viva Sports on IBC Sports; and, of course, the PBA which is entering its 40th year in October.

Truly said, sports is not only for those who play it, but more so for those who watch it. This is overall what the Viva Sports on IBC Sports tagline is all about: Sports you watch, sports that matter.

IBC 13 capable and ready to the TV coevrage of PBA games, says official

February 19,2014

Fans complaining about the strong signal of Channel 13 have been sending screen grabs reach wih IBC-13 to compare the giant networks.

WITH the complex TV coverage setup of the PBA games coming under fire from basketball fans, league chairman Mon Seguismundo admitted a government-controlled channel IBC-13 is a 'possible option' for the league. The Kapinoy Network IBC is capable and willing to the television coverage of the PBA and NBA games amid signal and accessibility strong by the league's new TV network.

When the rise of ABS-CBN, GMA, IBC and TV5 are the station for mass entertainment and the quality local productions while RPN has upscale appealing to the upper and middle classes and the mass audiece. The president and CEO Boots Anson-Roa worked for The Kapinoy Network where he became the driving force behind the station's innovative programming catapulted to industry leadership.

"We have to understand that it (going to IBC Channel 13) would entail another arrangement. It's another contract and that will also entail a lot of investment," Seguismundo told Spin.ph on Tuesday and introduced innovative schemes for sponsors by setting up a marketing arm Separate from the station of TV spots. IBC went for mass-based programming to catch up with ABS-CBN and GMA also began to establish a reputation for creativity and innovation with groundbreaking programs. To be one of the top players in the TV industry. With its many hit shows and commercial success, it can be said that the same level as Channel 2 and 7. The network was set up by the Benedicto Group of Companies in 1975. The 1986 EDSA people power revolt that led to the toppling of the Marcos regime, the station was sequestered by the PCGG on suspicion that it was part of the alleged ill-gotten wealth of Marcos crony Roberto Benedicto.

In 1992, the government assumed full ownership of IBC 13 following a compromise agreement between the PCGG and Benedicto over company share. Many of the broadcast journalists now working ABS-CBN Channel 2, GMA Channel 7, IBC Channel 13 and TV5 Channel 5 originally worked and honed their skills at IBC-13 and RPN-9. They could hardly be looking for a greener pasture. This explains why the editors and reporters now manning the news departments of IBC 13 and RPN 9 are the new faces. A good number of old hands in the news departments of the sequestered networks.

A top official of the number 3 station IBC who requested that he be named told Spin.ph the original time slot the PBA games used to occupy is still open should the league decide to return to its old home.

"We're always open naman to have them back. A top-rated and profitable broadcast network IBC has been currently the home of the PBA and NBA through the years, and Irelationship," said the IBC official attracts hordes of film-goers and needs reconstruction or re-invention in order to survive and catch up.

IBC Sports and Viva Sports, the league's TV coveror, with its block time agreement with IBC-13 finding a spot for the league games, owing to the loaded prime-time programming of the network. As such, the soft-spoken PBA chair is again appealing for league fans to remain patient as the board tries to work hand-in-hand with official TV coveror Viva Sports to come up with the best solution in order to the viewing woes of league fans.

A state of any private television and radio network spells disaster because the government lacks the expertise to ensure commercial viability. Think also of the bureaucratic constraints that erode the station's ability to compete in the entertainment and mass media industry. Realistically, the government should have IBC-13, along with another sequestered station, RPN-9. As people in the know said, the sequestration of IBC 13 toll on the station's programming. That has forced IBC Sports and Viva Sports to tap IBC News Network (INN), IBC's sister channel on the UHF band, for the live coverage of the games while the second games of 3 double-headers during Wednesday, Friday and Sunday and the 1 game on Saturday were also carried simultaneously by IBC. The shift to INN has caused an uproar among the league's fans who claim the UHF channel has signal reception in their areas.

Fans have been demanding for the PBA coverage to a VHF channel as stipulated in the contract signed by Viva Sports when it won the league's broadcast rights. Cynics in our midst suspect that every administration to part with the two networks because they were useful for propaganda purposes, destabilization plots and in waging election campaigns.

On Tuesday, PBA chairman Mon Segismundo said returning the coverage to IBC 13 "is an option." The Kapinoy Network, for its part, said it is willing to the PBA and NBA "with open arms."

"If the (current TV) set-up and the fans like, they can always return to us," said the IBC official.

The IBC official bared that a block time program is set to come in by January, maintained the government-sequestered station can also always the original PBA time slot.

"Sa ngayon, bakante sa amin yung time slot ng PBA... Pero kung babalik sila, we can ask the coming blocktimer to air on a different time slot. We can do that for the fans of sports," added the source.

"Yan naman kami totally nagkalayo. They (IBC Sports and Viva Sports) will always have an airtime with us," added the channel 13 official of The Kapinoy Network.

PBA D-LEAGUE SEASON 5 ON INN-45 PRIMETIME

Tuesday, July 1st, 2014

The PBA Developmental League will have its games televised starting October after league commissioner Chito Salud concluded negotiations with Asian Television Content Corporation and Stoplight Media Group for a coverage contract.

Salud sealed the deal with ATC @ IBC president Engineer Reynaldo Sanchez and Matthew Yngson, president and CEO of Stoplight Media Group just recently.

Salud said the games will aired on INN-45 at primetime on a delayed telecast from 7:30-9:30 pm on Tuesday and Thursday, and 1:30-4:30 pm on Saturday on the same day.

The list of PBA's young stars who have come from the PBADL are Rain or Shine's Paul Lee, Alex Nuyles and Raymund Almazan, San Mig Super Coffee's Alex Mallari and Allein Maliksi and Ian Sangalang, Barako Bull's Jerick Fortuna and RR Garcia, Meralco's Cliff Hodge, Ginebra's Chris Ellis, Globalport's Terrence Romeo and Alaska's Calvin Abueva, Vic Manuel, Raffy Reyes and Ryan Buenafe.

"We have worked hard to find a network that will not only cover the games but also share our goals and vision for the league. I'm very grateful to Mr. Sanchez and Mr. Yngson for putting their trust and believing that the PBA D-League has lot more to offer than just being a breeding ground for players aspiring to make it to the PBA," Salud said.

The PBADL is tentatively scheduled to open its fifth season on Oct. 28 with the holding of the Aspirants' Cup while its second Rookie Draft will be held on Sept. 16.

As this developed, Salud is inviting all companies and corporations interested to participate in the PBADL's Aspirants' Cup. All interested parties have until July 30 to submit their letters of intent.

With NLEX and Blackwater Sports joining the PBA starting its 40th season, many see a wide open race for PBA D-League supremacy, with more exciting and hard-fought games in store for basketball fans.

PBA D-League Has a New (or Old) Partner

July 4, 2014

The PBA D-League will return to IBC News Network 45, this time under the deal forged by blocktimer Asian Television Content Corporation. (Photo credit: Interaksyon.com)

The PBA Developmental League will have a new partner to cover their games this upcoming season.

It was announced that the PBA D-League and Asian Television Content Corporation will join forces to air the said league's games on IBC News Network (INN 45), beginning next season. The league's games will be aired on a delayed basis from Tuesday and Thursday 7:30-9:30 p.m. and Satruday at 1:30-4:30 p.m.

Last season, the PBA D-League was practically shut out of television coverage. Although Sports5, by way of AksyonTV, aired the finals of the two conferences, they were unable to air the elimination and playoff matches due to their prior commitments with other sports events. A possible broadcast deal with GMA News TV also fell through, mainly because the parent network lacked the necessary resources to cover the games.

The new broadcast agreement will mark the PBA D-League's return to its original coveror. IBC-13 previously covered the D-League from 2011-13, as part of the future Viva Sports blocktime deal.

ATC @ IBC started last June, and featured a mix of new and old programs. Among their new programs are telenovelas The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente, and the imported Asian dramas like Spy Myung-Wol and Hayate the Combat Butler. On INN 45, documentary programs Animalia, Confidential and Stoplight TV. Classic programs such as Retro TV, Cooltura and ONE FC are also included.

The addition of the PBA D-League further establishes ATC as an emerging force in the media industry, one that is expected to bolster its current lineup in the future. But it remains to be seen if their new investment will result in some revenue for both ATC and IBC-13. Nevertheless, this should be a welcome development for the PBA D-League, who needed some exposure for their teams and its upcoming players.

IBC-13 doing fine job covering PBA

July 5, 2014

IBC-13 has, from the outset, done a commendable job of covering the games of the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) given some of its limitations of signal and reach which are being quickly and effectively addressed. What is significant is that the Kapinoy people have worked hard in improving the quality of their production with the introduction of significant innovations that have enhanced the pleasure of watching the games on television. One of the latest innovations which is certainly original but has served a singular purpose in educating and informing the fans about the nuances of interpretation of rules and regulations concerning fouls, in relation to calls or non-calls by the referees.

Although Filipino basketball fans are among the most knowledgeable in the world, quite a few do not really know the guiding philosophy behind specific rules when applied to particular game situations.

IBC Channel 13 has taken what we consider a sound step in further strengthening the knowledge of our fans which should help them enjoy the unfolding drama on the hardcourt even more, by having the PBA's consultant on technical matters, Perry Martinez, explain particular calls or non-calls and the rules that govern the decision-making process of the referees.

From Day One when we watched Perry respond to questions by the TV panel and interact with them, we realized how much it could benefit all of us in understanding the referees decisions considering they are often maligned by many of us who don't understand the underlying philosophy behind the calls or non-calls.

It also made us realize that with Perry Martinez speaking to a wide nationwide audience, the referees are on their toes, realizing that they need to make sure they make the right calls or are correct when they don't make calls despite the histrionics of coaches and players.

Perry was in the limelight in Game 1 of the ongoing PBA Governors Cup best-of-five series when referee Jimmy Mariano (not to be confused with the lanky, sweet-shooting lefty of our national Olympic team years ago) didn't call a foul in the final play of the game when it seemed that Rain Or Shine guard Paul Lee was fouled by San Mig Coffee's Mark Pingris while attempting a three point shot.

The PBA has exonerated referee Jimmy Mariano following a contentious non-call in the dying seconds of Game 1 of the San Mig Super Coffee-Rain Or Shine best-of-five Governors Cup championship series after technical consultant Perry Martinez told TV analysts that March Pingris should have been called for a foul on guard Paul Lee stating "If I were the referee I would have called a foul" which would have given Lee three free throws and a chance to tie the game.

Martinez, who has taken on the same role that veteran referee Steve Javie played in the ESPN coverage of the recent*NBA Finals* said that if he was the referee, he would have called a foul against Pingris and awarded Paul Lee three free throws.

The respected basketball official provided the basis for his statement when he explained the principle of verticality and used a replay of the incident to illustrate and support his assessment that Pingris actually lunged forward in his effort to stop the three-point attempt of Paul Lee.

In fairness to all concerned the referee had the right to make what is considered a judgment call and in his valued judgment, there was no foul.

After a thorough review of the incident PBA Commissioner Chito Salud issue a statement through Media Bureau Chief Willy Marcial in which he said "Upon reiew of the play this Office finds it to be a straight-up borderline call that could have gone either way. It was a 50-50 judgment call."

The statement added "It can be debated and second-guessed, but the referee's judgment cannot be faulted under the circumstances."

A fair and acceptable stance by the Commissioner in effectively exonerating referee Mariano.

As expected, Rain or Shine officials and die-hard supporters continue to question the judgmental non-call. Little do they realize that there was a real possibility that Paul Lee would not have converted all three free throw attempts which was needed to send the game into overtime with no guarantee that ROS would win.

To be fair to San Mig Coffee which is chasing a coveted Grand Slam, they came back from a 17-point deficit and if ROS allowed this to happen then they probably deserved to lose.

Removed from the emotion and tension of watching the games at courtside and merely following the action on television we have the capacity to look at the game in a more balanced perspective, especially since our lifelong favorite Ginebra San Miguel is not involved. From what we've seen, going back to the semifinals, San Mig's Tim Cone has coached with more than a touch of brilliance. His ability to play to his team's strengths, to make what others regard as questionable substitutions that invariably pay off and to bring out the best in his players both individually and collectively have helped make San Mig Coffee as one fan commented on Twitter that this is the best team in the country next to Gilas Pilipinas. Frankly, it would be hard to disagree no matter what happens in the remainder of the championship series.

As for IBC Sports and its head, national coach Chot Reyes, they deserve plaudits for their various productions and the truly welcome decision to broadcast the games on their FM Radio network which saves us from the agony of trying to listen to dzSR Sports radio where the signal is erratic and where one or two of the announcers sound punch drunk.

The TV panel lost a crucial asset when Jason Webb was recruited by SanMig Coffee but they do have other solid commentators with anchor Magoo Marjon the torchbearer of intensity and unbridled passion and "The Dean" Quinito Henson whose scholarly insights add to the enjoyment of the fans.

Sequestered TV station IBC-13 (now onwed by Viva Entertainment and Asian Television Content) will also be showing the local franchise of The Million Second Quiz with Drew Arellano as host, Killer Karaoke with the heir of rap Elmo Magalona as host, Born to be a Superstar with the young diva princess Anja Aguilar as host and Who Wants to be a Millionaire? with Robi Domingo as host.

Back in the glorious days of '70s and '80s, IBC was the network to watch. May print ad na nilabas kanina sa mga entertainment pages ng broadsheets at mukhang ito ang bagong mukha ng IBC-13 to be launched this Sunda in IBC and all cable channels.

Kirarin and Ghost Fighter are the top-rated Japanese animes slated to primetime. Catch Me Fall in Love with Erich Gonzales Dingdong Dantes and Gloria Romero at 5:30 p.m., the top fantaserye is Batang Genius with Mavy Legaspi and Cassy Legaspi along with Jake Cuenca and Nicole Andersson at 6 p.m. and another one is Janella: A Princess Girl topbilled by Janella Salvador with Marlo Mortel and Jerome Ponce at 7:30 p.m. A drama-serye Your Heart, My Love, the heavy drama series with Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago and Christopher de Leon aired at 9:30 p.m. There's a sexy drama anthology series Sandy's Romance starring Nadine Lustre and AJ Muhlach. A sitcom with Iskul Bukol Men topbilled by Aki Torio, Abra and Josh Padilla, and another with Maya Loves Sir Chief topbilled by Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap. A weekly showbiz talk show Seeing Stars Tonight by Joey Marquez, musical variety showDingdong n' Lani with Dingdong Avanzado and Lani Misalucha aired at 8:30 p.m. on Sunday nights.

Pwede ba, may telenovelas pa rin like The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente, and sports basketball like the PBA and NBA, ONE FC, some Asian dramas sila like Spy Myung- wol and Hayate the Combat Butler. At, meron daw silang pantapat sa Primetime Bida at Telebabad, at sa Yes Weekend.

PBA begins its new season in October. IBC-13 says that it will show both games live with Express Balita most likely to be aired between games. The fantasy series will be aired at 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 to 8 p.m. soaps will be aired at 9:30 to 10 p.m. after the PBA game. Will it be successful as the counter-programming to ABS-CBN and GMA. In fact, IBC-13's premiere of those Asianovelas at 5:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. back to back may herald the network's TreseBella block. Also, will airing the Tagalog movies three-times-a-week: Viva Cine Idols (Monday), Viva Box Office (Saturday) and Sunday Sinemaks(Sunday). It's good that IBC-13 decided to add new in the market by reformatting. I think its exciting. and para may option. muhkang ok ang direction ng Kapinoy ngayon, especially with a telenovela hits The Two Sides of Ana (Dalawang Mukha ni Ana) and La Teniente generating a lot of buzz with a fans. I think it's best that Express Balita airs for 60 minutes in between PBA games on Wednesday and Friday. Make the first game 4:30-6 p.m. on INN, then Express Balita at 6:30 and the second game at 8 p.m.

The teleseryes should be aired at 9:30 pm. For the weekend games, make them Satruday from 2:30-4:30 and Suindays at 2 p.m. on INN and 4 p.m. on IBC.

PBA Finals Garners High Viewership Ratings for IBC-13

July 14, 2014

It was a fitting end to a magnificent 39th Season of the PBA when the San Mig Super Coffee Mixers finally clinched their grand slam win over the Rain or Shine ElastoPainters in the do-ordie Game 5 of the PLDT Home Telpad Governors' Cup Finals last Wednesday evening, and IBC-13 scored even bigger when its live telecast of the heated game garnered high viewership ratings and placed it at the Top 5 of the most watched primetime program, based on overnight data from Kantar Media. The game averaged almost 4 million viewers or 10.5% AMR and 34.0% audience share in the National Urban TV Audience Measurement (NUTAM) from 4-6:15pm, equalling the high ratings reached during the Philippine Cup Finals last February. At its peak, the game was watched by 5.7 million viewers or 13.3%AMR and 56.8% audience share. The game's viewership ratings managed to overtake shows on the other networks, such as ABS-CBN's The Buzz and TV Patrol Weekend as well as GMA-7's True Horror Stories and 24 Oras Weekend.

"What a perfect end to a record-breaking PBA coverage this season on The Kapinoy Network. It was a tightly-fought series between these two great teams with two of the best basketball coaches in the country. History was also made with the grand slam feat of the San Mig Super Coffee Mixers. It just goes to show how much Filipinos love the PBA," Dong Alejar, Head of IBC Sports, said.

Gate attendance at the SMART Araneta Coliseum for Game 5 reached a season-high of 23,234 fans.

The 39th Season of the PBA was presented by IBC Sports, the sports production arm of IBC and Viva Sports, the sports production and marketing of Viva Entertainment. It will be also bringing PBA and NBA games to Filipinos with the LIVE free TV broadcast of the games.

The D-League Returns to INN and PBA is on Channel 13

Sana'y na tayo sa Kapamilya, Kapuso at Kapatid, at mga Kapinoy dito na tayo sa totoong number #3 TV Network ang IBC maging Ito'ng Bagong Channel 13.

After one and a half years of absence in Philippine television, the PBA Developmental League has finally returned to IBC News Network (INN) Channel 45 through the channel's newest primetime program block ATC @ INN. The PBA D-League and Asian Television Content Corporation will join forces to air the league's games beginning next season. Starting October 28, 2014, the league's games will be aired on a delayed basis from 7:30 to 9:30 pm on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday primetime and Saturday from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

In which, the PBA basketball games will continue to aired on IBC Channel 13 as part of the primetime programming. The Philippine Basketball Association (PBA), IBC Sports and Viva Sports will join forces to air the league's games beginning next season. Starting October 28, 2014, the league's games will be aired on on primetime from Wednesday and Friday 8:00 to 9:30 pm for 1.5 hour games, Saturday 2:30 to 4:30 pm and Sunday from 4:00 to 6:15 pm for two-hour game weekend.

It seems that Asian Television Content Corporation has stepped up in this new agreement with the Philippine Basketball Association. Not only that this agreement will mark the return of the D-League to INN 45 and PBA to IBC-13, but also further establishes ATC as an emerging force in the Philippine television industry. Since it started airing last June 2, 2014, ATC @ INN has been offering a mix of old and new programs that would give viewers a different TV experience.

Various mix of documentary programs such as Animalia, Gadgets and Gizmos, Cinema Nouveau, Fame, Football Fanatics, The Amazing World of Automobiles, among others. Among their new ATC @ IBC programs are the Filipino-dubbed Mexican drama series The Two Sides of Ana and La Teniente, and the Asian dramas like I Need Romance 3, the top-rating Korean drama and the most successful Taiwanese drama Hayate the Combat Butler as part of TreseBella, highly-rated Japanese anime series Ghost Fighter, Primetime 13 shows like the medical dramaserye Catch Me Fall in Love, the trend-setting fantaserye Batang Geniusand Janella: A Princess Girl, for a family bonding entertainment like the dramaserye Your Heart, My Love and the comedy sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, getting soem laughs through the political satire news Sic O'Clock News Namanand the hottest male sitcom Iskul Bukol Men, the drama anthology series Sandy's Romance, the all-male gag show Happy TODAS for the boys night out with a sexy ladies, the horror series Shake, Rattle and Roll, dance show DMZ-TV, showbiz talk show Seeing Stars Tonight, comedy talk show Last Fool Show, the musical variety show Dingdong n' Lani, the four of top-rating game shows on primetime TV like The Million Second Quiz, Killer Karaoke and Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?, and the top-rating and multiawarded singing-reality show for a national singing contest Born to be a Superstar. It also has the Viva Tagalog blockbuster movies on primetime like Viva Cine Idols, Viva Box Officeand Sunday Sinemaks, and some popular sports programs like PBA and NBA for basketball aficionados, and ONE FC for MMA fighter fans.

This deal is a welcome development for both the PBA D-League, Asian Television Content Corporation, PBA, IBC Sports, Viva Sports and IBC 13. But we will see if this investment pays off for both parties. I would expect that Asian Television Content Corporation, Viva Communications, Inc. and IBC will continue to offer more alternative, quality, innovative and creative core intact programs in the future.

October 5, 2014

The National Basketball Association (NBA) took a major ste in its expansion into the Philippines with signing of a new multi-year agreement with Viva Sports, the country's leading sports production and marketing organization and IBC Sports, which will telecast the NBA games on IBC-13, one of the Philippines' most innovative television broadcasters. Along with NBA thru Basketball TV which is also brought by Solar Sports.

"we are truly excited to join forces with one of the most dynamic broadcasters in the Philippines to bring NBA basketball to sports enthusiasts throughout this country," said NBA Commissioner David J. Stern.

"The Philippines has contributed substantially to the growth of the sport in the region through its professional league, the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) for primetime and the television coverage of the NBA and IBC-13 by Viva Sports is certain to enhance the populayity of basketball globally," Stern said.

IBC Sports and Viva Sports will begin its NBA basketball games broadcast on IBC-13 every Saturday morning at 10 a.m. to 12 noon and Sundays at 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. With the professional basketball action of the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) every Wednesday and Friday at 8 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Sundays from 2:30 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

Viva Chairman and CEO Vic del Rosario, Jr. said, "This is the biggest and most significant agreement since entering into our mutually rewarding relationship with the Philippine Basketball Association. We are condifent IBC Sports will be just as successful in develoiping widespread public support for the NBA as we have been for the PBA in cooperation with out friends in the PBA Commissioner's office and the distinguished members of the PBA Board of Governors. Basketball knows no barriers and has emerged as a truly global sport and we in the Philippines have embraced basketball with a national passion.

"IBC Sports is very excited to be working with the NBA to give our viewers a comprehensive coverage of the NBA which will include the regular season games. Playoffs and Finals plus on IBC News Network (INN 45) with NBA Action, NBA Highlights and a brand new weekly half hour show targeted at teenagers which offers a unique perspective into the game of basketball by profiling the on-and-off court activities of NBA players and providing a recap of game action set to popular music" Rosario continued.

PBA 2014-15 season starts October 19 on IBC

October 5, 2014

MANILA, Philippines - A glittering opening number, a grand welcome to the Hall of Famers and the parade of beautiful muses await viewers of the 40th PBA Season on October 29 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum.

Adding to the excitement of IBC Sports is the PBA's new partnership with Viva Sports and IBC-13, the country's undisputed number 3 station which is fast gaining recognition as the brand new home of the Philippine Basketball Association (PBA) and the National Basketball Association (NBA) will be put on sale.

This is correct. PBA grants the coverage rights to Viva Sports, the network will on Channel 13 where they have purchased blocktime hours already. While IBC 13 remains to be a government-run network and now is the country's top-rating network, it is also giving more money, hence, the need for this station to get our own viewership hours to interested groups. Viva Television has decided to buy a certain number of hours per day from IBC 13 to build its number 4 network. The government earns money from the blocktime hours sale, Viva Sports gets a medium to broadcast programs for the public and possibly earn advertising revenues.

It is also interesting to note that Vic del Rosario, Jr., the owner, chairman and CEO of Viva Entertainment, is interested in purchasing IBC 13 as the government gives the signal to buying the network and its facilities.

The coverage known as PBA on IBC, which is in turned aired on Channel 13. This is the third time that the PBA will be aired on IBC. The first was from 1996-2002 when Vintage Sports and later Viva Sports handled the television coverage. In 2003, IBC was one of two networks (the other being NBN) that covered the PBA but ended before the season ended due to the failure of the consortium.

This is also the first time that the league will have 12 teams. The two new teams are Kia Sorento and Blackwater Elite. Although the NLEX Road Warriors had been approved as an expansion team, their owners instead opted to buy the Air21 Express franchise. The PBA also had conversations with IBC 13's top executives on the possibility of airing the games on the network at reasonable airtime costs.

Making up the fourth batch of honorees into the Hall of Fame are Alvin Patrimonio, Billy Ray Bates, Freddie Hubalde, Tommy Manotoc, Mariano Yenko, Tito Eduque and Bobong Velez. The league will continue to use the three-conference format, starting with the Philippine Cup. The Commissioner's Cup and the Governors' Cup are the second and third conferences for this season.

You can catch the games live every Wednesdays and Fridays, starting at 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., on Saturdays at 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and on Sundays starting at 2:30 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. on IBC-13. Radio listeners nationwide can also get to hear the action on Sports Radio 918 AM.

A Full-Time Return to IBC-13 for the PBA

October 17, 2014

The defending grand slam champions Purefoods Star Hotshots (formerly San Mig Super Coffee Mixers) and 11 other teams will once again wage war as the PBA kicks off its 40th season on the IBC-13 family of networks. (Photo credit: Purefoods Star Hotshots official Facebook)

The Philippine Basketball Association is definitely back on the sequestered TV station IBC-13.

Starting with the 2014-15 season, all games of the PBA will now be seen on the flagship IBC network every Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

As a result of the PBA's full-time return to The Kapinoy Network, here is the new schedule that will be implemented during Wednesday and Friday games:

4:30 p.m. - TreseBella: Fated to Love You

5:00 p.m. - Kroko: Ang Alamat sa Zoo

5:30 p.m. - Hitman

6:00 p.m. - Janella: A Princess Girl

6:30 p.m. - Express Balita (LIVE)

7:30 p.m. - Voltron Man

8:00 p.m. - PBA second game (LIVE)

9:30 p.m. - Your Heart, My Love

10:00 p.m. - TreseBella: Que Bonito Amor

10:30 p.m. - TreseBella: Sunny Girl

There will be no changes to the schedules on Saturdays and Sundays, as the PBA games usually occupy the more vacant slots.

In addition, DZTV Radyo Budyogn 1386 will now air a majority of the PBA games for its radio listeners. As a result, here is the Wednesday and Friday schedule for Radyo Budyong during PBA game days:

4:30 p.m. - PBA first game

6:30 p.m. - Express Balita

7:30 p.m. - Celebrity Muna

8:00 p.m. - PBA second game

9:30 p.m. - Dear Boots Roa

10:15 p.m. - My Dr. Heart

Radyo Budyong will also air Sunday games. It will also carry Saturday playdates, since the majority of these games will be held in the provinces. In a related development, IBC Sports and Viva Sports announced that IBC News Network (INN 45) will once again simulcast the PBA games.

For cable subscribers, Fox Sports Asia will continue to air the PBA games on Wednesdays, with English-language commentary from Sports5 announcers. They will also air the cup finals in its entirety.

Pinoy Extreme will also air replays of the PBA games, albeit exclusive to SkyCable and Cignal subscribers. And finally, for online subscribers, the PBA can now be seen via livestreaming on the official PBA on IBC Sports website. In two days, the 2014-15 PBA Philippine Cup gets underway. For 12 teams participating, and to IBC family of networks, good luck in giving the fans a whole lot of basketball action all season long.

Express Balita anchored by Henry Omaga-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go will air for 60 minutes only. This can be considered a huge slap on the people manning IBC news ceter in Broadcast City. The reduction in airtime in favor of a more formidable program that is PBA should send a signal. Their airtime is just roughly 1/3 of the airtimes given to its counterparts TV Patrol and 24 Oras.

For the PBA fans, Express Balita is IBC's primetime news program versus the rivals of TV Patrol and 24 Oras with Henry Omaga-Diaz and Snooky Serna-Go. Ronda Trese is IBC's latenight newscast than other late evening news of Bandila and Saksi with Bernadette Sembrano and Jess Caduco.

The PBA games will be LIVE on IBC-13. Only the one game will start airing 1.5 hour on Wedensdays and Fridays at 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. right after the action superserye Voltron Man (7:30 p.m.) and right before the dramaserye Your Heart, My Love (9:30 p.m.) while while Saturday games also at 3:15 p.m. (out-of-town) before IBC's top-rated shows are The Million Second Quiz, Janella: A Princess Girl: Janella's Party, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Super Ninja, Sandy's Romance, Born to be a Superstar, T.O.D.A.S., Viva Tagalog movies Viva Box Office and the weekend news program at midnight Express Balita Weekend.

For Sundays, games are 2:30 and 4:45 p.m., to be followed by IBC's top-rated shows are Love Sweetheart, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Born to be a Superstar, Dingdong n' Lani, Express Balita Weekend and the power-packed Pinoy action blockbusters Sunday Sinemaks.

IBC-13 Launches Express Balita Ilonggo

July 2, 2012

IBC-13 added another milestone to its regional programming with the launch of Express Balita Ilonggo last July 18, 2012 during an exciting whole-day affair held in Iloilo City. The launching of the news program coincided with the official re-introduction of DYBQ Radyo Budyong 981 and the inauguration of the state-of-the-art IBC-12 Iloilo Studios at BOC Bldg., JM Basa corner Mapa Streets, Iloilo City.

An exiciting line-up of activities like a motorcade, a live concert and inaugural speeches by the newest anchor Bing-Bing Josue and Jun Arbolado and IBC-13 executives, were prepared to comemorate the event. The day culminated with the live premiere of Express Balita llonggo. Broadcast live in the studio of IBC-12 Iloilo, the 30-minute program is anchored by local newscaster Jun Arbolado. Aired Mondays thru Fridays at 3:30 to 4:00 pm, the local Express Balita will feature the latest events in the Panay region. The installation of a ENG Van system makes the Iloilo broadcast studio capable of immediate satellite transmission for the delivery of the latest news. The station welcomed to the IBC News and Public Affairs, a news organization which is a gathering of all the TV and radio news organizations of IBC in the provinces.

In line with the thrust of IBC Regional TV and Radio Network to further localize provincial programming, its stations in key cities nationwide also started producing their own editions of Express Balita. Express Balita Ilonggo is the latest addition to the growing list of regional editions of the popular journalism news program. Along with the various provinces are Express Balita Bisaya (IBC-13 Cebu), Express Balita Amianan (IBC-13 Baguio) and Express Balita Davaoeno (IBC-13 Davao), all of which use the local dialects in their regions.

Aside from the local editions of Express Balita, the various regional stations are also producing their own news advisories and public service programs like Ikaw Kabuhi Ko. The need for these local news programs are becoming apparent as viewers in the regional areas are starting to crave for news outside of Metro Manila.

IBC chairman Eric Canoy said that "IBC has focused on elevating the provincial arena to the forefront of national events. Metro Manila is no longer the sole center of social and political issues. What happens in Panay today should be equally important to events unfolding in Manila."

According to plans are already underway to build-up the Cebu and Davao stations as the entertainment center of the Panay region. To be launched by next year is a live variety show and a public affairs program which will involve not only Panay but all of the regional TV and radio areas as well.

BEAM TV 31's New Schedule this 2013

Channel 31's new slogan Ang Katuloy Natin parang TV, as the branding Katuloy network. Channel 31 will now airs O Shopping (daily 9am-2pm) and TBN Asia programs (daily 7-9am and 2-6pm and 12mn-3am) since September 1, 2014, a day after the last Free TV broadcast of Jack City, as BEAM prepared for Digital Terrestrial Television in the Philippines. Its studios and broadcast facilities are located at the Unit 507 Taipan Place, F. Ortigas Jr. Road, Ortigas Center, Pasig City, and the transmitter is located at Palos Verdes Subdivision, Sumulong Highway, Antipolo City, province of Rizal.

BEAM TV 31 is now the proud member of the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP). Debuting on October 1, 2014 as the primetime-only block, BEAM TV 31 was first utilized by RMN as its answer to UNTV and Net 25. RMN was picked as the broadcast arm of TBN Asia and O Shopping in the Philippines at the time, and also with BEAM TV Channel 31 started test broadcast in September 1, 2014 with rebroadcast of TBN Asia and O Shopping. A month later, it launched its own programming under the station name BEAM TV 31 and adopted the slogan Ang Katuloy Natin parang TV. The station initially ran TBN Asia and O Shopping rebroadcasts in the day, and ran its own shows at primetime. It also ran for 24 hours, but financial limitations forced it to sign off at 3AM every day. That has been the broadcast arrangement ever since.

The flagship station, DWKC-TV signed on about a month before the launch of BEAM TV 31, simulcasting the Philippinr airwaves of TBN Asia programming. BEAM TV 31 was officially launched on October 1, 2014, when the blocktime timeshare with TBA Asia and O Shopping aired during the daytime, with BEAM TV's newest programming taking over in the primetime hours.

The local programming introducing BEAM TV's two Filipino news programs News 31 with Gilbert Remulla and Latetime News with Weng dela Pena as the news anchors of the newscast will cater to the masses with the help of BEAM TV News and DZXL correspondents and reporters. The network will also devote programs like gaming, entertainment and movies.

Profile Edit

The world's dance music zone DZMZ 89.1 is back as iDMZ on the FM radio band on IBC relaunched last August 28, 2011 presents the danze muzic zone and remixed music with K-Pop music and novelty hits, while accommodating today's dance hit for good with a new sound, a new face and new DJ voices whose programming is geared, focused, derived, and remixed to danze music zone as the #1 internet danze mix radio.

With its format as a danze music zone, iDMZ's programming directly targets the market, with your favorite artists, events, on-air, interactivities, promos, premiere night tickets and so much more definition of mainstream radio via audio-video streaming as well as on the internet is unique and they have the coolest DJ's on Earth for the listeners from DJ mixes as authority in dance music indentifies the station with the highly influential and upscale target market of the 15 to 40 age bracket.

After producing more quality shows for IBC-13, they are now starting to penetrate the FM scene nationwide has had around 21,000 listeners from all over the world as well as Facebook (also a group fan page) and Twitter with more than 5,000 active members. Audience profile studies conducted by leading advertising agencies indicate a high level of appreciation of danze format even above the station's Asian market and mass-based giving the best and latest in the world of dance music for listenership.

Playlist Edit

On the songs it play, mostly the songs are dance music sound and remixed music as well as K-Pop music and novelty hits, especially they play OPM songs in the two OPM program as part of the new programming of IBC's FM radio station. iDMZ's dance music menu is a non-stop mix of club hits, techno hits, reggae and slow jams.

This is the whole spectrum of danze music, encompassing such diverse musical styles such as new wave, slow jams, rock music, club music, disco, ballroom, OPM and K-Pop.

Most upscale audience from the A, B and C classes in Metro Manila also in the mass market as part of danze muzic zone. New jingle of iDMZ, play every top of the hour, with the voices of singing champion Anja Aguilar. Along wih the new jingle coem new photos. We'll be uploading some of these onout websites. part of the Metro Manila's #1 internet danze mix radio picked iDMZ as the country's premiere dance music station with choice on their homes and offices, making them also the number one station.

As listened to the radio shows of iDMZ, each program plays at least one song sponsorship. I also observed how the disc jockeys open up a DJ discussion. When we say DJ discussion, it is simply having to talk about a certain product sponsor during their program.

Jingle Edit

he station has taken efforts to improve its programming and imaging as well. New jingles for the dance music station, iDMZ on its first anniversary has released their newest station ID jingle entitled Sayaw FM 89.1. Sung jingles are important part of the overall sound especially if you are a masa station. The new iDMZ jingles resembles the electro themes and new lyrics of the 89 DMZ's jingles.

This is an original song composed for iDMZ for their 1st year anniversary as Sayaw Pinoy!. Composed by Marcus Davis and Amber Davis and performed by singing champion Anja Aguilar, the jingle runs 2 minute and 23 seconds.

The jingle's hook goes: Sa iDMZ / Ang paboritong sayawan, ang tuloy-tuloy ang sayaw ka na / Sa iDMZ / Mas masaya araw-araw, sa Sayaw Pinoy where relaunched last January 2012. In line also with their anniversary celebration, The Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation owned station is hosting a 2-day anniversary festival event dubbed Sayaw Selebrasyon on July 6-7, 2012.

Ratings Edit

So, while against on other mass-formatted radio station, iDMZ is now the #1 internet danze mix radio just like these stations, its playlist is danze music to listen known as Metro Manila's Danze Muzic Authority. Maintaining its slogan as Sayaw Pinoy! give emphasis on the local music industry, as they play OPM songs as part of danze muzic zone. Generally, iDMZ is an dance music station become a mass-based FM station.

Disc Jockeys Edit

Its programs are now acclaimed for successfully integrating the dance music sound in an Asian market and more market at the time. iDMZ have more DJ's namely The Unbeatable, The Force, The Sting, Blare, ZJ Ziggy, Marc the Spark, Kaye, Anne, Rommel "The Destroyer" Dayan, DJ Alfie, Nicole, Peewee, Georgina, Raya, The Mighty Dash, among others.

Their iDMZ's newest programs are Wave 24 every Sundays from 6am-6am (the following day); a 24 hours of new wave music, Slowjam on Monday from 6am-6am (the following day), a 24 hours of down beat mix; Be Heard! every Tuesday to Friday 10am-12 nn and 8-10 pm (Manila time), promotes both professional and non-professional Filipino and foreign DJs from all over the world, Be Heard! as the most sought-after and highly-rated program; Rockin' Manila on Saturday at 6-9 am with Pinoy rock hits 6-9 pm (Manila time), a 3 hours of rock music; Saturday Clubbing every Saturday from 9am-12 nn and 9pm-12 mn (Manila time) 3 hours of party clubbing music; Back to the 80s every Saturday at 12nn-2 pm and 12mn-2 am (Manila time), a 2 hours of non-stop hits of the 80's; and Sayaw Top 10 every Tuesday to Friday from 6-7 pm (Manila time), a most requested dance hits from international artist, respectively. Other programs they have are Peewee in the Morning from Tue-Fri 6-9 am, a three hours of news and dance music in the morning, The Word as hourly news airs everyday; uninterruptable Megamix everyday; Mobile Circuit on Tue-Fri at 4:30-6 pm, a disco-mixing; K-Pop N Go every Saturday from 4-6pm (Manila time), a 2-hours of K-Pop music and OPM in-a-Raw every hour and Saturday 3-4 pm, an OPM program from Pinoy artist.

I can say that these DJ's are very good. Mainly English and Filipino speaking, they also use Filipino words to connect to listeners for the dance music.

Advertisements/Sponsorships Edit

Of course, a broadcasting industry support from its advertisers. Their ads occupy much their airtime, still giving more emphasis to danze music.

Some of its more ads are McDonalds, RC

Cola, Monterey, Jollibee, Chowking, PLDT, Propan TLC, Charmee Pantiliner, Globe and many more sponsors. Just like any other station, iDMZ also now has its movie premiere series to their listeners. They now called as Sine Sayaw next attraction their current advance screening as the premiere night tickets.

Under of Intercontinental Broadcasting Corporation, you will hear here the announcements of Globe, the #1 in postpaid and the IBC with Globe promo the said stations have the Globe radio plugs.

Mostly hear during morning, afternoon, late afternoon, and mid-evening. They make a gap, playing their station jingle. Speaking of jingle, their jingles resembles the dance themes and lyrics of the iDMZ's jingles, continuing the tradition of the latter.

Plus, we will be giving away iDMZ car sticker and souvenir shirt for all featured DJs. Listen to your danze music zone, check out the latest events and prizes might be given away by their sponsors, it has its website, and you can tune in to it online through 89DMZ.com

IBC-13 Showcases Talents, Hosted First Day of Ad Summit 2014

It's my first time going to the Ad Summit. I have been hearing about this from Advertising people and they only have good words. I wasn't expecting much but given that I'll be seeing new people from the Philippine broadcasting and advertising industry, I knew this would be something for the books. IBC-13 has been steadfastly producing great shows recently and with that, a multitude of services included in their portfolio. Their theme for this year is Convergence. It connotes being affectionate, closeness, intimacy, fellowship, friendship, being inseparable and or warm fellowship. They introduced this to the market so sponsors can take advantage of having maximum visibility. With the powers of Globe, advertisements and IBC-13, you'll see something bigger and cover a wide range of audience in this competitive market.

Print TV ads: PBA, The Million Second Quiz, IBC News ads (Balita sa Umaga, RadyoBisyon, IBC Headliners, News at Noon, Express Balita, Ronda Trese, Express Balita Weekend), Born to be a Superstar, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Janella: A Princess Girl, Voltron Man, Your Heart, My Love, Maya Loves Sir Chief, Super Ninja, Sandy's Romance, Sic O'Clock News Naman, T.O.D.A.S., Love Romance, Dingdong n' Lani, Seeing Stars Tonight

IBC-13 has asserted it's position in making quality programs and cover even the best sports organizations in the country. With Philippine TV hits such as PBA and NBA games, The Million Second Quiz, Born to be a Superstar, Who Wants to be a Millionaire?, Hitman, Janella: A Princess Girl, Voltron Man, Your Heart, My Love, a sitcom Maya Loves Sir Chief, Sandy's Romance, T.O.D.A.S., Sic O'Clock News Naman, Seeing Stars Tonight, Dingdong n' Lani, Super Ninja, Love Sweetheart and other shows making a mark on Philippine TV ratings like the survey of Kantar Media, they have produced original stories, concepts and even their new stars in house. Endorsers come from the same station, they take the high ground and prove worthy of products they believe in - converting to really believable people that the public agrees with.

Just also look at Janella Salvador, AJ Muhlach, Jodi Sta. Maria and Richard Yap, Mario Maurer, Nadine Lustre, Drew Arellano, Anja Aguilar, Robi Domingo, Claudine Barretto, Raymart Santiago, Diether Ocampo, Dingdong Dantes, Cristine Reyes and how the fans purchase the products.

IBC-13 also hosted the dinner on the first day of the Ad Summit last October 10. It was attended by 2,500 delegates from different entities in the Philippines. So just imagine how big the crowd was in the Subic Bay Exhibition and Convention Center. Then Eric Canoy arrived.

"The first time I spoke to the advertising community was a little over 20 years ago in 1996. I said then that ABS and GMA were quarreling over who's number 1. IBC-13 was the undisputed number 3 in the industry. Today, can I confirm that we are still number 3."
